Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at A. D. Bolton's Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

[The young folks are well and favorably known in both Wasco and Sherman county.]

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by A. D. Bolton & Co., Drugists.

Thanksgiving was observed in the good old-fashioned style at the house of J. W. Kunsman. A party of twelve sat down to the hospitable board, which groaned under the weight of good things provided. Besides Mr. Kunsman's family, those present were: The Rev. Hoskins and Mrs. Hoskins, F. C. Raymond, Miss Helm, Mr. Kime and wife. During the repeat much good-humored fun was indulged in. Mrs. Hoskins getting the better of W. J. as to that pie. After dinner Mr. Kime made a few appropriate remarks, and the party dispersed, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Kunsman for their hospitality.

N. W. THOMPSON, City Marshal.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

It is reported that the Royal Bengal Tiger in Walter L. Main's Menagerie has killed two men. The tiger is a hard animal to domesticate; and come to think of it, the name Tiger will be all the go in Sherman county this fall. The Tiger Grain Drill is what we refer to. Having ordered two carloads of these celebrated drills, made before the price of material went up, we are able to sell them from 10 to 15 per cent. less than any other drill can be sold. They are to-day, without question, the best drill on the market. Call and see the drill and get our prices before buying. MOORE BROS. & GINN.
