

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Fine job printing "while you wait" at the LEADER press room.

Red Seal lye is packed in large SIFTING top cans.—M. M. Co.

Biggest and best for 25 cts.—the meals you get at Delmonico, Wasco.

Henry Gostjen, of Rutledge, took in Moro Saturday.

For terms on Moro property call on or address R. E. Hoskinson.

Just received at E. Peoples' a fine new line of mattresses.

Open day and night, meals at all hours, Delmonico, Wasco.

A. M. Wright, one of the successful farmers of Hay Canyon, was in town Saturday.

If you want to buy a farm remember R. E. Hoskinson. He has some fine bargains.

Best in the market, prepared by the best cook in Wasco, at Delmonico Restaurant.

Lumber is arriving for the addition to the Moro Manufacturing Co's already large building.

If you want to know the live business men consult the advertising columns of the LEADER.

Messrs. E. O. Fuller and W. E. Tate, of Rufus, were in Moro last Friday on business.

A car load of the celebrated Monitor Drills just at hand. See M. M. Co. agents.

See another column for call for Second District Republican Congressional Convention.

Finest on the coast. What? Why, that car of buggies and hacks for sale by the Moro Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Mollie Barnum made the best score at the bowling alley last Wednesday, it being 35.

Clean your seed wheat with one of those fanning mills sold by M. M. Co. cheap.

Read our correspondence columns for the latest news from each place.

Subscriptions to almost any publication taken at publishers' prices at the Moro agency at the postoffice.

If you don't buy Hoe Cake soap you don't get the worth of your money.—M. M. Co.

Our genial friend J. H. Berger, of Grass Valley, was in to see the LEADER force Monday.

Will buy your fat cattle. Will sell you choice beef, pork, mutton and vegetables. PAGE & PARKY, Moro.

We sell Hoe Cake Soap.—M. M. Co.

Make no mistake! The place to get a first-class bath, hair cut and shave, is at Cousen's.

For sale or trade.—The stallion Coco is for sale on easy terms; or will trade for cattle or horses. Apply to R. Dingler, Wasco, Or. m1912

Do you want an elegant bed lounge? If so, you can get it at the Moro Furniture Store of E. Peoples.

Dallas-Moro stage is again making regular trips, leaving Moro Monday, Wednesday and Friday. D. C. Wigle, proprietor.

First-class meals served at the City Hotel. New management. Give us a trial.

This is an "Age of Soap." Why use any but the very best. Best soap means Hoe Cake.—M. M. Co.

The City Hotel has undergone a thorough renovating by Hayes & Holder, and is now ready for the public patronage. m24

If you desire to look your best, have your laundry done by the Troy Laundry Co. A. E. Cousen, agent. Call on him for prices.

In an action on account before Justice Hunting last Thursday, O. P. Hulse obtained judgment against Henry O. Cartwright.

A washing powder that is yellow will make clothes the same color. Avoid this by using Soap Foam.—M. M. Co.

Our correspondence from DeMoss Springs and Monkland arrived too late for publication last week, and we give part of it in this issue.

TAKE NOTICE.—The fare from Moro to Grass Valley is only 50 cents, unless passenger has heavy trunk, when 50 cents extra will be charged for it. ELLIS NEECE.

FOR SALE.—Two lots in Moro, formerly occupied by Mecklenzie & Somers' foundry building; splendid business location, on Main street. Apply to m2m1 J. B. Hosford, Moro, Or.

South-bound express handled with care and promptly by Ellis Neece.

Fresh fish at the City Market on Friday. Don't forget it. Page & Parry.

If courteous treatment and fair rates are the proper thing, the Moro-Rutledge stage line is all right.

A merciful man is merciful to his beast. Put your horses in the Altamont Jr. Stable, and Hayes & Dunahoo will see to it that they are well cared for.

Fine weather has given place to stormy and changeable, presumably for the benefit of those having to attend circuit court.

Hoe Cake soap and Red Seal lye are made by P. C. Tomson & Co., who have a national reputation for pure and high grade goods.—M. M. Co.

W. H. Ragsdale, one of our most popular teachers, no sooner closes one term than he begins another, beginning at Moro Friday, and being in attendance at the McCollum school Monday.

Fruit trees are nearly ready to bloom.

M. L. Cochran called at the LEADER office on Friday.

Don't forget to place your farm to sell with R. E. Hoskinson.

Subscriptions to the LEADER are coming in fast.

