It looks as though the Gobelites might lose the Kentucky senatorship as well as the governorship, which would serve them just right.

Alabama Democrats are having a hot old time over the senatorial question, and if the fight between Senator Morgan and Gov. Johnston continues to grow in bitterness the Pops will try to snatch the prize.

A good many persons have already realized the change in the military governorship of Cuba. General Leonard Wood is a difficult man to bamboozle.

The Democrats might save time and worry by indorsing the good work of the national administration and making President McKinley's re-election unanimous.

If Aguinaldo doesn't do something soon he will find the affections of the un-American antis transferred to the Boers, who at least know how to stand up and fight.

Owing to the fact that a Mauser bullet travels about a thousand times faster than a sword, English officers are now armed with a rifle. The swords are being sent back to Aldershot to be used in the next autumn maneuvers.

The McKinley Republican club of Moro held a meeting in the city hall on Saturday for the purpose of electing the following delegates to the State League meeting at Portland: W. H. Moore, M. Damon and J. B. Hosford.

Hon. M. S. Quay may or may not get the seat in the senate for which he is an applicant, but we are confident that those who predict his withdrawal are dead wrong. His whole record is that of a man who enters a fight to stay until the finish.

The Anglo-Boer war will most certainly revolutionize military tactics. The regiment of red-coated, pipe-clayed foot-soldiers, versed in barrack yard drill, must give place to active light cavalrymen, ready to dismount and take advantage of such cover as they may find from which to shoot.

General Buller's address to his troops on the Tugela brings to mind the words of the Irish captain who led his men into a difficult position at the battle of the Alma, when he said: "Now, boys, I have got you into this mess, and we must fight like the devil to get out of it."

Some of the yellow space writers have been getting their dates mixed and sending in April fool matter.

President McKinley's demand for a written guarantee from all the governments concerned, that the Chinese ports which have passed under foreign control shall be open to the trade of all nations on the same terms, has been agreed to. Another international triumph for the Republican party.

The Maryland house of delegates, which is overwhelmingly Democratic, recently refused to indorse William Jennings Bryan as the recognized leader of the Democracy of the United States, and practically killed a resolution introduced by a free silver advocate to invite Mr. Bryan to address the body.

The present prosperity of the country has caused no relaxation of efforts on the part of the Republican administration and congress to increase our prosperity and to provide for its continuance. The people know by experience that they can always expect prosperity from the Republican party.

The much-talked-of Fenian raid into Canada at the present time will not cause much uneasiness on the part of Canadians. Even though she has sent a large body of her soldiers to help the mother country in her African campaign, there are plenty left to make it desperately interesting for the raiders should they attempt any such procedure. And more than that, the United States would, of necessity, be compelled to take part in subduing any such visitation from her shores. Of course the promoters of the affair are lining their pockets meanwhile at the expense of the laboring and less wealthy classes.—Hood River Sun.

E. E. Lytle, of the new Columbia Southern railroad, is in Portland on business, and gives a glowing account of the awakening and development of the rich region tributary to his road. It is a plateau country well adapted to farming and stockraising, with no big trees to fell, no stumps or brush to grub out. The Columbia Southern now has 41 miles in operation, and 29 miles more will bring it to its terminus at Shaniko. Mr. Lytle says that the building of these 29 missing miles will be completed in six weeks if the present favorable weather continues. There are 500 men at work on the construction of the railroad, and they have kept at it all winter without interruption. The Eastern Oregon Land Company controls 75,000 acres of land in Sherman and Wasco counties, and the company is about to enter on an active campaign of development, which includes the bringing in of many hundreds of new settlers. The region tributary to the Columbia Southern will produce this year, Mr. Lytle says, 3,000,000 bushels of wheat. The fall crop up there is already six inches high, and is well rooted and stooled out, but has not jointed. Everything indicates an immense yield.—Oregonian.

A peace party are making themselves heard in England who have as little respect for the English flag in South Africa as our antis have for that of the United States in the Philippines. They seem to have no conception of the abject position an abandonment of the present war with the Boers would place England in before the nations of the world. They take the same stand, and are, individually, some of the same peace at any price imbeciles to whom may be traced the necessity for this sacrifice of life on the part of both Briton and Boer. These are the same men or their spawn who, with Gladstone at their head, made an ignominious peace with the Boers in 1881, and established that contempt for the English soldiers amongst the burghers which encouraged the Transvaal government to treat all foreigners, and English subjects in particular, with such overbearing insolence that at last, and none too soon, England had to pay heed to the cry of her sons for redress and send an army to South Africa. England is not waging war on the Boers for their gold or country. She is simply doing what she did some years ago, when she sent an army of 30,000 men and spent $5,000,000 that one insignificant Englishman might be released from his dungeon in Abyssinia. In the Transvaal not one of her subjects, but 20,000, have borne every kind of oppression and indignity from a horde of ignorant bushwhackers, and because England has taken up the cudgels in their defense she is dubbed a land-grabber, and we hear such rot as a monarchy crushing a republic, when in reality it is a peaceably-disposed nation forced into a war to obtain justice from a despicable little oligarchy.

