NEW TRIAL ASKED FOR MAGERS.

W. H. Holmes, attorney for William G. Magers, who was convicted at Dallas for murdering Ray Sink, served upon District Attorney Hayden a motion for a new trial.

AN IMPORTANT ALLEGATION IS MISCONDUCT ON THE PART OF JAMES MITCHELL.

An important allegation is misconduct on the part of James Mitchell, who was one of the jurors in the trial of the case. It is alleged that in a conversation with J. D. Kenk, Mitchell denied that doubts were to be resolved in favor of the defendant, and said that instead "every man acts on his own judgment."

ATTORNEY HOLMES ALSO ASKS A NEW TRIAL ON THE GROUND OF NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE.

Attorney Holmes also asks a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence. Later—Judge Burnett overruled the motion for a new trial for W. G. Magers, convicted of the murder of Ray Sink, and sentenced Magers to be hanged July 21.

THE GRAVES OF THOSE WHO FELL IN THE FIRST DAYS OF THE FIGHTING AT MANILA WERE DECORATED ON MEMORIAL DAY.

The graves of those who fell in the first days of the fighting at Manila were decorated on Memorial day, the exercises being presided over by Colonel Denby. Three hundred of the brave lie there amongst the rice fields with rough boards to mark their last resting places.

JUDGING FROM WHAT PURPORT TO BE LETTERS FROM VOLUNTEERS IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Judging from what purport to be letters from volunteers in the Philippines, recently published, conscienceless liars are quite numerous in the service. Americans are taking a leading position in the peace conference at the Hague. Their proposition for a tribunal of arbitration has been recommended by the committee to the conference.

THE FOLLOWING FROM THE SHANGHAI CORRESPONDENT OF THE DAILY MAIL WOULD INDICATE THAT THE CHINESE ARE NOT GOING TO SEE THE PARTITION OF THEIR COUNTRY WITHOUT A STRUGGLE.

The following from the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail would indicate that the Chinese are not going to see the partition of their country without a struggle. Orders have been issued from Peking directing the viceroys and governors of the neighboring provinces to put all their forces on a war footing, owing to the arrival of six Italian warships in San Mun harbor.

IN SORE STRAITS.

With William J. Bryan feeding his hens at home, and Grover Cleveland fishing at Put-In Bay, and Chairman Jones abroad to recruit his health, and Boss Croker nursing a carbuncle over in England, it is any wonder that the Democratic donkey is wondering where his 1900 fodder is coming from?

W. J. BRYAN, AT THE DOLLAR BANQUET AT FOUNTAIN FERRY, ON JUNE 2d, REASSERTED HIS ADHERENCE TO THE CHICAGO PLATFORM.

W. J. Bryan, at the dollar banquet at Fountain Ferry, on June 2d, reasserted his adherence to the Chicago platform, and added: "But destiny has come to our rescue with other questions and new issues." Evidently Mr. Bryan has come to the conclusion he cannot climb to fame on a silver ladder.

MURDER WILL BE COMMITTED AS LONG AS PERSONS WITH CRIMINAL TENDENCIES ARE ALLOWED TO MARRY.

Murder will be committed as long as persons with criminal tendencies are allowed to marry. Branton's father killed his man, and Green's father is serving a life sentence in the Kansas state penitentiary for the crime of murder. Future generations should be protected against inter-marriage of the vicious.—West Side.

THE OFFER OF MONEY TO THE CUBAN ARMY IN EXCHANGE FOR THEIR ARMS IS A COMPLETE FAILURE.

The offer of money to the Cuban army in exchange for their arms is a complete failure, only half a dozen men availing themselves of the offer. It is not to be wondered at that the Cuban soldier who has become accustomed to the use and possession of arms, refuses to part with them for a paltry $75. The Cubans have made a brave struggle for liberty, and it is not to be wondered at if they are loth to part with the gun and machete which have rendered them such good service in the past, until something is more definitely known as to the intentions of this country towards them in the future.

OLD SETTLERS IN THE WILLAMETTE ARE AT LAST OPENING THEIR EYES TO THE FACT THAT THERE IS MORE MONEY IN DIVERSIFIED FARMING THAN IN SOWING ALL THEIR LAND TO WHEAT.

Old settlers in the Willamette are at last opening their eyes to the fact that there is more money in diversified farming than in sowing all their land to wheat, which in time impoverishes their farms. Many of them are turning their attention to dairying and stock-raising on a small scale, which they find pays them better than harvesting 15 or 20 bushels of wheat to the acre.

"THE NORTHWEST HERALD," AN EIGHT-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER, PUBLISHED AT PORTLAND, OREGON.

"The Northwest Herald," an eight-page illustrated paper, published at Portland, Oregon, made its appearance in our sanctum last week. It is a weekly publication. It is well compiled, printed on good paper, and altogether presents a very neat appearance. George L. Hutchins's name is carried at the mast-head.

THE GREAT FIRE WHICH DESTROYED A GREAT PART OF CHICAGO IN 1871 WAS STARTED BY MRS. O'LEARY'S COW KICKING OVER A LAMP IN A STABLE.

The great fire which destroyed a great part of Chicago in 1871 was started by Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicking over a lamp in a stable. The recent great fire at Dawson City was caused by a drunken woman kicking over a lamp. Women, drunk or sober, have their share in many catastrophes.

