The mammoth candle at the Moro Mercantile Co's store has burned out, and took 111 hours 26 minutes to do so. Mrs. Lake secured the first prize, her guess being 108 hours 26 minutes. Mrs. West and H. Williams tied for second prize, each guessing 108 hours.

Who says Moro is not going to be the distributing point for the country south of here? Three carloads of merchandise came in Friday night, and Saturday, regardless of snow, two eight-horse teams loaded with freight for L. Solomon of Prineville.

The beautiful snow is beautiful no longer, being converted into slush by a fine soft rain. The sleigh and toboggan have been laid aside for the present. The ground is absorbing a plentiful supply of moisture, and an abundant crop is to be expected next fall.

A large crowd left Grass Valley for a sleigh ride to Moro on Friday night. The pleasure of the trip was much heightened by the side of the sleigh giving way, causing J. D. Wilcox and C. A. Buckley, accompanied by a couple of ladies, to take a header into a snow bank. After repairing damages they proceeded, and arrived at Wiley's Hotel, where a fine supper was served. A visit was paid to Mr. Hoggard's bowling alley, and a general good time enjoyed. The following are the names of the merry party: C. A. Buckley and wife, R. A. Dunn, A. Mitchell, J. D. Wilcox and wife, O. P. King and wife, R. Porter, Sadie Gideon, John Karlen, H. W. Wilcox and wife, H. Coon, M. Bassett, Miss C. W. Moore, Ed. Rinearson and Miss Spink.

His Life was Saved.
Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise. This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed."

Volcanic Eruptions
Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve cures them; also old, running and fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, warts, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains. Best pile cure on earth. Drive out pains and aches. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Drug-gist.

Grand Masque Ball.
There will be a grand masquerade ball given in the opera house, Moro, on Wednesday, February 22d, under the management of C. E. Doron. A No. 1 good time will be had.

D. M. Radley has leased his brick confectionery store on Main street to George Clements of Grass Valley. We understand that Mr. Clements will go into possession and open up business here.

Sheriff Holder had occasion recently at a public festival to allude to "the troubles of others." He is now experiencing some of his own. His entire family, including Mrs. Holder, and the young lady who is working for them, being prostrated with measles. However they are all progressing towards recovery, and it is to be hoped they will be hale and hearty again in a little time.

The shareholders of the Etma Savings and Trust Company met at the office of R. E. Hoskinson, in Moro, last Tuesday afternoon, and elected the following officers: R. J. Ginn, president; J. O. Elrod, vice president; W. H. Moore, treasurer; R. E. Hoskinson, secretary. The board of directors consist of W. H. Moore, R. J. Ginn, J. O. Elrod, J. B. Mowry, N. W. Thompson, Emerson Peoples and R. E. Hoskinson.

Heretofore freight for Prineville has all been shipped from The Dalles, but that time is past. C. L. Solomon, a merchant of Prineville, was here yesterday, and stated that he had ordered a quantity of freight shipped over the Columbia Southern to Moro, from which place he will take it south by wagon. This is only the beginning of what may result in The Dalles losing an immense forwarding business.—Times-Mountaineer.

No Right to Ugliness.
The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store.

Death of Little Arthur Henrichs.
Jan. 14, 1899.—This week we are called upon to chronicle a very sad event in the sudden death of this little friend. The Saviour, in looking over his loved ones gone home, saw a vacant spot wherein he found "That he hath need" of a bright boy of ten years. Oh! how we miss him, and how hard it is to bow to His Divine will, but "The Lord gave and he hath taken away." He hath called a loved one home to "rest" beyond the sorrowing and weeping, where there is no death. Although he was but 10 years old, he was far advanced in school, a great reader of good books, and possessed a general knowledge of current events sufficient to make him companionable to a grown person, and possessed a loving, amiable disposition that endeared him to schoolmates and friends. In his little pockets we found a treasure to his sorrowing parents, in a little diary kept during his recent illness, showing how patient and uncomplainingly he suffered. We also found a time schedule of the movements of the C. S. Ry. Co., and part of a weather report he was keeping, thus showing what a clear and active mind he had. He also took great pride and pleasure in assisting his papa in the clerk's office, as he was able to read any written document there. His funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. D. Nickelsen, at the Presbyterian Church, and his pathetic words reached the hearts of all, together with the sweet singing of the choir, the school children with crepe on their arms paying their last tribute of love to their departed companion. That band of Brotherhood, the I. O. O. F. of Moro, and the K. of P. from Wasco, assembled near their Brother and his family in his hour of trouble, made this one of the saddest funerals we have witnessed. His remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Moro, and thus "A flower is cut down in the bloom, a new spirit is born in the Kingdom of Heaven." Blessed is he that can say, I have a passport home.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. Henrichs wish, through the medium of these columns, to express their sincere thanks to the good people of Moro for the sympathy shown them in their hour of trial, occasioned by the loss of their beloved son Arthur. They will not soon forget the kindness and attention received from their many friends and neighbors in their sad bereavement.

To the Citizens of Moro.
I would like when any of you are passing along by the fire plugs, and you see any of the wrenches lying around loose, that you would take the trouble to see that they are properly secured to the plugs for in case of fire, if they were not in their place, it might cost the property-holders severe loss. By so aiding me you will greatly oblige.
W. HOLDER,
Chief Moro Fire Department.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve
Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, see Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at Bolton & Co's Drug Store.