Geo. Brock is preparing to build on the lot he purchased of J. B. Hosford.

A. E. Lake, the sawmill man of Wamie, was in our county taking orders for lumber and looking around. He knows a good thing when he sees it, for he called at the LEADER office Monday evening and subscribed for the newest paper in Sherman county.

Every farmer that expects to raise good wheat, and lots of it, should seed with a drill, and all ask of those that are going to buy is to take a look at our new Monitor. There is no doubt, with our improvements, the Monitor is the best drill in the market. It is the only drill made with a slow and fast feed. The wheels are nearly twice as heavy as those on other drills. It has a long, heavy hub and truss rods. Call and see the drill for yourself.

MORO MERCANTILE CO.

Miss Daye Anderson was recently elected class historian of the Senior class at Monmouth Normal School. This is an honor greatly prized by the students there, and we are proud to say a Sherman county student captured it.

It's in town.

You'll be surprised. Won't "yellow the clothes." Won't burn your hands. Nothing equals it. Better than soap. Extra large packages. Soap Foam Washing Powder.

Lumber and other material for the new hotel to be erected by Mrs. Williams, is being placed on the ground, and building will commence in a few days, and be rapidly pushed.

Now is the time to have your property insured. Everything will be dry and inflammable soon. We will insure anywhere in the county and give you any one of the following old companies: Home of New York, Phoenix of Hartford, Imperial of London, Pennsylvania of Philadelphia, Home Mutual of Cal., or Etna of Hartford. Have your farm-houses and barns insured. The rates are very low on farm property.

MOORE BROS., Agents.

The Populists, at their primary held in Moro on the 12th, selected Frank Sayers, A. C. Huff, J. M. Powell and J. O. Powell as delegates to their county convention to meet here the 19th inst. J. M. Powell is their member of county central committee from Moro precinct.

Rev. Nickelsen will preach in the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath morning and evening. At the request of the W. C. T. U., the morning services will be in memorial of the late Miss Frances E. Willard. Morning subject, "An Uncrowned Queen." Evening subject, "Weighted in the Scales."

James H. Thompson passed through town Saturday, on his way to Grass Valley. Mr. Thompson has been in Canada for the last few months. That James has had an eye to business is evidenced by the fact that he persuaded one of Canada's fair women to take the name of Thompson and come to the empire of Sherman. The LEADER extends congratulations.

Dr. Darrin, now in Moro, till the 19th. Will be at Wallis Hotel, Rufus, Oregon, Sunday, March 20, to remain 3 days. Consultation free. All those who contemplate consulting the Dr. while here should do so at once, as his time is limited.

MR. CLARK E. GARDNER'S CARD.

Mr. Editor: I notice by your paper that Dr. Darrin has arrived in Astoria. I wish to state to the public what he did for my daughter eight years ago. For a long time she had been sorely afflicted with lung trouble, general debility, neuralgia of the heart and side. We considered her case hopeless, and as a last resort took her to Portland and placed her under Dr. Darrin's electric treatment. She at once commenced to improve, and in a few weeks was perfectly cured, and remains so to this day. My wife was so successfully treated for heart trouble. I will be glad to answer any questions, and can be seen in Portland, where I have resided for the past nine months. CLARK E. GARDNER.

Mrs. Dora Williams forwarded a large box and a package of clothing and other useful articles for the relief of Cubans, last Saturday. Mr. Peoples reports the following contributions to the same cause, to-wit: Cash—E. Peoples, D. C. Ireland & Sons, and R. J. Ginn, $2 each; L. M. Smith, L. W. Hunting, G. N. Bolton, J. H. Landry, Angus Kuek, Geo. W. Brock, T. M. Anderson and J. M. Bartlett, $1 each; W. O. Hadley and J. M. Dunahoo, 50 cents each; and E. H. Moore and Chas. Hulse 2 sacks of wheat each.

F. E. Brown's stage team arrived in Moro Saturday, much earlier than usual, and while the driver was unloading express packages the team took French leave, starting on the return trip to Grant without a driver, as they thought, but they were mistaken, for as the stage went down Main street F. H. Meader ran out to stop the runaways, succeeding in catching hold of a rope on rear end of stage, and by that means climbed aboard, got in the lines and stopped the team from making a record-breaking return trip to Grant.

Just received—a fine line of cigars tobacco and stationery, at the P. O. store.

Many friends of the LEADER called this week to many for us to publish all their names.