AT LAST THAT UNFORTUNATE AND MUCH-ABUSED MAN, DREYFUS, IS TO HAVE A NEW TRIAL IN PARIS.

At last that unfortunate and much-abused man, Dreyfus, is to have a new trial in Paris, when it is to be hoped his innocence will be proclaimed to the world, and his gang of ruffianly accusers get the treatment they so richly deserve.

FUZZY-WUZZY.

Fuzzy-Wuzzy. (Soudan Expeditionary Force.) We've fought with many men across the seas, An' some of 'em was brave an' some was not: The Paythan an' th' Zulu an' Burmes; But the Fuzzy was the finest o' the lot. We never got a ha'p'orth's change of 'im; 'E squatted in the scrub an' 'locked our 'orses, 'E cut our sentries up at Sakkim, An' 'e played the cat an' 'banjo with our forces. So 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, at your 'ome in the Soudan; You're a pore benighted 'eathen but a first-class fightin' man; We give you your certifikit, an' if you want it signed, We'll come an' 'ave a romp with you whenever you're inclined. We took our chanst among the Kyber hills, The Boers knocked us silly at a mile, The Burman gav us Irriwaddy chills, An' a Zulu impi dashed us up in style; But all we ever got from such as they was: Was pop to what the Fuzzy made us swaller; We 'eld our bloomin' own, the papers say, But man for man the Fuzzy knocked us 'oller, Then 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, and the missis and the kid; Our orders was to break you, an' of course we went an' did. We sloshed you with Martinis, an' it wasn't hardly fair; But for all the odds again you, Fuzzy-Wuz, you bruk the square. 'E 'asn't got no papers of 'is own, 'E 'asn't got no medals nor rewards, So we must certify the skill 'e's shown In usin' of 'is long-two-handed swords; When 'e's 'oppin' in an' out among the bush With 'is coffin-caded shield an' shovel spear, A 'appy day with Fuzzy on the rush Will last a 'ealthy Tommy for a year. So 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, an' your friends which is no more, If we 'adn't lost some messmates we would 'elp you to deplore; But give an' take 'is gospel, an' we'll call the bargain fair, For if you 'ave lost more than us, you crumpled up the square! 'E rushes at the smoke when we let drive, An', before we know, 'e's 'ackin' at our 'ead; 'E's all of sand an' ginger when alive, An' 'e's generally shammin' when 'e's 'ead. 'E's a daisy, 'e's a ducky, 'e's a lamb! 'E's a injin'-rubber hit on the spree, 'E's the on'y thing that doesn't care a damn For the Regiment of British Infantrie. So 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, at your 'ome in the Soudan; You're a pore benighted 'eathen but a first-class fightin' man; An' 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, with your 'ayrick 'end of 'air— You big black boundin' beggar— for you bruk a British square.

AGUINALDO'S OPINION OF IT.

"Good-morning, Mr. Aguinaldo!" "Morning! but you'll have to excuse me, I'm busy running."

"IT IS REPORTED THAT YOU WANT TO SUE FOR PEACE."

"Well, I would like to get a chance to sit down and talk it all over with somebody."

"DO YOU THINK TERMS COULD BE ARRANGED, MR. AGUINALDO?"

"I wouldn't care so much about that part of it, but I could get my second wind."

"WHAT IS YOUR CROSS-COUNTRY RECORD, NOW, MR. AGUINALDO?"

"Well, with a running start, I've covered a mile in three minutes, flat. I can dog-trot it all day, though, at a pretty fast clip. I expect to make a great deal of money out of a six-days-gone-as-you-please some time in the muddly future."

"WHAT DO YOU THINK OF WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY?"

"It doesn't interest me at all. What I want some genius to do is to invent some fightless Americans, so that I may enjoy a runless rest. Pardon me; there's Brigadier-General Funston coming down the pike with fireworks in his whiskers, and he's yelling like a circus calliope. I'm wanted in the next county. Good-morning!"

"GOOD-MORNING, MR. AGUINALDO!"

It is now claimed that Lot was coming on behind his wife, and that she turned to ask him if her hat was on straight.

OVER ACROSS THE RIVER A FARMER HAS DISCOVERED THAT BY SOAKING OLD NEWSPAPERS IN MILK A VERY DESIRABLE FOOD FOR CHICKENS CAN BE OBTAINED.

The first nest of eggs after the food had been administered presented a very newsy appearance. Printed on the shells of each were glowing accounts of the late Georgia horror, Aguinaldo's achievements and Harvey Scott's views on the expansion question.—Union Gazette.

WHEN A GIRL PINS A FLOWER ON A MAN'S COAT, SHE ALWAYS TILTS HER CHIN UP AND LOOKS AT IT SIDWAYS, AND THE MAN WHO DOESN'T TUMBLE IS SLOW ENOUGH TO GET RUN OVER BY A HEARSE.

"MY SON," SAID HIS FATHER SOLEMNLY, "WHEN YOU SEE A BOY LOAFING ABOUT THE STREET CORNERS AT ALL HOURS, WHAT PLACE IN LIFE DO YOU SUPPOSE HE IS FITTING HIMSELF FOR?"

"To be a policeman," replied the young philosopher, promptly.
