Having concluded not to handle only the Flying Dutchman gang plows from this on, we will sell all our other gangs off at cost. We have one or two gangs each of 5 or 6 kinds. Come and see them. They will go dirt cheap.

MOORE BROS. & GINN.

A certain young lady was caught kissing her sweetheart the other morning. Her mother took her to task for such actions, but the girl silenced her by this quotation: "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them." The old lady wilted; memories of old were brought forcibly to mind.

Jas. Stewart was a Moro visitor Thursday. He says sheep in Sherman county have wintered well and are in fine shape. Lambing is in full blast with a prospect of a big percentage. Mr. Stewart is in receipt of a letter from a friend in Alaska, which speaks of Dawson City being as dull as ditch water, and goes on to say that there is plenty of provisions to be had, and that any reports of suffering from famine in that region are not to be relied on.

Dr. James Withycombe, vice director of the Oregon experiment station, has been in town for some days, with the intention of trying experiments as to the proper method of handling the soil in this county. It seems the system of summer fallow, so largely employed by our farmers, exhausts the humus in the land, to prevent the loss of which, Dr. Withycombe advocates the growing of humus-producing crops, such as vetches, peas, beans, etc. A couple of acres have been procured which will be treated in a scientific manner. The movement is one of great interest to farmers, and no doubt will be of material benefit to the agricultural community.

Alex. Gibson, an extensive livery and sale stable man of Vancouver, B. C., made this office a call on Saturday. Mr. Gibson will make some stay in our city, and wishes to purchase an unlimited number of heavy draft horses.

STOCKMEN, ATTENTION!
Why drive your stock to Arlington and The Dalles for shipment, when you can save money by having them loaded on the C. S. Ry. cars right here in Moro.

April Fool Party.

The parlor social got up by Dr. Olive Hartley and other ladies of the W. C. T. U., came off on the evening of April 1st. A very large number came to enjoy themselves, which they did, as this was one of the pleasantest gatherings of the season. The programme opened with a guitar solo by Prof. Davis, and he gave for encore a battle piece. In an eloquent lecture, Rev. Nickelsen exhorted his hearers to abstain from intoxicating liquor. The duet, "If You Love Me Darling," by Mr. and Mrs. DeMoss, was loudly encored, to which they responded by singing a pretty song entitled "Doris." The recitation, "Bingen on the Rhine," rendered by Miss Maggie Lake, was a pleasant feature of the evening's enjoyment. Rev. Nickelsen's solo on the cornet was very good. He cheerfully responded by playing "Red White and Blue." The recitation by Prof. Davis caused much merriment, and was much appreciated. Mrs. Hosford charmed the audience by singing "Freedom Forever," in her usual good voice and expression. The recitation, "Black Horse and Its Rider," was well rendered by Mr. Bostwick. The programme was brought to a close with some very appropriate remarks by Mrs. White, in which she referred to the W. C. T. U. in glowing terms, mentioning the benefits to society in general, resulting from the efforts of this organization. The supper, which was the comical feature of the evening, consisted mostly of table-napkin and plate, and those who attended with the expectation of getting a good square meal, will long remember this April Fool Party.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Grotton, S. D., "was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's Dew Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this good medicine is what his country needs. All American knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed; only 50 cents. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Druggist.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

Frank Spicer killed Bill Jones at Antelope on Monday. We give the particulars as reported. It appears Spicer was hauling a load of furniture for Jones, who forbade him to take it to the house. Spicer persisted, and started to deliver the furniture, whereupon Jones, armed with a shot-gun, and Spicer with a rifle, got one on each side of the wagon. After some dodging, Spicer got the first shot, killing Jones instantly.

The weather for the past few days has been all that can be desired, and may be said to have done the appearance of spring. Farmers are well forward with seeding, and report the land in good condition for that operation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Filloon arrived on Monday's train from The Dalles, and will reside permanently in our city when able to procure a house. Mr. Filloon is having his premises in the Radley brick building fitted to receive his stock of hardware and machinery, which is expected daily from the east.

Music in the Air.

The following gentlemen met on Monday night and organized themselves into a brass band: E. C. Peery, leader; C. D. Nickelsen, G. D. Kellogg, H. Brown, J. M. Florer, E. E. Barnum, Dick Bowen, Wilber Martin, Chas. McCaleb, Will Raymond, Dolph Heydt. They have purchased the fine set of silver instruments formerly at Wasco. The members are composed mostly of old band men, and will soon be able to discourse sweet music. It is safe to predict that this city will soon have a band that will equal if not excel any of those of the interior towns. In connection with the band a fine orchestra will be formed, and the boys will have music to throw at the birds.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches.
