A cut of the grounds and orchard at Cherrycroft, the suburban residence of J. B. Mowry, appeared in the Oregonian of Oct. 13th. Cherrycroft is nothing more or less than a typical Sherman county farm, brought to a high state of cultivation by energy and intelligence. The orchard there, and the fruit raised this autumn, go to show that the plateau land of Sherman county, when properly handled, can produce fruit and vegetables in abundance, and that wheat of necessity need not be the only crop available. Mr. Mowry says that constant cultivation will insure a plentiful yield of fruit and vegetables, without the aid of irrigation. The grounds at Cherrycroft are the special care of Mrs. Mowry, and are, in summer, the envy of the whole neighborhood, being aglow with a beautiful selection of plants and flowers. Thoroughbred fowl are now claiming attention on the farm, a start being made with some 200 chickens, which will no doubt prove a complete success.

Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts. guaranteed, at A. D. Bolton and Co's Drug Store.

No Crime Charged. Prof. Jas. DeMoss made this office a business call on Monday, and informs us the indictment found by the last U. S. grand jury against him has been dismissed. We publish the following letter by his request:

Office of F. P. Mays, attorney-at-law, Chamber of Commerce building, Portland, Oregon, Oct. 5, 1900.

Prof. Jas. M. DeMoss, DeMoss Springs, Oregon:

My Dear Professor: It gives me great pleasure to advise you that Mrs. DeMoss and yourself are now clear of the indictment found against you by the last United States grand jury. Last Monday I had the case set down for argument to-day, and we took it up this morning. After full argument on both sides, the indictment was dismissed. I am greatly pleased to have you thus clear of the charges, and also to have my opinion justified that no crime had been charged by the indictment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes, and give my compliments to your good wife.

Yours, truly, F. P. Mays.

The populists of Coos, Jackson, Douglas, and several other counties of the state, have "decided to make a clean fight in the coming campaign without any entangling alliances." Fusion in 1898 taught them a lesson. They loaned the democrats their thunder only to hear the rumblings die away in the distance. The populists were completely "worked" in the last campaign. It was the biggest political steal on record. The populists sold their birthright for a farthing—that was all the democrats had. In 1900 such a thing as fusion will not be possible.—Pendleton Tribune.
