A very pleasant affair took place at the residence of John Coyle of Erskineville, when his daughter, Miss Elva, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to George Evans of Mosier. The bride was very tastefully attired in a gown of blue, trimmed in white brocade silk and white ribbons, while the groom wore the customary suit of black. Miss M. Farra supported the bride, while Elmer Coyle, brother of the bride, acted as best man. After the ceremony, and the usual rounds of congratulations were over, a sumptuous repast was served, to which we can truthfully say, full justice was done. Among those present we noticed Mr. and Mrs. L. Evans and son Fred of Mosier, Albert Swasey of the same place, Mr. and Mrs. Spicer and Mrs. L. Coyle of Erskineville, and Rev. and Mrs. Hoskins of Moro. The newly-married couple will make their future home at Mosier, where the groom has many friends. We wish them a very pleasant journey through life.

Church, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The LEADER extends congratulations, and wishes the happy pair a prosperous journey through life.

His Life Was Saved.
Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Halloween Party.
The young folks of the 7th grade gave a very jolly evening party at Brock's restaurant on Halloween. Plenty of cake and lemonade were in evidence, and disappeared as if by magic. Mrs. G. N. Bolton kindly took charge of proceedings, and the children played games, and had any amount of fun until a late hour. The following are the names of those present: Daisy Stanley, Frank Spear, Ella Strong, Nora McCoy, Vic Sayrs, Lulu Bolton, Edith Brock, Emory Johnston, Roy Powell, Erby Nelson, Ralph Kay, Jack Mickson and Bert Harris.

No Right To Ugliness.
The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at A. D. Bolton & Co's Drug Store.

Evans-Coyle Wedding.
