Call and see our new assortment of spring goods; finest stock ever shown in Moro. Silks, satins, chiffons, laces, veilings, lawns, and various other articles too numerous to mention. M. M. Co.

A vigorous fight is on between The Dalles and Moro as to which shall be the terminus of the Prineville mail route. Moro is making strenuous efforts to secure this convenience while The Dalles is just as determined to hold it, and while Prineville looks on with a broad grin on her countenance. It is hard to tell how the matter will be settled.—Heppner Times.

Any one wishing a glass of pure fresh apple cider can get it at Holder's confectionery store. The cider Holder sells is not adulterated with drugs, but is the pure apple juice.

Sherman county is to have a new court house constructed either out of wood or brick. Advertisement for bids for building same appears in this issue, and plans and specifications can be seen at this office.

Few counties in the state are better off financially than Sherman, and it certainly is in condition to build a temple of justice that will be a credit to the county.—Times Mountaineer.

Pleasant surroundings and polite waiters, together with the best meals in town, make Wiley's City Hotel a favorite place to stop at when in the city.

The members of Cedar Circle, W. of W., at The Dalles, gave Mrs. Inez Fillion a very pleasant surprise at their last meeting, presenting her with a beautiful chased silver napkin ring. Mrs. Fillion, who has come to make her home with us in this city, was a very prominent member of the Women of Woodcraft in The Dalles, and will be welcomed by the Circle in Moro, who will find in her a fluent speaker and efficient worker.

Two commodious dwelling houses for sale in Moro on easy terms, or will sell on the installment plan. Call and see us. It is better to own a home than pay a high rent for one.

A party of Moro people spent a day on the DesChutes last week fishing and having a good time generally. They say Mr. Harris has his place nicely arranged for the accommodation of visitors. Sparkling water and charming island groves make this part of the DesChutes a favorite place to go for a day's outing. We do not know how many fish were caught, but believe Mr. Miller had some fine sport, while the ladies of the party caught at least one sucker each.

L. D. Bridge, editor and proprietor of the Democrat, Lapcaster, N. H., says: "I would not be without One Minute Cough Cure for my boy, when troubled with a cough or cold. It is the best remedy for croup I ever used." A. D. Bolton & Co.

Geo. Smelser, who has been committed to the asylum three different times, and pronounced cured and set free, had a violent attack at Grass Valley last week, going about the streets firing his revolver off in a reckless manner. The authorities here were immediately notified, and Sheriff Holder and Deputy Brown went over and brought him to this city. The sheriff took him to Salem Tuesday, where he will be re-committed to the asylum. Poor unfortunate!

It makes no difference how bad the wound if you use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve; it will quickly heal and leave no scar. A. D. Bolton & Co.

When you want a first-class shave go to Williams' shop and try his electric chair. You touch the button and you're shaved in two shakes of a lamb's tail. This is the only chair of the kind in Eastern Oregon, and the fourth one in the state. Hot and cold baths furnished any time during the week.

Parties wishing to buy horses will do well to call on A. D. McDonald at his farm, or write to Monkland, for the next ten or fifteen days.

The newly-organized Moro band gave their first entertainment at the opera house on Wednesday, the 17th, to a large audience. The performance was a success in every sense of the word. It is almost incredible to believe that after so short a time to practice the boys could produce such admirable music. Mrs. I. D. DeMoss and Mrs. J. B. Horsford favored the audience with the beautiful duet, "Whispering Hope."

Professor Davis, who has always something novel to offer, brought down the house with two very comical recitations. Home manufacture was represented by a phonograph, which created much merriment. Ice-cream and cake came next in order, and the proceedings terminated with a social dance.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hamblin, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

When one goes to see his girl he always talks about the weather—especially if he is a little shy—and why should we not say a word or two. The golden drops of rain which fell in Sherman county last week made all nature smile, and to-day the verdant wheat-fields are laughing in the sunlight, and a bountiful harvest is insured. One should visit Sherman county at this time to realize its beauties—with its vast acreage of wheat spread out over the rolling hills, presenting a beautiful panorama. We have no rippling rills or gurgling waters rushing down from the mountains, but we have one of the greatest little wheat-raising section in the world. Wheat! wheat! is what we raise in Sherman county.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at A. D. Bolton & Co's drug store.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cts. at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store.

Horse Sale.