The grand jury have found a true bill against S. G. Derris and W. H. Westfall.

James Allen has just returned from Idaho, and says he has no use for that country.

Tonight—Wednesday—owing to the rush of visitors, I have concluded to keep the boxing alley open for men only. R. H. Darnielle.

Seeding of wheat will soon be through with if the present good weather continues.

Send in your name and $1 for the Moro LEADER, and get all the news of all the county for a year.

Owing to a typographical omission the names of Frank Brown, of Grant precinct, and Edward Mack, of Rutledge, did not appear in the report of Republican county central meeting last week.

A farewell party was given to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miller the evening before they left for their Sherman county home.—Hood River Glacier.

If you use lye for any purpose it is to your interest to use the best. Red Seal is absolutely pure granulated potash and nearly double the strength of any other in the market. M. M. Co.

Messrs. W. F. Johnson, of Wasco, and Stubling, of the firm of Stubling & Williams, The Dalles, paid the LEADER a social call Monday morning.

Moro Lodge No. 64, A. O. U. W., is a progressive body. They are rapidly making arrangements for the erection of a fine 2 story hall building, first floor for a public hall, and second for lodge rooms.

The first number of Sherman county's new paper, the Moro LEADER, has been received. It is straight-out gold-standard Republican in politics, and presents a neat typographical appearance.—Hood River Glacier.

P. E. Nelson, of the Grass Valley real estate firm of Brown & Nelson, was in town Saturday, and made arrangements with R. E. Hoskinson to work together in the business of handling real estate, abstracting, etc.

Up to the time of going to press the following cases were disposed of in the circuit court:

294—Tidman T. Savory vs J. H. Knight et al; confirmation granted.

295—Moore Bros. vs Geo. C. Vinton, Jr; confirmation granted.

313—E. W. Marshall vs J. B. Hoss et al; confirmation granted.

326—Hattie Kennedy vs William Kennedy; continued.

328—A. P. Hayhold vs R. D. Emens; default and judgment.

329—Merchants' Ex. National Bank vs John Fredberg; transferred to Wasco county.

334—J. D. Hockman admr. vs The O. R. & N. Co; settled.

335—Columbia Com Co. vs C. W. Tracy; continued for service.

338—Friendship Lodge No. 9, K. of P. vs J. D. Gibson; default and judgment.

339—Moore Bros vs Chas. N. Gilman; settled.

340—R. P. Keyes vs O. D. Taylor; default and judgment.

341—American Mig Co vs Henry Hille; default and decree.

342—Louis Schadevitz vs P. M. Ruggles et al; default and decree.

343—M. Randall vs H. T. Murchie et al; default and decree.

347—Eastern Oregon Land Co vs L. K. Moore; continued.

349—Parlin and Orendoff Co vs W. M. Barnett; continued.

Cases filed since last report:

352—H. S. Solomon vs M. Rosenfeld.

353—R. C. Wallis vs Chas. H. Belcher.

354—R. C. Wallis vs E. C. Delroy.

355—T. J. Moffit vs J. P. McCay; appeal from justice court.

School Report.

The following is a brief report of the Moro public school for the fall and winter terms, commencing September the 27th, 1897, and ending March the 11th, 1898:

No. of days taught, 112; No. of pupils enrolled, boys, 33; girls, 37; total, 70; No. belonging to school, 72; No. of days attendance, 5778; No. of days absence, 377; average daily attendance, 51.

W. S. MAYBERRY, Principal.

A Wise Precaution.

The "Klonische Zeitung" relates this anecdote of the late French senator, Renaud:

When Renaud first came as senator to Paris he engaged a room at a hotel and paid a month's rent—one hundred and fifty francs—in advance. The proprietor asked if he would have a receipt.

"It is not necessary," replied Renaud, "God has witnessed the payment."

"Do you believe in God?" sneered the host.

"Most assuredly," replied Renaud; "don't you?"

"Not I, monsieur."

"Ah," said the senator, "I will take a receipt if you please."

There are said to be 50,000 muscles in an elephant's trunk. It must have been packed by a woman.

Subscribe for the LEADER.

CORRESPONDENCE.

FROM BELOW.

Some of our neighbors are done reading.

John Rayburn and family left for their home near Portland last week.

Syl Johnson left for Rutledge the 14th. He goes to seed the O'Leary ranch for J. W. Engberg.

Gay Naylor, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Klickitat county, returned home last week.

