To the credit of Kentucky judges they declined to be Goebelized.

France has an anti-expansion party which advocates the dropping of all outside possessions of that country.

The supreme court at Salem, Or., Dec. 4th, ordered new trials in the cases of Erastus Rhodes vs. Charles H. Belshie, and the same appellant vs. J. F. Belshie. These cases were tried in the circuit court here before Judge Bradshaw, and resulted in a verdict for the defendants.

General Methuen is a brave and courageous leader, and his men, while suffering dreadful losses, have proved themselves made of the same stuff that stormed the Heights of Alma and withstood the charge of Napoleon's Old Guard at Waterloo.

The English Times, while it pays a tribute to the bravery of the British soldier, asks where the science of war comes in, and evidently blames General Methuen for the sacrifice of life in his recent battles. What was the man to do? wait for reinforcements at Belmont, and allow himself to be bottled up while the Boers took Kimberly!

Postmaster Wright of Cape Nome, Alaska, visited Washington in the interests of postal facilities to accommodate an expected rush to that district next spring. Birds have been asked for land service (probably by reindeer) between St. Michaels and Nome, about 250 miles, the present service being only by vessels which touch there infrequently.

William J. Bryan is making, or accumulating, a lot of money, and it is reported that he is putting it into bonds. No matter what he may say to the contrary, he hopes, desires and expects the gold standard to be maintained, so that his interest and principal may always be gold or good as gold. He talks silver only to induce silly people to put up their money to hear him; and then he invests the money in bonds, which he knows are to be maintained on the gold basis. Billy Bryan knows there are lots of suckers; and it is the object of his life to make money out of them.
And for many years he has been succeeding mightily well. Billy gets the money, and his conscience doesn't trouble him. He has no ill-will towards the poor dupes, but merely wants their money. And he is getting it. He will be a rich man by the time the farce is finally played out.—Oregonian.

It now seems certain that this government will succeed in its demand for pledges that the "open door" shall be perpetually maintained in all parts of China, regardless of the nation in control of the territory.

Secretary Wilson is contemplating experiments in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines.
He will introduce new seeds, and make an effort to turn the attention of the natives to diversified farming. He has not decided as yet which of our domestic animals are best suited to conditions in the islands, but will probably try some highly-bred Merino sheep and any surplus goats that can be spared from Eastern Oregon.

The fight to save the life of W.
G. Magers, twice sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Ray Sink, has not yet ceased. A petition for rehearing of the second appeal has been served and filed in the supreme court. It asks for a re-examination of the principal question presented: the admission of the testimony of Chief of Police McLachlan of Portland, who refreshed himself from another's notes, his stenographer's, before going into the court-room at the trial. The petition has been taken under advisement by the court.

It is inconceivable how colored men will persist in committing revolving crimes against white women, when they know the dreadful vengeance that awaits them.
Richard Coleman, a negro, was burned at the stake in Mayville, Ky., last week for the brutal murder of Mrs. Lashbrook, his employer's wife. Accounts of such horrors can only be read with a shudder. Coleman's sufferings were dreadful, and the actions of the mob who tortured him worthy of a band of Apache Indians. On the other hand, owing to the atrocious nature of the crime, blame can scarcely be attached to the relatives of the murdered woman for their part in the horrible proceedings.

Secretary Root and Secretary Wilson have reached a determination to make exhibits of Cuba and Porto Rico at the Paris Exposition. The conclusion was come to at the cabinet meeting and approved. Porto Rico's exhibit will be a part of that of the United States, just the same as that of a state or territory. Cuba's will be made under direction of the United States, but will be separate. This exhibit of Cuba will cost about $50,000, and the expenses will be paid from the revenues of the island by the war department.
Cubans will be placed in charge of the exhibit. Both of the exhibits will be largely agricultural, as industries are few in either island at present.

The President, in his address to congress, touches on all subjects of interest to the people of the United States, and is very complete in his summary of the affairs of the nation. He maintains that the gold standard, and that alone, is the only basis on which our financial position should rest. He indorses the wisdom of the addition to the army, and gives hearty concurrence to an increase of the navy, as proposed by the secretary. Mr. Mc-Kinley passes on to give a lucid definition of the situation in the Philippines, which should remove from the minds of the most spectical all doubts as to the wisdom of the administration in upholding American supremacy in the islands.
He gives a clear synopsis of the events which led up to the war with the Filipinos, showing that they were determined to oppose any kind of government offered by the United States, treating all overtures of peace from the Americans as signs of pusillanimity and cowardice. He points to the fact that war was absolutely unavoidable, and had to be pushed with vigor for the protection of life and property in the islands, and places an extinguisher on the hopes of Aguinaldo's party, by saying that the future government of the Philippines must rest with the congress of the United States.

