Johnny Holman and family moved into town last week. They have rooms in L. K. Moore's brick building.

If we have a "curfew" ordinance it would be well to enforce it and keep boys and girls off the streets after 9 o'clock.

Moore Bros. & Ginn received a large shipment of lumber Tuesday. Their wood pile is getting slim but that will be replenished as soon as a car can be procured.

The Woodmen of the World passed in 23 new applicants for membership in the order, Wednesday night last. The camp contemplates a grand log rolling about the last of November.

W. A. Campbell the genial agent for the Penn Mutual Life Ins. Co., came in on yesterdays train, leaving for the interior to day with his pockets full of application blanks.

Francis Ireland was in from his farm near Kent, Tuesday, settling up farm accounts. He expects to move his family to Moro soon.

Several parties missed the moon for three hours Thursday, the 16th. The fact being that her serene ladyship was in total eclipse from 8 until 11 o'clock. Several of our citizens were out studying the astronomical phenomenon.

A. S. Hampton and wife from near Pendleton visited several days with Mr. Hampton's mother and sisters in this county, returning to their home Tuesday of this week.

B. W. Maddox and T. J. Brown with whom there has been so much litigation over the Oregon King mine passed through town en route to Ashwood, Monday.

Misses Jennie and Maud Miller, nieces of J. W. Brock who have been visiting in Moro returned to their home in Hood River, Sunday.

Several well meaning people have arranged to give parties on the night of Halloween so there need be no excuse for children roaming the streets, and committing petty acts of mischief.

All persons interested in education should attend the teacher's meeting in upper Hay Canyon school house Saturday, November, 1st. All the principle teachers in the county will be present.

A dance will be held in Grass Valley next Saturday night. A lovely prize will be given for the best dancers, lady and gentlemen. The music will be supplied by an automatic musician from Shaniko. This musician will be worth 50 cents, the price of admission, to see.

At a special meeting of the city council on Tuesday last, it was decided to pass a curfew ordinance to keep young people off the streets after 9 o'clock. Windows have been broken and other pranks committed that peaceable people cannot be expected to stand. There is going to be a change all around and parents may take a hint and see that their children do not get into serious trouble.

W. J. Hosford was in town Sunday returning from Sherman county to Collins Springs. Mr. Hosford hopes to secure from the railroad company a lease on the springs for a term of years, and in this event he will erect a hotel there before next season opens and make preparations for entertaining visitors to the springs.—Tin es-mountainier.

Messrs. Hickson and Fitzmaurice had a banner day on the Des Chutes Sunday. Five salmon and several trout finding their way out of the wet. Mr. Hickson succeeded in landing a 15-lb fish on a number 8 hook and single leader. It took about three hours to land the big fellow, as he would persist in taking a rest now and again, however, patience and skill succeeded in getting him in reach of Fitzmaurice's gaff, which ended the performance in short order.

George Kirth and family will leave for Portland tomorrow. George has done well since his arrival in this town, having purchased a lot, built a house, and sold the property at a handsome profit.

L. K. Moore's brick building is nearly finished and is one of the nicest business places in town. The glass front is being put in place by John Walton and the building will be ready for occupancy next week.

Logan-Darby.

On Wednesday evening, October 23rd, Dr. Ray Logan and Miss Bertha Darby were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents.

Dr. Logan is one of our leading physicians, and one of the most popular men socially and professionally in the county. He is located in Moro about two years ago, during which time he has been very successful in his practice of medicine and surgery, the latter branch of his profession being his special study.

Miss Darby is also well known in our little community having taught school here for several terms. She is one of Salem's fairest daughters and a young lady of culture and refinement.

The happy couple are spending a short time in Spokane, and they will be at home to their friends after November 1st.

Location work on the Columbia Southern extension into Crook county has been completed to a point about three miles east of Cline Falls, and the surveyors are camped at Pickett Island. The distance from there to Bend is about 16 miles and is expected to be completed by the first of next month. It is believed that President Lytle will then make a definite statement as to when the contracts will be let for construction work.

A sudden death occurred at St Vincent's hospital, Portland, Tuesday afternoon that will bring sorrow to many readers of this paper. It was the death of Arthur J. Van Houten, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Van Houten, of Hay Creek, Crook county. With his brother he was attending school at Hill's Academy, and was taken seriously ill with scarlet fever. So severe was the attack, that he was placed in the hospital, and his parents, who only last week had visited the boys at Portland and were in Walla Walla, were summoned to his bedside. They arrived at the hospital in the morning to find him unconscious and he died in the afternoon.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Mrs. A. E. Cousens very pleasantly entertained the whist club at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. W. H. Moore succeeded in winning the first prize while W. H. captured the booby, an A, B, C. Book. This is the first meeting of the club this season.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve hay fever or cold in the head.

Catarrh when neglected often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure catarrh in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once, and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "Snuffles" the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure.

Sent prepaid to any address in the United States or Canada on receipt of One Dollar. Address Dept. H 567, Edwin B. Giles & Co., 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia.

Twenty-eight blooded bucks were stolen from the stock pens of the O. R. & N. Co., in Baker City last week. They were being shipped by C. B. Durbin to The Dalles. Frank Wallace is under arrest charged with the theft.

Out of Death's Jaws.
"When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes P. Muse, Durham, N. C., "Dr King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave perfect health." Best pills on earth and only 25c at G. N. Bolton's drugstore.

