

MORO LEADER.

FRATERNAL ORDERS.

ANCIENT ORDER UNITED WORKMEN.
Moro Lodge, No. 64—Meets every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Moro hall. A standing invitation to attend is extended to all sojourning brothers.

H. HILL, M. W.
H. S. McDANIEL, Recorder.
DEGREE OF HONOR, A. O. U. W.
Herrin Lodge, No. 2—Meets every Monday evening in Moro hall. All sojourning members invited to attend. NELLIE WHEAT, C. of H.
H. HILL, Recorder.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS.
Moro Lodge, No. 113—Meets every Saturday evening. Visiting brothers cordially invited to meet with us. A. E. COUSINS, N. G.
WM. HENRICH, Sec.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.
Moro Camp, No. 351—Meets every 2d and 4th Wednesday evening in Moro hall. Visiting chop-ers are invited to attend.
W. J. MARTIN, C. C.
WM. HOLDER, Clerk.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.
Moro Circle, No. 56, Women of Woodcraft, meets every 1st and 3rd Wednesday evening at opera house. Visiting members cordially invited to attend.
AMANDA MARTIN, G. N.
WM. HOLDER, Clerk.

PROTECTED HOME CIRCLE.
Sherman Circle, No. 320—Meets every Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brothers and sisters invited to meet with us.
Geo. MEADER, Pres.
LOYD D. IDEMAN, Sec.

CENTURY TENT, No. 34, K. O. T. M.
Meets every Thursday. Visiting Sir Knights cordially welcomed.
WM. HOLDER, S. K. C.
A. C. SANFORD, S. K. R.

Those whose subscriptions to the LEADER have expired will kindly drop in and renew. See our offer of the LEADER and OREGONIAN for $1.75 on the second page.

Advertise in the LEADER and prosper.
J. E. Dunn of Portland was in the city Saturday.

When in Wasco stop at the Western Hotel.

Mrs. G. McCoy has been appointed post-mistress at DeMoss Springs.

Windmills at $14. Moore Bros. & Ginn.

Dolph Heydt of Moro won the foot-race at the Wasco celebration on Friday.

Good barn for rent. Inquire at this office.

W. H. Moore and E. E. Lytle went to Goldendale on business Wednesday last.

Finest rigs in the county, at any hour, day or night. N. W. THOMPSON.

Elwood Thompson of Monklund returned from an outing to Wind river on Thursday last.

Don't forget to place your farm to sell with E. E. Hoskinson.

Mrs. L. K. Moore, accompanied by Master Lloyd Dunahoe, left on Friday's train to spend some time at Wind river.

If you want to buy a farm remember E. E. Hoskinson. He has some fine bargains.

B. Riemschneider arrived in this city from the valley last week. He will help Sherman county farmers do their harvesting.

If you want to know the live business men consult the advertising columns of the LEADER.

Happy Jack Summers left the city on Saturday, accompanied by his three children, en route to their home in Prineville.

You can get shaved eight times for one dollar, and hot or cold baths for 25 cents at Cousens' tonsorial parlors.

Ab. Wallace, while tending bar at Wasco, on Friday, got his skull fractured, being struck with a beer glass in the hands of a party he attempted to eject from the saloon.

Lumber, shingles, moldings, wood, etc., at bed-rock prices, opposite foundry, Moro. J. O. ELROD, Prop.

Clarence Skinner made this office a pleasant call last week. He has closed his first term of school at Kent, giving universal satisfaction.

Cut out and paste it in your hat—the new ad of Moore Bros. & Ginn for the Little Giant Thresher.

H. A. Moore and wife, Harry Moore and Mrs. W. H. Moore left on Thursday's train to camp and spend several days at the Hadley resort on Wind river.

If you desire to look your best, have your laundry done by the Troy Laundry Co. A. E. Cousens, agent. Call on him for prices.

Summerville, Breyman & Cartwright, have disposed of their interests in the Baldwin Sheep and Land Co. to C. M. Cartwright of Portland, and J. G. Edwards of Wyoming. The company run about 40,000 head of sheep, and market each year about half a million pounds of wool.

Geo. A. Dalton, of Los Angeles, Cal., registered at Wiley's hotel Friday. He was in the city looking after people who have that tired feeling. He is a representative of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

For terms on Moro property call on or address R. E. Hoskinson.

D. H. McCarty, of the Western Packing Company, of Linton, was in the city Saturday receiving horses from N. W. Thompson. This is the first shipment of horses received by the company this summer.

