The Johnson, McMillan and Robinson families returned from a camping tour to the mountains in the neighborhood of Clear Lake last week. To hear them talk of two feet of snow, ice in the pail every morning, and other cool ascriptions, fills us with envy, and makes our lot all the hotter.

Gun-shot wounds and powder-burns, cuts, bruises, sprains, wounds from rusty nails, insect stings and rye poisoning—quickly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Positively prevents blood poisoning. Beware of counterfeits. "DeWitt's" is safe and sure. A. D. Bolton & Co.

L. K. Moore and R. J. Ginn returned last week from a trip over the county for the purpose of ascertaining the truth as to the condition of the wheat crop. Mr. Moore says that he was agreeably surprised at the outlook. Instead of finding everything burnt up, as he expected, he reports the grain in a fair condition, particularly that sown on summer fallow.

A diseased stomach surely undermines health. It dulls the brain, kills energy, destroys the nervous system, and predisposes to insanity and fatal diseases. All dyspeptic troubles are quickly cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured thousands of cases and is curing them every day. Its ingredients are such that it can't help curing. A. D. Bolton & Co.

The Rev. C. D. Nickelsen left with his wife on Saturday for Hood River, from where Mr. Nickelsen will go into the mountains on a camping expedition. He and his brother aim to take pack horses and go to Lost Lake, near Mount Hood, where they can hunt the bear and elk and have a tussle with a species of large, long-nosed trout, which, the preacher says, are peculiar to Lost Lake, and are as large as salmon.

Through tickets to all points East can now be purchased at Moro office at The Dalles or Portland. Baggage checked through to destination. This will be a great accommodation to residents in this vicinity who have formerly been obliged to go to The Dalles or Portland for Eastern tickets. I. J. Keffer, agent.

L. McAdam and W. M. Hair, of Oregon City, who passed through this city several days ago en route south, returned Saturday last. They have been out looking up a business point, and report satisfactory results, but have not determined on a location.

J. H. Miller, brother of Joaquin, passed here Tuesday with two eight-horse loads of wool from Wagonite. Jim camped in the snow at Wagonite mountain, where he found a man building a fence around the snow to keep it from melting.—Crook County Journal.

Thomas Rhoads, Centerfield, O., writes: "I suffered from piles seven or eight years. No remedy gave me relief until DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, less than a box of which permanently cured me." Soothing, healing, perfectly harmless. Beware of counterfeits. A. D. Bolton & Co.

H. S. James, who it will be remembered, came here with a band of sheep for Otto Koehler, and was taken ill with pneumonia, and went to St. Vincent's Hospital at Portland for treatment, returned last Friday, looking hale and hearty. He informed us that Mr. Koehler had had luck with his sheep, having lost 800 head by getting poisoned.

You can't cure dyspepsia by dieting. Eat good wholesome food, and plenty of it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests food without aid from the stomach, and is made to cure. A. D. Bolton & Co.

L. Peetz passed through here last Saturday en route to Moro with his wagon train. He has been on the road for 30 days, two weeks longer than he expected to be absent, and was afraid that his friends at home had held memorial services for him, or erected a monument to his memory, as he had sent them no word as to his whereabouts.—Antelope Herald.

Discovered by a Woman.
Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

John Rasmussen of Monkland, has purchased a new gasoline engine from Moore Bros. & Ginn with which he intends to run his thrasher. The advent of such a style of engine into the country is of importance to farmers, as when using it Mr. Rasmussen will be able to lay off a four-horse team, indispensable for water-hauling, when a steam engine was being used, besides a fireman and engineer, as any ordinary farmer can run this engine. It is certainly a very complete piece of mechanism, and must be seen to be fully appreciated.

IN MEMORY OF J. B. FLOWER.

Again has death passed the door of one of our homes in Moro, summoning hence our respected fellow-citizen, J. B. Flower, in the 67th year of his age. Mr. Flower had been ailing for some four months, during which time he bore his sufferings with that fortitude only to be found in the true christian, who has chosen that better part which cannot be taken from him. We cannot pay a greater tribute of respect to our departed neighbor than to say, with the Rev. C. D. Nickelsen, who preached the funeral sermon, that he had an excellent spirit within him. The funeral services were held in this town on Friday, July 14, when a large concourse of sorrowing relatives, friends and neighbors, gathered in the M. E. Church to hear the beautiful services, and from thence followed the remains to the Free Masons' cemetery, where they were laid in their last resting place. J. B. Flower was born in Vermillion county, Indiana, from where he moved to Iowa in 1861, remaining there ten years. His next move was to Oregon, in August, 1871, when he settled in the neighborhood of Portland, coming to Wasco in 1883, and shortly after to this city, where he has since made his home. He leaves, besides his widow, one son, J. M. Flower, nine grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren, to mourn his loss. The LEADER, joined by a host of friends, extends sincerest sympathy to the sorrowing family and relatives.

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poison, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Drugists. Guaranteed.

The Oregonian, with its usual enterprise, gives in its issue of Wednesday last a very complete illustration of the proposed new Sherman county court house. The building will be a two-story brick structure 55x65 feet. On the first floor will be found the clerk's and sheriff's office, besides a county court room, record vault and jail. In the second story will be offices for the treasurer and school superintendent, the circuit court room and two jury rooms. The building can be completed for about $8000.

The Appetite of a Goat.
Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store.

Jim Hand had quite a disagreeable experience on the Lone Rock grade Tuesday last. As he came down the grade he ran onto a band of sheep, which caused his horses to overturn the wagon, which rolled down the hillside, with its load of lumber, horses, wagon and harness being damaged. Fortunately Mr. Hand escaped without serious personal injury.

He Fooled the Surgeons.
All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Drugists.

Of Interest to Inventors.
C. A. Snow & Co., one of the oldest and most successful firms of patent lawyers, whose offices are opposite the United States Patent Office in Washington, D. C., and who have procured patents for more than 17,000 inventions, say that, owing to the improved conditions in the United States Patent Office, patents may now be more promptly procured than at any previous time in their experience of twenty-five years.