Misses Mae Johnson and Viola Peddick returned home after attending school at Wasco the past winter.

At the school meeting held at Bigelow school house the 6th inst. Arthur Moleworth was elected director and S. I. Everett clerk.

Halley, Jr., who has been undergoing treatment for throat trouble at Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, has returned home much improved in health.

The Demo-Populist primary held at Bigelow school house the 12th, resulted in some misbehavior on the part of the Middle-of-the-Road Popes. Delegates were elected to attend county convention, and the meeting adjourned sine die.

FROM HAY CANYON.

We see many strange faces on our streets.

Born—to the wife of A. M. Wright, a son, all are doing fine.

Mrs. Wm. Elliott has purchased a fine piano from Jacobson & Co., of The Dalles.

Farms are in great demand. People know a good country when they see it.

Weather fair and ground in fine condition. Every body busy sowing and working the soil. The acreage in wheat will far exceed that of '97.

FROM WASCO.

Mrs. J. N. Fordice is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. N. Crossfield.

A. C. Sanford visited Moro on Monday.

We saw Mr. Chas. Stubling's smiling face on our streets Monday.

Mr. Barnum and lady, of Moro, were at the dance Saturday evening.

Mr. W. A. Johnston and E. O. McCoy were in our town last week.

Quite a number of our city are courting in Moro this week.

Wonder who hit L. Zigler. His finger stopped the clock in the O. T. store Monday morning.

FROM GRASS VALLEY.

Hear the gentle zephyrs whistling around the corner.

VanWinkle will open his bowling alley Tuesday evening. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Ed. Rollins, daughter of Mr. Vinton, returned to Portland Saturday.

The necktie social at the academy last Thursday evening, was a success, for there was lots to eat and lots of pretty girls to pick from.

Professor Berger, no relation to J. H. of Baker City, was in town Saturday and Sunday making pianos and organs talk, and they say he is a dandy at it.

Mr. Thompson, the gentleman who bought the Frank Lyons blacksmith shop, came Saturday and started in Monday to accommodate the public.

R. L. Campbell had quite an accident the first of last week by falling out of a wagon and spraining his knee, and now he is sitting on a chair and nursing it.

Mr. A. E. Lake, of Wamie, smiled on us Saturday and Sunday, and pocketed orders for about 40,000 feet of lumber, which will be delivered here as soon as teams can get to the mill.

The Pops held their primary Saturday, and elected Prof. H. Graves, Rev. Frodenberg, and R. H. King as delegates to the county convention, so we were informed, but was unable to be there ourselves.

FROM DEMOSS SPRINGS.

We had a little wind down here the last few days.

La Grippe has had a pretty strong grip on some of our people, but all seem to be improving now.

Geo. Mickle has moved into the DeMoss House, expecting to run a hotel. We wish him success.

Mrs. Walker, a sister of the McDermid Bros., is visiting with them. She is from Pendleton.

Everybody is busy in this section farming and improving in a general way.

Ourselves and neighbors have been pretty busy trying to see who can cough the loudest and longest.

I see a great many teams hauling peas and wire. Somebody must be enlarging their farms.

A merchant writes us he will be here in a few days. He has selected lots and purchased property, and intends to go into business.

The concert that was to be given by DeMoss' lyric bands on Wednesday evening has been deferred until Saturday, the 19th.

The DeMoss Springs Literary Society has adjourned until the first Saturday in November on account of the busy time of year.

We have not heard the booming of cannon between Spain and the U. S. or the whistle of the C. S. R. R. at DeMoss up to this date.

The DeMoss family are very busy changing fences and opening streets in accordance with their town plat, and also planting trees in the parks.

We have services at 10 o'clock every Sunday morning, beginning with the Baptist Sunday School, and preaching at 11; U. B. Sunday School at 1:30; Christian Endeavor 2:30.

Muskets.

While the introduction of portable fire-arms into Europe is of comparatively recent date, their use was frequent among the Mohammedans of Eastern Asia at a very early period. La Broquiere, who made a journey to Jerusalem in the middle of the fifteenth century, and who traveled extensively in the East, mentions the firing of small barbedus at the great festivals in Damascus.

The first use of muskets in Europe was at the siege of Rhego, in 1591, by the Spanish soldiers. These arms were so extremely heavy that they could not be used without a rest. They were provided with matchlocks, and were effective at a considerable distance. While on the march the soldiers themselves carried only the ammunition and the rests, and boys, bearing the muskets, followed after, like caddies on a golf-course.