An old lady was in town this week working in the interests of the Woman's Home in Portland. The home is an institution that should have the hearty support of the whole community. Many a young woman who has forsaken the right path for the wrong is there shown the error of her ways and given suitable employment.

Forty Years Torture.
To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of any one. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. G. N. Bolton.

THE FEAR OF DEATH

IT SHOULD FIND NO LODGMENT IN ANY RATIONAL MIND.

Yet This Dread of Meeting the Inevitable is so Universal That Our Entire Social Fabric is Largely Built Upon It.

Do we dread death on the same principle that half a flock of sheep leap through a certain hole in a fence—because the other half has done so? For unless the fear be traditional and hereditary it is hard to account for it.

Death is a change, occupying a moment, from one form of life to another. Whether it come in the course of nature or by accident or design, it is seldom painful; never probably so painful as a bout of the toothache. It brings us from a condition of bondage and uncertainty at best to one of freedom and security. But often it is a change from slavery, both physical and moral, to emancipation comparatively perfect, or, if we hold the materialist view, to exulting unconsciousness. The spiritual state is emancipated from the inertia of matter and the tyranny of space; therefore thought will be presence, and a man's surroundings as to both thing and person will be leveling such as are most desirable to him. The evil will be consigned to the opposition of the good, and the good will not be grieved and hampered by the machinations of the evil. The whole chapter of accidents which here looms so large will there be eliminated. Time, which now makes us long for the arrival of an appointed hour and now dreads its too speedy coming, will be more. But we shall meet very seldom by its necessity, one of its opportunities. In other words, we shall be the makers of our own times and seasons.

Death takes us from a world of effects to one of causes. The soul is made of will and thought, and, as we may daily perceive, it is only the obstruction of material conditions that prevents us from immediately accomplishing our desires and beholding the realization of our thoughts. Again, death is inevitable to all and to any one who chooses is at any moment attainable. By what logic can our fear of it be defended?

Yet we fear it so much and so universally that our entire social fabric is built largely upon that fear. Our law makes death the supreme penalty. Our funerals are occasions of mourning, and the medical profession, one of the most numerous extant, spends its existence in combating death. We seek eagerly all nostrums or elixirs that promise us continuance of life. We ascribe supreme merit to the soldier who risks his life for his country or to the individual who sacrifices it for others. We had the stoicism which affects to despise death, but which bases the virtue of that despising upon the acknowledged terror of the event. Our humanitarians spend sympathy and money in attempting to prolong the miserable condition of the poor and diseased. We shudder to hear of a vast natural calamity like that of Martiniere or of avoidable accidents such as are furnished daily by railroads and other instruments of civilization. And all the while it is the survivors who suffer, if any one does, though they, too, are soon comforted by time or the insurance companies. The dead man, the man who has entered upon the new and spiritual life, whom we absurdly pity, is free, and his troubles are over.

Suicides, it is true, are said to increase with civilization. But few philosophical suicides occur. The majority are induced by dread of life or by an overbearing dread of death. It may be doubted if suicide be ever the act of a man at once perfectly brave and thoroughly sane. The value of this life—and it is a real value—is in the discipline and experience it gives, which it is our honest and sensible duty to improve to the utmost and to the last. Life may be interesting and arduous; it may be disappointing and irksome. It is very seldom if it even unites and positively agreeable. Fear, on the other hand, is one of the worst and basest of evils, and fear of death the most irrational. It must have originated in sheer ignorance and thoughtlessness. It ought to vanish before our modern enlightenment and sagacity, and with its disappearance will appear social changes that cannot but be revolutionary and salutary.—Julian Hawthorne in Brandeur Magazine.

Ladies, attention! You should see the nice assortment of turnover collars at the Beehive.

Vacuum Fruit Jars at the Sherman Trading Co. Best on earth.

We acknowledge the receipt of "The X" a new magazine published by the faculty and students of the academy at Grass Valley. It is a neat little publication and we wish the students success in their venture.

His Life in Peril.
"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "billiousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run down people. Try them. Only 50c at G. N. Bolton's drug store.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the well known woman suffragist, died at her home in New York Sunday.

Look Out For Fever.
Billiousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. G. N. Bolton.

America's Famous Beauties.

Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infallible for piles. 25c at G. N. Bolton's drugstore.

Sherman county farmers have done very well this year, and are hard at work preparing for another crop, nearly all of them seeding an increased acreage. Grain that was sown early is coming up nicely and will make a good stand before severe weather sets in.

Goas Like Hot Cakes.
"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from Throat and Lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and all druggists guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c and $1.

Self-sealing Vacuum Fruit Jars, best in the market today, at Moro Implement Co. Gives universal satisfaction.

Have you been to see Heydt & Co.'s new line of horse blankets and winter robes? Having bought them in large lots they can give you good prices.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. E. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute cough cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." G. N. Bolton.

The Little Giant thresher, sold by Moore Bros. & Ginn, Moro, is one of the best machines of the kind on the market. The thresher and gasoline engine to run it can be bought for a tithe of the price paid for the larger outfits. One of these machines threshed 115 sacks of grain in 4 hours on a farm near town last week, from straw kept over from last year. A carload of these machines, latest improved and better than ever, are expected in town daily. Come in and figure for the outfit. With one of these you have a dead cinch on your crop. No need to wait until your neighbor is through; you can thresh when you please and with the ordinary help on the ranch.