Moore Bros. & Ginn sell Champion Mowers, Reapers and Rakes; best in the world.

Miss Pearl Dean, a resident of The Dalles, and an expert milliner, contemplates making her home amongst us. She was in the city on Thursday last looking for a suitable building in which to commence operations.

Cash paid for hides, fat hogs and cattle, at City Meat Market.

PAGE & PARRY.

A. B. Westerfield, of Lafayette, Or., arrived in this city on Thursday's train. He met his brother, W. I. Westerfield, editor of the Grass Valley Journal, at the depot, with whom he will visit for a time.

You can get a meal at Wiley's City Hotel that will last you till you get to Portland.

J. A. Stitt was in town from his ranch on Rock creek on Thursday last, and made this office a pleasant call. He reports crops fine on the creek, he himself having 150 tons of alfalfa up already, and expects to harvest as much more before fall.

If you want a first-class meal and comfortable bed, go to the New Moro Hotel.

The Wash, published at San Francisco, has put in an appearance in our sanctum. This paper is in its 23d year. It is beautifully illustrated, filled with wit, humor, and solid reading matter, and stands side by side with publications of its class.

Go to Clyde Williams, at the Postoffice Store, for papeteries and all kinds of stationery, ruled and unruled.

The smallpox seems to be getting unpleasantly prevalent in Eastern Oregon. The Times mentions a case in Heppner in the family of C. E. Driskell. Prevention is better than cure, and every precaution should be taken for the exclusion of the dread disease.

We have for sale a splendid set of hardwood bowling alleys, pins and balls complete, all taken up and ready for shipment. Price, $40 cash. Apply LEADER office.

A rare specimen of a mastodon tusk five feet long and about seven inches in diameter, was unearthed by Curtis Egbert on his ranch on Fifteen mile creek, Wasco county.

It is supposed one of these prehistoric monsters died in the neighborhood, as many fossil remains of the huge animal have been found.

A diseased stomach surely undermines health. It dulls the brain, kills energy, destroys the nervous system, and predisposes to insanity and fatal diseases. All dyspeptic troubles are quickly cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured thousands of cases and is curing them every day. Its ingredients are such that it can't help curing. A. D. Bolton & Co.

W. J. May, the prominent lawyer of Tillamook, who was in this city Friday last, made the LEADER office a short call. While here he was the guest of J. J. Wiley, City Hotel.

He stated that Tillamook still produced her usual supply of butter, eggs, cheese, honey, clams, salmon and sawlogs.

Persons wishing pretty teeth and a sweet breath should use Dr. Ideman's Perfection Tooth Powder. It cleanses the teeth and retards decay. For sale at A. D. Bolton & Co.'s Drug Store. 25 cents a box.

Ada Bingham secured a judgment for $2,000 against Lipman Wolfe & Co. This was the second case in which this firm put some of its employees through the "sweating process" to convict themselves of stealing. The verdict is regarded with public favor.—Portland Dispatch.

Through tickets to all points East can now be purchased at Moro office of the C. S. Ry. as cheaply as at The Dalles or Portland. Baggage checked through to destination. This will be a great accommodation to residents in this vicinity who have formerly been obliged to go to The Dalles or Portland for Eastern tickets. I. J. Keffer, agent.

Prof. W. W. Dakin and wife, of the State University of Minnesota, are making a tour of the West, and arrived in the city last Wednesday evening. They will visit with Mrs. I. D. DeMoss, sister of the Professor, until such time as he has to resume his duties at the University.

You can't cure dyspepsia by dieting. Eat good, wholesome food, and plenty of it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests food without aid from the stomach, and is made to cure. A. D. Bolton & Co.

G. R. Austin of Woodburn, Or., was in town Friday.

The celebrated Bain & Mitchell wagons, sold by Moore Bros. & Ginn.

Chas. Hulse was in town Monday rustling up help to harvest. Men are reported scarce.

Will buy your fat cattle. Will sell you choice beef, pork, mutton and vegetables. PAGE & PARRY, Moro.

Walter Morehouse, a well-known farmer, from Gordon Ridge, did business in the city Monday.

Largest and most complete line of stores in Eastern Oregon at M. M. Co.

The Epworth League will give an entertainment and ice-cream social at Spaulding Chapel on Friday, July 28.

Take a drive behind one of those spirited teams to be found at N. W. Thompson's and you will get your money's worth.