Leading these cumbersome arms was a slow operation. They were clumsy and awkward to handle, the ball and powder were carried separately, and the preparation and adjustment of the match took a long time.

Before long, however, improvements began to be made. The guns became lighter in construction, and the soldiers carried their ammunition in broad shoulder-belts, called bandoliers, to which were suspended a number of little leather-covered wooden cases, each of which held a charge of powder. A pouch, in which the bullets were carried loose, and a priming-horn hung at the sides of the soldier.

As late as the time of Charles I, muskets with rests were still in use, and it was not until the beginning of the eighteenth century that firelocks were successfully employed.—Harper's Round Table.

Had the Right to Change His Mind.

No man is better known or more generally beloved in the city in which he lives than Professor Adam Hendershott. His conversation is quite devoid of bitterness. Only once was he ever known to say anything indicating even the slightest trace of ill-temper. Traveling toward on a suburban trolley-line to call upon a friend, he asked the conductor to transfer him to the city street cars at a certain point. Soon afterward the car stopped, and he was surprised to see outside the very friend he was seeking. He started to leave the car, but the conductor accosted him.

"You can't change for your car here," he said, brusquely. "Go back!"

The professor passed him, taking no notice.

"Can't change cars here, I tell you," snapped the conductor again.

Professor Hendershott, deep in conversation with his friend, merely waved his hand to signify that the car might go on without him.

"Here, you old jay," cried the man with the brass buttons, angrily, "don't I tell you that you can't change cars at this station?"

The good old professor answered with severity: "But I can change my mind at this station, can't I?" —Pittsburg Dispatch.

Annexation.

Annexation has been our historic policy. The Louisiana purchase from France in 1803 added to our original domain a stupendous empire of about four and a half times the extent of the state of Texas. Sixteen years later the Florida purchase from Spain brought in about 55,000,000 acres; and the admission of Texas in 1845 nearly five times as much good solid earth. The Mexican treaty of 1848 and the Gadsden purchase from Mexico doubled the Texan addition, so that in round numbers we added to our original holding between 1803 and 1851, over a billion acres. Sixteen years after that, by the foresight of Seward, we gained Alaska, thus increasing the amount of our annexations to 1,500,000,000 acres. We have now rested in our acquisitiveness for thirty years, the longest rest in our history, and we are faced to face with the demand of Hawaii for annexation and the near desirability, by reason of our imperative interests, of taking Cuba, when she shall become a republic, under the wide, beneficent wing of our protectorate, until such time annexation is demanded by the Cuban people. These historical citations have been made in order to substantiate the fact of general American sentiment for the expansion of American empire.—Richard Knight in the Illustrated American.

Where Great Men are Born.

But you say our young people born in the country are frequently unwilling to remain there, and instead, are constantly going up by the thousands to grapple with the unknown dangers and perils, with hard and turbulent life of our great cities. Very true; but don't you know that these same young people are rather more successful than any other class in the world in their struggle with this same hard and turbulent life? Go into the great business houses, churches or offices of any of our great cities and ask the merchant princes, the celebrated divines, the great editors, artists and professional men whom you find there where they were born and reared, and they will almost invariably tell you away off somewhere in some quiet and peaceful, though perhaps obscure and unassuming, country village or farm.

That the great men of the cities, of the nation, of the world, almost without exception, have been born and bred in the country is undisputed. Look through the history of the world for universally accepted great men born and reared in cities, and you will look in vain. Out in the balmy air and under the blue skies of the wide country, where are birds and flowers, emblems of purity, joyousness and truth, these great men are born and nurtured, and there alone.—John T. Kenney, in Donaldis.

The Pure Air Cure.

Will Carleton's interesting magazine, "Everywhere," offered a prize recently for the best cure of a cold. Among the many recipes submitted, the judges sought for one which would cure invariably, and apply to all cases. They think they have found it in the following: "Throw back the shoulders, close the mouth and inhale, filling the lungs. Force the air out through the nose. Repeat at short intervals until relieved."

The treatment is undoubtedly a good one, though hardly radical enough to abort a vigorous and determined cold. But it has the advantage of interfering with no other treatment deemed necessary or wise. There is no doubt that lack of good air is responsible for more physical disorders than we imagine. The air of a common sitting-room, office or railroad-car is an offense to a person just entering from the pure outside atmosphere, and it cannot be but harmful to those who endure it.—Healthy Home.