Shell out the nickels and dig up the dimes, turn 'em loose and whistle and we'll have better times; there will be fewer patches on the bosom of our pants, and we'll make a better paper if we get half a chance. Don't give us that old story long gone to seed, 'bout taking more papers than the family want to read, but help to feed the printer and he'll help your town to grow, and thus escape the sulphur in the regions down below.—Ex.

A good many farmers are harvesting an unlooked for crop at present, they having been engaged during the snow storm killing off their stock of jack rabbits and shipping them to market. One Sherman county farmer brought in 155 at one load the other day and shipped them to Portland.—Times-Mountaineer.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
Notice is hereby given that an execution and order of sale was issued out of the circuit court of the State of Oregon for Sherman county on the 15th day of December, 1898, upon a decree rendered therein on the 14th day of March, 1898, in favor of Louis Schawitz as administrator of the estate of John Kinifick, deceased plaintiff, and against Phillip H. Engles, Lucy S. Engles, his wife; and J. C. Taylor, as trustee of the Columbia Southern Railway Company, a corporation, and S. A. Staver, defendants, which said execution and order of sale is to me directed and commanding the real estate hereinafter mentioned for the purpose of satisfying the judgment of the plaintiff in said cause for the sum of $2025.50-100, with interest thereon at 10 per cent. per annum from the 14th day of March, 1898, and the further sum of $150 attorney's fees; and the further sum of $76.47 taxes by said plaintiff on the hereinafter described land, and the costs and disbursements of said suit, taxed at $17, and for costs and accruing cost. Therefore in compliance with said execution and order of sale, I will on Saturday, February 25th, 1899, at the hour of 1 o'clock p. m., at the court house door in Moro, in Sherman county, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, for the purpose of satisfying the judgment and decree above mentioned, the following described lands and premises, to-wit: The east half of Section Eleven, (11) in Township (2) Three, Range of Range (17) Seventeen East of Willamette Meridian, in the county of Sherman and State of Oregon, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Witness my hand at Moro, Oregon, this 9th day of January, 1899.
W. HOLDER,
Sheriff of Sherman County, Oregon.

NOTICE.
In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County.
In the matter of the estate of Michael King deceased.
To all whom it may concern:
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executrix of the estate of Michael King, deceased, will apply to the Hon. County Court in and for the county of Sherman and State of Oregon, and to the judge thereof, on Tuesday, the 4th day of April, 1899, the same being the regular April term of said court, for an order of said court, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the county court room in Moro, said county and state, for leave to resign her trust as such executrix; that the undersigned has filed with the clerk of said county court her final report and account of her administration of said estate, and that by an order of said court, duly made and entered on the 4th day of January, 1899, it was directed that Tuesday, the 4th day of April, 1899, the same being the regular April term of said court, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., at the county court room in Moro, said county and state, be and is appointed as the time and place for the settlement of said final account, for the hearing and determination of objections thereto, if any there be, and for the hearing of objections, if any there be, to the allowance of the application of said executrix to resign her said trust.

Dated at Moro, Sherman County, Oregon, this 9th day of January, 1899.
EMMA WILDER, formerly Emma King, Executrix of the estate of Michael King, deceased. 1115

A poor woman was telling a kind-hearted visitor how the doctor came and said she had a sluggish liver. "What beats me," she added, "is how them slugs get inside the liver."

LEADER and WEEKLY OREGONIAN 1 year $1.75 in advance.

LOST.
A light sorrel gelding, 5 years old; two white hind feet; weight 900 lbs; lost out of hand of Thirty-Mile. Please notify C. A. Watson, of Fossil, Or., or office of this paper.

SPECIAL.
Notice is hereby given that the Columbia Southern Railway Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Oregon, and the directors of said Columbia Southern Railway Company acting under authority of resolutions duly adopted by the affirmative vote of all of the stockholders of the company at a meeting of said stockholders held at the city of The Dalles, Oregon, on the 8th day of December, have filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, and in the office of the county clerk of the county of Wasco, Oregon, and in the office of the clerk of Sherman county, Oregon, Supplementary Articles of Incorporation amending Articles III, IV and VI of the present articles of incorporation of said company so that said Articles III, IV and VI of said Articles of Incorporation shall, when amended, read as follows:

ARTICLE III.
The enterprise, pursuit, business and occupation in which this corporation shall be:
First—To acquire, build, own, construct, and to maintain and operate such constructed, owned or acquired railroad and telegraph lines, and to carry freight and passengers thereon, and to transport messages thereover, and to receive tolls for the carriage or transmission of the same, the following railroad and telegraph lines, namely:
1. A line from Biggs, in the State of Oregon, to Moro, in the State of Oregon.

Shell out the nickels and dig up the dimes, turn 'em loose and whistle and we'll have better times; there will be fewer patches on the bosom of our pants, and we'll make a better paper if we get half a chance. Don't give us that old story long gone to seed, 'bout taking more papers than the family want to read, but help to feed the printer and he'll help your town to grow, and thus escape the sulphur in the regions down below.—Ex.

A good many farmers are harvesting an unlooked for crop at present, they having been engaged during the snow storm