J. F. Belshie made this office a call on Monday. He stated that harvest would begin in his neighborhood in about two weeks.

When you get off the cars hand your grip to Wiley's City Hotel.

Mrs. H. G. Aldridge and her sister, Miss Minnie Pender, were passengers on Monday's train for Vancouver, Wash.

All kinds of supplies for the Remington Typewriter can be had at the LEADER office.

Uriah Service, an old resident of this place, is up from California looking after his farm interests, accompanied by his wife and son.

If you want to sell or buy town lots or other town property, see M. Fitzmaurice, at the LEADER office.

The only place in town where fresh roasted peanuts are kept is Holder's confectionery store. He has a new roaster, and it's a dandy.

Miss Nellie McPherson of Wasco, recently from the Portland University, is on a visit to Miss Belshie at Joe Morrison's.

Farmers! You can get your window frames already "glowed," thus saving work, at J. O. Elrod's.

Lew Zeigler, who worked in Wallis' Cash Store in this city, has taken charge of the Union Company's warehouse in Rufus.

Anybody wanting a new Monarch bicycle will do well to call at this office.

Moore Bros. & Ginn sold a 22-horsepower Buffalo Pitts threshing engine to Al. Hembree of Grass Valley.

It will pay you to take a look at those handsome steel ranges at J. M. Filloon's.

B. Kelsay, one of our solid sheep-owners, was in the city Friday, on his way to his sheep ranches near Kent.

New Moro Hotel nearest hotel to the depot. Give us a call when in town.

Dug. Radley and J. W. Kunsman commenced work on the roof of the M. M. Co. store Monday.

It is to get a coat of pitch and gravel.

If you want to buy, sell, or rent a farm, we will help you do so through the columns of this paper.

Ray Ragsdale heard that the parties who rented and ran off with his pony, were seen crossing Tygh creek, going in the direction of Portland.

Comfortable residence and two lots in Moro for sale. Said property situated in the heart of town. Apply to M. Fitzmaurice, LEADER office.

Jack Thompson commenced cutting some fall wheat on Monday. This is the first wheat to be harvested this side of the ridge. Mr. Thompson is one of those who farms his land in a proper manner, and generally comes out with a good crop.

Thomas Rhoads, Centerfield, O., writes: "I suffered from piles seven or eight years. No remedy gave me relief until DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, less than a box of which permanently cured me." Soothing, healing, perfectly harmless. Beware of counterfeits. A. D. Bolton & Co.

Miss Mae Johnson left for her home at Bigelow on Monday, having finished a course of lessons in the dressmaker's art with Miss Maggie Huff. Miss Johnson will be missed by a host of friends in Moro who join with us in hoping she may return at some future time.

Gun-shot wounds and powder-burns, cuts, bruises, sprains, wounds from rusty nails, insect stings and ivy poisoning,—quickly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Positively prevents blood poisoning. Beware of counterfeits. "DeWitt's" is safe and sure. A. D. Bolton & Co.

Later reports from Heppner say that the smallpox scare is about over in that city. A week ago the health officers had three cases to look after, but by strict quarantine regulations and proper attention to the patients a spread was prevented. The first patient treated came from Walla Walla, and was afflicted when he reached the city.

Miss Daisy Stanley made a trip to Wasco the first of the week.

A. Kyle of Corvallis arrived in the city Saturday.

J. M. Filloon handles the Daisy McCormick, by far the best reaper on the market.

Before buying elsewhere, see the stock of horse blankets, wagon sheets, feed bags, hobbles and halters, at Heydt & Co's.

J. M. Downing of Condon visited the city Wednesday last.

Bert Magers has reopened his paint shop over the foundry. Now is the time to get your buggies and carriages painted.

For easy shaving, stylish hair-cutting and a refreshing bath, go to Carl Williams' shaving parlors, next door to the New Moro Hotel.

Ed. Marshall and F. E. Osborn of Independence, were in Moro Saturday, and will help harvest Sherman county wheat.

Miss Ada Mulkey wishes to make known to the public that she will give lessons in oil painting at her rooms in the Anderson building. Terms on application.

J. McCullough shipped 23 head of very desirable horses to Conover, Iowa, on Tuesday. His son, W. H. McCullough, will accompany the shipment east.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Lackamp, Elston, Mo., write: "One Minute Cough Cure saved the life of our little boy when nearly dead with croup." A. D. Bolton & Co.