America Ahead of the World in Wealth.

In the statistics furnished in an article in a recent number of the "North American Review," the following comparison is made, setting forth the great privileges and responsibility of American citizens:

"In America we spend $2.49 a head on education, as against $1.30 in England, 80 cents in France and 50 cents in Germany. We send 119 letters yearly through the postoffice; Switzerland sends 73 and Great Britain sends 60;

"The daily working-power of the United States, estimated in foot-tons, amounts to 129,306,000,000; that is, 1,994 to the inhabitant. The absolute effective force of the American people to-day is more than three times what it was in the year 1860.

"Estimated in food, the labor of one man in the United States can supply food for 250 men. Such is the soil, climate, energy and diligence of the people. In Europe the labor of one man can only provide food for 50 men.

"Wealth has increased in 70 years (the Scriptural length of a man's life) from $1,960,000,000 to $65,067,000,000; that is, from $205 a head of population in 1820 to $2,659 in 1890. "Americans have to-day the greatest productive power in the world. The accumulation of head of population in the ten years ending with 1890, was 11 cents daily for every inhabitant, a daily increase of wealth of $7,000,000, which gives an additional $41 to the inhabitant every year, while in England it is only $24. It is probable that in the next census the wealth of the country will have attained the fabulous sum of ninety millions, being more than double what it was fifteen years ago.

Bank Examiner Chry "didn't know what hit him" when he was removed after 12 years' service. It seems he used his official title to promote Klondike schemes. Vancouver is important! Look out!—Portland Chronicle.

Notice of Final Settlement.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Sherman county.

In the matter of the estate of Laura Leat, deceased.

To all whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator, with the will annexed, of the estate of Laura Leat, deceased, has filed with the clerk of the county court, in and for said county and state, his final report and account as such administrator, and that Tuesday, the 5th day of April, 1898, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., at the county court room, in Moro, county of Sherman, State of Oregon, has, by an order of said county court, duly made and entered on the 28th day of February, 1898, been duly appointed as the time and place for the settlement of said final report and account, and for the hearing and determination of objections thereto, if any there be.

Dated at Moro, Sherman County, Oregon, this 28th day of February, 1898.

JOHN H. MOVARY, Administrator, with the will annexed, of the estate of Laura Leat, deceased. m245

C. H. JENKINS,
—will do you—
Horse-Shoeing and general blacksmithing.
GIVE HIM A TRIAL.
GRASS VALLEY, OREGON.

MORO MERCANTILE CO.

Large and complete stock of
General Merchandise,
MORO, OREGON.

Machinery, Hardware, Paints and Oils, Farm
Implements, Wagons, Buggies, Hacks.

Moro Mercantile Co.,

The place to go to get what you want, at a price that will suit.
We'll sell you guns, true to shoot,
Oysters, crackers, and new boots;
Pickles plenty, all the time,
Dry goods new, coming just in line.

Branch Stores:

MONKLAND AND KLONDIKE.

Moro Mercantile Co.

HOTEL DE MORO,

Mrs. Dora Williams, Prop., Moro, Oregon.

BEST THE MARKET AFFORDS ON THE TABLE DAILY.

Headquarters for commercial travelers.

RATES REASONABLE.

Full line of patent medicines, stationery and cigars kept in the Postoffice store.

CITY HOTEL, MORO,

Hayes & Holder, Props.

Hold this space for further announcement.

WATCH IT!

S. MONAHAN,

Proprietor of the

RED BARN - LIVERY STABLE.

PLENTY OF WHEAT HAY.

Terms Reasonable.

Call on me when in Moro, Oregon.

OUR LEADER

Is our own hand-sewed harness. We also carry a fine line of...

SADDLES, CHAPS, BRIDLES, WHIPS.

and everything in a fully-equipped harness shop.

REPAIRING--ALL KINDS.

Get our prices before buying elsewhere.

HEYDT & CO., Moro, Or.

THE ALTAMONT JR. STABLES

HAYES & DUNAHOO

PROPRIETORS.

PAINTING.

My Office and Shop, in—

MORO FOUNDRY BUILDING,

IS THE HEADQUARTERS FOR

FIRST-CLASS PAINTING

AT LIVING PRICES.

Skilled workmen and No. 1 material always on hand. Carriage work a specialty.

G. W. SHELDON, Moro.