The capture of Lieutenant Munro and 59 men of the Fourth cavalry of the Filipino general, Connon, with 800 men and officers, with rifles, several American and 70 Spanish prisoners, at Bayombon, in the province of Nueva Vizcaya, was a successful bluff.
Munro tapped the rebel wire, telegraphed to Connon that he was advancing with a large force, and demanded his surrender. After negotiations, Connon consented to cap-tulate to the "superior" force, whereupon Munro telegraphed that he would enter the town with a small guard and receive the garrison's surrender. He captured the whole Filipino force, and secured their arms, the rebels supposing Munro had an army behind him.

Paul Kruger has a namesake in Weston, Oregon.

The death of news would lead us to believe that British prospects in South Africa are not very bright.
The Boers are putting up a stubborn fight, and even the most sanguine supporters of England cannot but feel a certain amount of anxiety as to what may happen within the next month. Certain it is, the chances that General Buller will eat his Christmas turkey and plum pudding in Pretoria are slim.

INTRODUCED BY MOODY.

Representative Moody recently introduced a bill providing that where homestead or other entries of public land are canceled for conflict or the entry has been erroneously allowed, the secretary of the interior shall repay the purchase money, fees, excess, etc., and where pre-emptors or homesteaders have paid double the minimum price for land afterwards found within a railroad or other grant, which has not been forfeited, the excess of $1.25 per acre shall be refunded.

He also introduced a bill appropriating $75,000 for the establishment and equipment of an assay office at Baker City.

Germination Test for Grain.

Every farmer should test his grain before sowing, either in fall or spring, to ascertain the amount that will germinate under ordinary conditions; he could tell precisely then the amount requisite per acre.
No elaborate requirements are necessary and but very little time and skill.

Procure four or six soft burned bricks, and in each dig out six holes about an inch in diameter and half an inch deep; the holes will be easier cut if the brick be allowed to stand in water an hour or two. Now count out a certain number of grains, say twenty, and place in the holes, covering with another brick or piece of wood to exclude light. Place the bricks in water about an inch deep, but not deep enough to come to the top, and allow to stand in a fairly warm place for about 24 hours.
Then count the number germinated and determine the per cent and from the result calculate the amount necessary per acre.

This entirely removes all element of chance, and will tell you exactly what your grain is worth for seeding purposes.—Oregon Agricultural College and Experiment Station.

The Salt Lake Tribune has the following to say of the man who did his best to ruin England:

"It took Lord Kitchener eight years to correct one of Gladstone's mistakes; the best blood of the British army is now being shed at the other extreme of Africa in a fearful attempt to correct another.
He could not as premier of Great Britain rise to an occasion. When out of office he could see mistakes in the government sooner than any one else; when at the head of the government, he was afraid. Had he hurried to the relief of Gordon, he would have saved that great life and established on a firm basis the prestige of Great Britain over all Northern Africa. The work that the Sirdar Kitchener has performed would have been unnecessary, and by this time British power would have extended far into Central Africa. Had he not been firm enough in 1881-82 in dealing with the Boers, they never would have taken up the idea that their country was, and of right ought to be, an independent state. The verdict of a later world will be that Mr.
Gladstone was never a great statesman. He will be held as one of the first scholars and orators, a man of most resourceful mind, a marvel intellectually, a great financier, and a conscientious great man, but not a statesman. When the Disraeli government went down and the queen had to call upon Mr. Gladstone to select a cabinet, her heart was very heavy. She knew by intuition that the man returning knew better what was needed than the man who was to take up his unfinished work, and her heart was sore. Events have made her intuitions seem prophetic. Gladstone cost his country a great war in Northern Africa when only a little one was needed. His infirmity of purpose at a critical time makes it necessary for England to put forth a military effort now which has no parallel since Waterloo."

Mrs. Boies—"Don't you find it a great relief to have the children at school again?"

Mrs. Gerz—"Well, it would be if they didn't learn so many new questions to ask."

three pupils and others assembled to do her honor. The evening was spent in games, talking matches, lunch, and other exercises calculated to furnish mirthful amusement to all, the most notable of which was the dumb speech by Miss Whitling. All report as hav-of Monklund, Oregon.

JAY P. LECAS, Register.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County.

In the matter of the estate of J. J.
Eaton, deceased.