Ex-Governor Moody, of The Dalles, is visiting his son, Ralph, in Portland. He thinks Eastern Oregon has become very Webfoot-like in its weather this season, as warm showers appear to be the rule where cool, bright frosty days have heretofore been the fashion. As a result, the bunchgrass hills are reveling in a tropical green, and next year's wheat crop is as far along as it usually is in April. The warehouses at The Dalles are filled with last year's wheat, which the producers do not desire to part with at the prevailing price, 46 cents, but the wool crop of 1899 has long since disappeared. The governor says people of The Dalles are giving themselves no uneasiness over the building up of the new town of Shaniko, as The Dalles will always be the wool market of the Northwest, and it matters not whether the fleeces come to market by team or by rail. Several firms of The Dalles have arranged to set up branch stores at Shaniko, however, as the new burg is likely to become quite a local center.—Oregonian.

Cape Nome.

All the mining excitements of past times, including that occasioned by the great California discoveries, which in '49 set all the world on fire and resulted in the addition of a thousand millions of dollars to the world's stock of gold and builded great commonwealths on the Pacific coast, must pale into the littleness of great distance by the side of what is coming in Northern Alaska. The Klondike excitement of two years ago was a pigmy compared to the coming giant.

The basis of fact on which it is laid is indisputable. For a distance of three hundred miles along the bays, sounds and shores of Behring sea, and extending for miles inland, all the sand and soil of the land contains gold in quantities as great as there was found in the richest claims in the gulches of California and Klondike. So rich have the sands of these shores been found that after the freezing of the streams on land this fall ships were chartered and loaded with the sand to be carried south to be washed and made to yield up its gold in a warmer climate.—Mines and Minerals.

IRISHMEN AND THE BOERS.

A Springfield, Missouri, dispatch reports that the Springfield division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which was solicited by the national president to contribute to the fund for the relief of the Boers, decided, by an almost unanimous vote, not to comply with the request.

If the fund is honestly employed for the relief of wounded Boer soldiers and widows and orphans, its collection is not only proper, but highly meritorious. But if it is intended to increase the fighting capacities of the Boer armies, as seems probable, the action of the Springfield division is deserving of commendation.

It is apparent that the Springfield Irishmen have been doing some close thinking on this subject. They realize that the present war is an inevitable struggle for the supremacy of South Africa. And they know there are a hundred opportunities for Irishmen in an English-speaking country where one can be found in a Dutch-speaking community. The Irish people have therefore a direct interest in the pending struggle.

Three hundred years ago it was a question whether America would be dominated by the English, the Dutch, the French or the Spaniards. Suppose the Dutch had triumphed—had retained New York, and spread in overwhelming forces over the English-speaking colonies. How many Irishmen would be in this country?

History is repeating itself in South Africa. If the Boers triumph, and the Afrikanderbund achieve their slogan, "Afrika for the Afrikanders," it is little that will benefit the Irish people anywhere.

The truth is Kruger and the Boers have no more use for the Irishman than for an Englishman. Less, if there is any discrimination, because the Transvaal constitution expressly prohibits any Roman Catholic holding public office.

Ever the hope of the Irish emigrant turns toward the English-speaking colonies of the world. England has been cruel to the Irish people, but England's daughters everywhere extend them a warm welcome.—Spokesman-Review.

A little girl, who was trying to tell a friend how absent-minded her grandpa was, said:—

"He walks about, thinking about nothing, and, when he remembers it, he then forgets that what he thought of was something entirely different from what he wanted to remember."

The Boers desecrated the Roman Catholic Convent Church at Newcastle, Natal, in an indescribable manner.

O'Donovan Rossa, who was once upon a time pulled from beneath a bed, where fear caused him to hide, says he is ashamed of the Irish of the United States because they do not invade Canada. The better class of the Irish have long been ashamed of Rossa and his kindred blatherskites.

THE FOOT-PATH TO PEACE:

"To be glad of life, because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play and to look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your possessions, but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can, with body and with spirit, in God's out-of-doors—these are little guide-posts on the foot-path to peace."—Henry VanDyke.

