Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at A. D. Bolton & Co's drug store.

A. C. Kelsay, John Reekman and Harry Fairfield, arrived in Moro on Friday with Casper Grasley, who now lies at the Moro Hotel in a precarious state, under Dr. Smith's care. It seems Grasley was found at his home at Jackknife unconscious, from the effects of a blow on the left temple. The case is shrouded in mystery, as there seems to be no motive for foul play, the unfortunate man having no valuables or money to excite the cupidity of a tramp, and was known to his neighbors as a harmless honest man with no enemies. The young men who brought him here say that it was possible that he might have been kicked by a young horse, but as the poor fellow is still unconscious, it is impossible to ascertain how the sad occurrence took place.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Chickens Imported from Kansas.

It is strange that the farmers of Eastern Oregon cannot raise enough chickens to supply the home markets, and thus make it unnecessary to ship them all the way from Kansas to The Dalles. Saturday, James Carnaby and Sinnott & Fish received a shipment which were as fine as we have ever seen, weighing dressed over three pounds each, which would sell for about $6 per dozen. With such varieties of fowl at 15 cents per pound, farmers could make a handsome profit right here in Oregon, and make it unnecessary for the consumers to send to Kansas for their chickens.—The Dalles Times-Mountaineer.

Low Price for a Wife.

Twenty-five dollars was the sum for which William Marcy, a Priceburg, (Pa., man, sold his wife to Jno. Vannort a year ago. This statement was brought out in court in a case in which Mrs. Marcy charged Mrs. Uppleman with assaulting her. Mrs. Marcy made the statement, and John Vannort was called and produced the bill of sale, dated February 18, 1898, and Marcy himself testified to the deal, but said he had not received his pay. The bill of sale was signed by the three parties interested, and a disinterested witness. The revelation is expected to lead to other court proceedings.