To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that by order of the court in and for said county and state, duly made and entered of record, the undersigned has been appointed executor of the estate of J. J.
Eaton, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same with the proper vouchers therefor to said executor at the office of J. B. Hosford, in the city of Moro, in said Sherman county, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice.

Dated at Moro, Oregon, this 10th day of November, 1899.

B. S. KELSEY,
Executor of the estate of J. J. Eaton, deceased.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County.

Thomas J. Miller, Jr., Plaintiff, vs.
Mittie Miller, Defendant.

To Mittie Miller, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on the first day of the term of court following the expiration of the time prescribed in the order of publication of this summons, to-wit: On or before Monday, the 20th day of March, A. D.
1900, and being the first day of the next regular term of the above entitled court; and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his said complaint, to-wit: For a decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between said plaintiff and defendant be dissolved, that said plaintiff be awarded the care, custody and control of Dora Lee Miller, the minor child of said plaintiff and defendant; and that plaintiff have and recover from you, the said defendant, his costs and disbursements made and expended in this suit; and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable and just.

This summons is served upon you by publication of the above entitled court and cause, by order of the court, and Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of said Court, duly made and entered of record on the 31st day of October, 1899, the same being the regular October, 1899, term of said court.

The first publication of this summons is made October 11th, 1899.

Bled Quarts at a Time

"I am a knife maker and worked for a number of years in the New York Knif-Co's factory at Wadsworth, N. Y. First thing I knew I commenced to bleed from my mouth. Sometimes as much as a quart of blood would come up from my lungs at a time. Every time I coughed the blood spurted out. It was in the people told me I had better make my peace with the Lord and prepare to die, for I would not live till spring. My home doctor couldn't do me any good, but advised me to get to New York City for examination.
They finally took me to a medical college, and a whole lot of physicians made what they called a diagnosis. There were several students looking on.
One professor had a little ivory hammer, and with this he pounded my chest and held his ear close to listen. After a while the professor looked at me solemnly and declared:
'One of your lungs is almost gone and the other is affected.
There may be a slim chance for life if you quit working in that knife factory.' I went home, but didn't improve. One day I saw an advertisement of free samples of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, being given away by our home druggists, Walker & Fath's church I got one of these bottles, and it relieved me. Then I bought more of the regular size, and my improvement was continuous, although slow. My doctors were astonished and so was I. After dark I hated to spit, because I was afraid it might be blood, and I wanted to know for sure. I have no fear now, for at last I am a solid man again. Although one lung is gone, the other is as sound as a dollar, and answers as well as two lungs, so far as I can see. I want everyone to know the facts and that is why I tell them here."

THE WEAR AND TEAR OF MEN'S NERVES

Results in debility—exhaustion, not only exhaustion of the body, but exhaustion of the facial faculties as well.

The nerve cells of the body have been robbed of their vital forces. The nerves have no life in them; therefore all the organs of the body suffer from lack of nerve control, and the blood vessels that supply these organs are not in proper tone. "HUDYAN cures the evil. HUDYAN provides this vitality or nerve force that is wanting." Are you appearing with hollow eyes (Fig. 1); hollow eyes and dark rings under eyes (Fig. 2); pale face and sunken cheeks (Fig. 3); weakness of limbs (Fig. 4); a poor appetite and impaired digestion (Fig. 5); torpid liver (Fig. 6), and constipation (Fig. 7); or have you a headache and dizzy spells? Do you suffer sleepless nights in the morning hollow-eyed and tired out?
Are you despondent, melancholy? Do you feel "run down"? Are you knee-shaky? Have you pain in the small of the back?

These symptoms all tell you that your nerves are failing you; that you will grow old long before your time. HUDYAN will save you from this. HUDYAN makes a robust, manly man of you. HUDYAN cures Nervous Debility, Jaundice. Go to your druggist, at once, and buy HUDYAN. No other remedy; just HUD-YAN, for HUDYAN is what you need.

Other symptoms of this terrible affliction that visits so many men are: cold hands and feet, palpitation of the heart, hot flashes, clouded memory, unsteady after eating, twitching of muscles, spots before the eyes, shooting tears, weariness, tremblings, saltiness in tongue, heavy eyes, swimming in ears, shaky all-over feeling.

Remember HUDYAN. Be a vigorous, robust man, a man with nerves of steel, a man with muscles of iron.

HUDYAN is wonderful. HUDYAN is acknowledged by our leading medical men to be the tissue builder known to medical science. HUDYAN will lift you from the life of dependence and disencumberment that you are now in, and will make of you a happy man. Try HUDYAN, you will soon be convinced.