Ila Omeg, who for some time past has been an attaché of the City Hotel, accompanied her uncle, "Happy Jack" Summers, to Prineville last week.

If you want blank deeds, mortgages, notes, legal blank covers, etc., call at the LEADER job office and inspect our blanks and prices. We will show the neatest blanks at most reasonable prices.

Moore Bros. of this city, with their usual enterprise, have made arrangements with other parties and will form a company to start a bank in Goldendale, Wash. The new company will do business under the name of Moore & Co., Bankers.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers benefit permanently. They lend gentle assistance to nature, causing no pain or weakness, permanently curing constipation and liver ailments. A. D. Bolton & Co.

E. R. Hickson steps almost as high as the big Langshang rooster he brought up from the valley, since his wife and two sons made their appearance in town. The Hickson family have rented the O. P. Hulse cottage, south of the railroad line, and are very comfortably located.

Buggies, $40, $45, $50, $60, $70, $80, and so on up to $200. The only big stock of buggies, carts and spring wagons kept in Sherman county. Moore Bros. & Ginn.

There will be 150 to 200 tons of freight come to Moro within the next 30 days for Prineville and other points south. Quite a number of teams will be required to haul all this merchandise. Teamsters should remember that the roads from Moro are comparatively level, and the easiest to haul over in the country—no hills to climb and no tolls to pay.

"What might have been"—if that little cough hadn't been neglected—is the sad reflection of thousands of consumptives. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds. A. D. Bolton & Co.

While there is little doubt some of the wheat in the county has suffered from the recent hot spell, the situation is not nearly so bad as reported. W. V. Johnson, who is a reliable authority on such matters, says that a reasonable crop may be expected. Many other expert farmers say that the damage done wheat is not very great, calamity howlers to the contrary notwithstanding.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel from the system all poisonous accumulations, regulate the stomach, bowels and liver, and purify the blood. They drive away disease, dissipate melancholy, and give health and vigor for the daily routine. Do not gripe or sicken. A. D. Bolton & Co.

O. J. Mulkey was sent from Mitchell by a sheepman, J. C. McEachern, with two teams and wagons loaded with wool, to The Dalles. Arriving there, after a 12 days' journey, Mulkey collected the freight on the wool and decamped with the teams and outfit to North Yakima, where he disposed of six fine horses, the wagons, etc., to John Morford for $250. The property was recovered, but Mulkey escaped.

Work on S. S. Hayes' new house goes on apace. This will be one of the handsomest residences in the city when finished. The building is a two-story frame, hard finished, with 8 large rooms, besides innumerable closets, etc. The house is situated in the midst of a beautiful grove of shade trees, under which sparkle a well of ice-cold water. Mr. Hayes expects to move in about the first of October.

F. M. Simpson of Portland was in this city on business last week.

R. M. Callison and J. O. Briston of Palouse, Wash., were in the city Sunday looking over the situation.

Mrs. Bell McPherson of Wasco lost quite a valuable horse last week from injuries received by barbed wire.

Pleasant surroundings and polite waiters, together with the best meals in town, make Wiley's City Hotel a favorite place to stop at when in the city.

Found—On the road between here and DeMoss Springs, a pair of baby's shoes. The owner can have them by applying to W. A. Wallis, Cash Store, Moro.

J. B. Hosford was called to Wasco to defend H. Lamphere, who was sued by J. W. Daugherty for cutting some wire at DeMoss Springs. As we go to press we are informed the jury in the case failed to agree.

E. C. Cochran made this office a pleasant call yesterday. He has spent one school year at Philomath College, and speaks very highly of that institution. Mr. Cochran showed us an interesting letter from Prof. Henry Sheak, which we would take pleasure in publishing, but our space is limited. Any parties wishing to take a college course cannot do better than communicate with Mr. E. C. Cochran, Moro, Or.

A little after one o'clock a. m. Saturday morning, R. E. Hoskinson noticed a red glare on his bedroom windows, and promptly gave the alarm of fire. It seems a straw pile near Dr. Smith's barn was found to be on fire, fanned by the high wind. The fire brigade, with their usual promptitude, appeared on the scene and quickly put an end to what could have developed into a dangerous fire. Some people talk of the fire as of incendiary origin, but the general opinion is some children playing on the flat the evening before, set fire to the manure pile.

Off for Wind River.