He—"I am rather more in favor of the English than the American mode of spelling."

She—"Yes?"

He—"Yes, indeed. Take 'parlour,' for instance; having 'u' in it makes all the difference in the world."

"Johnny, did you take your cough medicine regularly in school, as I told you?"

"No'm; Tommy Budds liked it, an' he gimme an apple for it."

Fresh Prisoner—"Good morning, yer worship; fine day, isn't it?"

Judge—"Yes; yours is 40s., or a month."

Contest Notice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
United States Land Office,
The Dalles, Oregon, Dec. 18, 1899.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Jonathan Toot, contestant, against homestead entry No. 6441, made Feb. 7, 1898, for N ½ N W ¼ of Section 30, and W ½ S W ¼ of Section 19, Township 4 S, Range 18 E, by Pearl D. McCune, contestee, in which it is alleged that: said Pearl D. McCune has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence therefrom for more than six months since making said entry; that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated as required by law. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on Feb. 3, 1900, before Wm. Henrichs, county clerk, at his office at Moro, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on Feb. 17, 1900, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed Dec. 11, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence, personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

"Is God's Good Blessing"

"I feel that God has blessed Dr. Acker with special knowledge to prepare that grand medicine called Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. It saves children every time when they are attacked by croup. Every mother should know about it, and I will tell about my experience. I had a darling boy of four years to die with croup. My doctor did all he could, but the child could not be made to vomit. That was before I knew of Acker's English Remedy. After I did hear of it, I got a bottle. When our little eighteen-months-old girl was stricken with croup, I gave her this medicine, and inside of twenty minutes she vomited and was better right away. During the winter she had croup four times, and it brought her through each time all right. I, myself, had bronchitis pretty bad, and Acker's English Remedy cured me completely. Before I close, I want to tell you of my neighbor's boy, named Jobe Nana. He had bronchitis, too. He got worse all the time. My husband went over to his house and told him about my case. Then his mother went to town, got a 50-cent bottle of Acker's English Remedy, and he took it. He came over to our house a few days later and said he was all right, and also said two doses relieved him from the start. You can understand by my letter why I think so much of Acker's English Remedy. I repeat that God's blessing must surely have been bestowed upon Dr. Acker."

THE WEAR AND TEAR OF MEN'S NERVES

Results in debility—exhaustion, not only exhaustion of the body, but exhaustion of the mental faculties as well.

The nerve cells of the body have been robbed of their vital forces. The nerves have no life in them; therefore all the organs of the body suffer from lack of nerve control, and the blood vessels that supply these organs are not in proper tone. "HUDYAN corrects the evil. HUDYAN provides this vitality or nerve force that is wanting." Are you approaching this condition of Nervous Debility? Are you growing prematurely old? Do you suffer with headaches (Fig. 1); hollow eyes or dark rings under eyes (Fig. 2); pale, thin face and sunken cheeks (Fig. 3); weakness of limbs (Fig. 4); a poor appetite and impaired indigestion (Fig. 5); torpid liver (Fig. 6), and costiveness, a coated tongue (Fig. 7)? Or have you dizzy spells? Do you suffer sleepless nights? Do you have horrid dreams? Do you awake in the morning hollow-eyed and tired out? Are you despondent, melancholy? Do you shun society? Are your knees shaky? Have you pain in the small of the back?

These symptoms all tell you that your nerves are failing you; that you will grow old long before your time. HUDYAN will save you; HUDYAN will make a robust, strong, manly man of you. HUDYAN revives, restores, rejuvenates. Go to your druggist at once and get HUDYAN. No other remedy; just HUDYAN, for HUDYAN is what you need.

Other symptoms of this terrible affliction that visits so many men are cold hands and feet, palpitation of the heart, hot flashes, clouded memory, nausea after eating, twitching of muscles, spots before the eyes, shooting pains, weariness, tremblings, sediment in urine, bleary eyes, swimming in ears, a shaky, all-gone feeling.

Remember HUDYAN. Be a vigorous, robust man, a man with nerves of steel, a man with muscles of iron.

HUDYAN is wonderful. HUDYAN is acknowledged by our leading medical men to be the greatest nerve and tissue builder known to medical science. HUDYAN will lift you from that life of despondency and discouragement that you are now in, and will make of you a happy man. Try HUDYAN, you will soon be convinced. HUDYAN Cures Women's Nerves. Thousands of women use Hudyan.

GET HUDYAN from your druggist, 50c a package, six packages $2.50. If your druggist does not keep it, send direct to
