R. C. Atwood, general manager of the Union Warehouse Company of Wasco, was in Moro on Saturday. Mr. Atwood realizes the fact that the time has come to arrive at some definite understanding with the railroad companies as to the freight to be charged on wool shipments from Moro East. Mr. Atwood's company contemplate putting in a wool baler, and will be fully prepared to handle the new clip when ready for market.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrhs, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or "is just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it "something else" is offered you. A. D. Bolton & Co.

The numerous friends of the Rev. J. M. Morrison will learn with regret that he has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Sherman county. Mr. Morrison has been a zealous worker in the Master's vineyard as Presbyterian minister at this place for a number of years. By his quiet, unassuming manner, his ardent devotion to his sacred calling, and his unquestioned sincerity as a Christian minister, he has endeared himself to all denominations, and to all persons both within and without the pale of the church.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on A. D. Bolton & Co. druggists, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Children's Musical Contest.

The members of the W. C. T. U. at Wasco are to be congratulated on the success of the children's musical contest held there last week. The solid silver medal was awarded to Miss Fay Orr, who rendered, "I Want to Pave My Dolly." Rather early in life, Miss Fay, to need the services of your uncle.

We are glad to see H. A. Moore on deck again after his tussle with the mumps.

Sherman Huff a prosperous farmer of Erskineville was in our town on Monday.

The Gem Acetylene Gas Co. of Portland, have made arrangements with the Columbia Southern Ry. to place gas in their coaches. This is a new departure, and the outcome will be watched with interest. The Acetylene Gas is far superior to the Pinch Gas, now in use on all Western roads; and if the experiment on the Columbia Southern is a success, no doubt many other lines will adopt it. The Gem Acetylene Gas Co. manufacture their own plant in Portland, Oregon. They have nine plants in this city, which are giving splendid satisfaction.

The new county of "Wheeler" will contain 46 townships, or 1656 square miles. Its population is estimated at 2500, and the taxable property at $1,000,000.

Pleasant surroundings and polite waiters, together with the best meals in town, make Wiley's City Hotel a favorite place to stop at when in the city.

License to wed was issued to Ale M. Tilson, and Caroline J. Larson, both of Grass Valley, Or., on Monday, March the 6th, by County Clerk Henrichs.

Before making your spring purchases it would be well to look over the extensive stock of new goods at Meader & Co's. These gentlemen have spared no pains to cater for the requirements of their patrons from the country, and on inspection their different lines of merchandise will be found equal if not superior to any stock in the country, with prices in accordance with the times.

Noble's Dramatic Company.

This talented troupe arrived in town on Sunday evening in their handsome private railroad car, and on Monday treated the good people of Moro to some enlivening strains on their superb band. In the evening they opened a series of entertainments in the opera house, which was filled to its utmost capacity. An evening of laughter and mirth was enjoyed by the audience, a fact demonstrated by the loud applause which greeted the drooleries and comical situations, which followed each other in quick succession. At the close of the performance a splendid set of drawing-room furniture was displayed on the stage, and Mr. Noble informed the audience that numbered tickets will be distributed at the door each evening during a week's stay in our city. On the last night the holder of the lucky number will be made happy in the possession of this handsome set of furniture, valued at $40. Apart from this generous offer, the performances are all that the most fastidious critic can desire, and the LEADER takes pleasure in recommending them to all lovers of the drama. Come in and see the play, the cost is trifling and the pleasure great.

Brave Men.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at A. D. Bolton & Co's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Moro Publishing Company will be held in the company's office in Moro, Oregon, on Monday, April 3, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing a board of three directors for said company; and for the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before said meeting.

Dated at Moro, Oregon, this 14th day of February, 1899.

R. J. GINN, President.

J. B. Hosford, Secretary.

Our School.

The annual school meeting was held in Moro on March 6th, and the following business transacted. S. S. Hayes was elected clerk for the coming year, and J. B. Hosford to serve as director for three years. The present enrollment is 170 scholars, with an efficient staff of three teachers. The whole community may well be proud of their school, both for itself and the prestige it gives to our town. "The child is father to the man," and our young people will, in a few short years, take up the burden borne by their parents, and transact the business which now rests with their elders. Then what greater blessing can we have than a good up to date graded school, such as that in Moro, to fit our youth for the battle of life, and make of them law-abiding, enterprising, public spirited citizens.

STOCKMEN, ATTENTION!

We understand that stock-buyers in this neighborhood are drawing their contracts for Arlington shipments in April. We would draw the attention of cattle and sheepmen to the fact that The Moro stock yards will be in operation by that time, and parties can save money by driving their stock to this point for shipment.

HAUL YOUR WOOL TO MORO.

Now that sheepmen have got a rail road easy of access, it would be well for them to know that our rates East on wool will be so adjusted as to make it profitable for them to haul their wool to Moro. A wool-baler will be in operation, and all the best facilities offered wool-growers who patronize our new warehouse. Reasonable rates for storage will be charged, and all the principal buyers will attend and pay as good a price at this point as at any in the inland Empire.

Reduction for Cash.

10 per cent off for cash on our entire stock of harness, saddles, etc., etc.

Concord team, No. 1, formerly $20.00 now $27.00

Chain harness, No. 1, formerly $20.00 now $18.00

A. P. Bradbury, the "Cracker Jack" traveling man for the Oregon Cracker Company, accompanied by Thos. Duncan, of F. A. Folger & Co., San Francisco, was in town Monday, and left for the interior yesterday.

Red Hot from the Gun.

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, fells, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., druggists.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Columbia Southern Railway Company, held at Moro on March 6, 1899, the following directors were appointed to serve for the ensuing year: E. E. Lytle, D. C. O'Reilly, W. H. Moore and Miss May Enright.

Working Night and Day.

The business, and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., druggists.

On Sunday evening last, Clifford Minton, a young man aged 22 years, met with an accident, which caused his death. It seems Minton was riding a colt, in company with his uncle, Mr. Moffit, when the horse rushed through a gap in the fence, rolled over, throwing his rider heavily. The unfortunate young man suffered concussion of the brain, which ended in death 26 hours after the melancholy occurrence.
