THE INSTITUTE ENTERTAINMENT. The exercises in connection with the County Teachers' Institute on the evenings of Friday and Saturday received the support of the whole community, the commodious opera house being packed to the doors with an appreciative audience.

School Superintendent Ragsdale was in his element, and deserves a vote of thanks for the success of what may be spoken of as our first fall entertainment. G. M. Frost opened the proceedings with a well rendered solo, "She was bred in Old Kentucky," after which Mr. Ragsdale introduced Professor Mulkey, of Monmouth, who delivered an interesting talk on the "Wisdom of the Ancients. He took us back to the Mosaic law, and drew a vivid word-picture of the wisdom and knowledge of the Jews, and went far to show that there was much method in the teachings of that old law as set forth in the Book of Deuteronomy, explaining in a lucid manner that much of our modern science was known to Moses and other ancient law-givers. Mr. Mulkey again favored a crowded house on Saturday evening with a most interesting review of the life of Alexander Hamilton, setting forth the wonderful powers of oratory and organization of that soldier, statesman and patriot. Mr. Mulkey has a hearty, enjoyable method of handling his subject; nothing prosy or tiresome about him; and during the time he favored us with his oratory, he never failed to hold the attention of his hearers. After the lectures, our local talent favored the audience with a few vocal selections, Mrs. I. D. DeMoss presiding at the organ, Mrs. J. E. Hosford and Miss Lida Beleshe, sopranos, Mrs. J. O. Elrod and Mrs. Fitzmaurice, altos, G. M. Frost and Mr. Foss, tenors, J. P. Strahl and P. O. DeMoss basses. "Beautiful Twilight," "The Shining Way," "The Soldier's Chorus," and "The Dankey's Chorus," were well rendered. The latter, sang in response to an encore, brought down the house, and delighted the small boys, one of whom could be heard on his way home producing the asinine refrain away into the night.

She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at A. D. Bolton and Co's Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.