Wm. Holder had charge of quite a bevy of our Moro Dames on Tuesday, bound for The Hadley Resort on Wind river. Besides Mrs. Holder and children, we noticed Mrs. J. B. Hosford and little Mariel, Miss Zeneth Mason, Mrs. Clyde Williams and Mrs. Vandervort.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store.

Married.

At Alton, Ill., July 18, 1899, W. C. Johnston and Miss Daisy McReynolds, Rev. Wagoner officiating.

[The happy couple arrived in this city on Saturday, the home of Mr. Johnston. The LEADER office joins, with many friends, in wishing them a long life and a happy one.]

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It removed the pain in my chest, and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Basket and Grove Meeting.

Wasco, Or., July 24, 1899.

Arrangements have been made for a basket and grove meeting to be held in connection with the quarterly conference at Locust Grove Sunday, July 30th. Love feast at 10 a. m. Presiding Elder C. C. Bell of Portland will preach at 11 a. m.; 2 p. m., Young People's and Sunday School rally. Addresses by Rev. O. V. White of Dufur, U. S. Drake of DeMoss Springs, and others. Come and enjoy the day in a beautiful grove. W. H. BAST, Pastor.

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Druggists.

GRAND CELEBRATION AT WASCO.

The demonstration at Wasco, on Friday in honor of the homecoming of the Second Oregon Volunteers, will long be remembered by those present as being one of the pleasantest affairs of the kind they ever had the good fortune to attend. The day was spent in listening to an able talk by Fred W. Wilson of The Dalles, enjoying a basket dinner, hearing several choice selections of instrumental and vocal music and viewing the sports. The ball in the evening at the Farmers' Warehouse was well attended. Dancing was kept up until 4 o'clock in the morning, when the pleasure-seekers separated satiated with pleasure, and satisfied with the efforts made by the good people of Wasco for their entertainment.

A Frightful Blunder

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Druggists.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Oregon Trading Co. are now made sole agents for the Hodge Headers in Sherman County, Oregon. ACME HARVESTER CO.,

Per O. M. Scott, Mgr.

On account of the lateness of the season and danger of flood, we request that all parties desiring headers will address us at once. We are prepared to take care of all orders for Hodge No. 2, or New Chain-Drive Headers. Late improvements make this year's machine the finest Hodge Header ever put out by the manufacturers.

OREGON TRADING CO.,
Wasco, Oregon.

Of Interest to Inventors.

C. A. Snow & Co., one of the oldest and most successful firms of patent lawyers, whose offices are opposite the United States Patent Office in Washington, D. C., and who have procured patents for more than 17,000 inventions, say that, owing to the improved conditions in the United States Patent Office, patents may now be more promptly procured than at any previous time in their experience of twenty-five years.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS OF WATER.

Those wishing to use water for irrigating are requested to do so between 7 and 8 p. m. If faucets are left open or "whirligigs" are left running at any other time, there will be an extra charge for the water used.

MORO WATER CO.
JULY 7, 1899. j12w4

GET YOUR OLD HATS AND OLD CLOTHES CLEANED.

J. H. Reynburn is in the city, and is prepared to do all kinds of cleaning, dyeing and repairing in all branches. Ladies' and gents' clothing a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Ice! Ice! Ice!

Persons desiring pure ice should go to Holder's Confectionery Store for the same, as you will get no stagnant slough-water ice, but ice that came from the Blue mountains.

Sheepmen, Take Notice.

Wool sacks, twin, salt, sulphur, branding stuff, and all supplies needed in your business can be had at the Moro Mercantile Company's store, Moro, Oregon.

CAUGHT AT LAST!

The finest line of ladies' and Misses' corsets, children's and ladies' waists ever offered in Moro. All new goods. M. M. Co.

The Archbishop of Canterbury some time ago entered a London East-end church during a week night of service, and taking a back seat he joined in singing one of Moody and Sankey's hymns. Next to him was a working man who was singing lustily in tune. The Prime Minister was wretchedly upset of time, and his singing indignantly upset the working man, who patiently endured the discord as long as he could, and then, nudging the Archbishop, whispered in his ear, "Brother, dry up, mister; you're spilling the show!"

Never chase your own hat when it blows off in a gale of wind; stand still and you will presently see half a dozen persons in pursuit of it. When one has captured it must leisurely towards him, receive it with a graceful acknowledgment, and place it on your head; he will invariably act as if you had done him a favor. Try it.

Landlord—"I'll have to raise your rent."

Tenant—"What for?"

Landlord—"They've changed the name of this street, and it is now an avenue."