Locals

J. C. McKean and Omar Sayrs made a trip to Pendleton last Thursday.

A number of people from here attended the show, "Cimmeron" in The Dalles this week.

Walter A. May was in Portland the first of the week attending to business in the metropolis.

One of the graduating class of the Oregon Normal School last Tuesday was Percie E. Benson of Moro.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold their social for April at the home of Mrs. Tom Alley, Thursday afternoon, April 2.

Jess Landry loaded his tractor on a truck last Thursday morning and took it to Gilliam county where he will do some plowing. Jody Morrison will have charge of it there.

Judge Whaley, father of Mrs. Margaret Peetz and Mrs. Helen Sayrs, spent the week-end here with his daughters. As Sunday was Mrs. Sayrs' birthday, the family celebrated with a dinner at Mrs. Peetz's home.

W. B. Johnston and wife, of Salem, are visitors here this week. They will divide their time in Eastern Oregon between the home of their son Theodore near Moro and Perry who lives near Condon.

Last week some of the ambitious boys who have offices in the basement of the hotel received some trees from J. B. Adams and planted them in the parking strip in front of their offices. The trees are Chinese Elm.

Mrs. Mabel Lemon, widow of the late I. N. Lemon is spending a month as the guest of her brother Richard O'Brien in Hollywood, California. After leaving California she will visit a sister in Minnesota, returning to her home in Corvallis, Oregon about June 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wright celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary last Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. B. Belshee. The families of Howard and Charles Belshee were present as both Mrs. Belshees are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Floyd Flatt has leased the ranch east of town owned by the Dillinger estate and formerly farmed by George Rebman, and has moved his personal belongings there. The dray business will be conducted by Vernon Flatt. George Rebman has moved to Yakima, Washington.

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held on the evening of Tuesday March 31st. Officers will be elected, reports made and plans for the coming year will be discussed. A "Pot Luck" supper, in the church basement, will precede the meeting. It is planned to start eating at 6:30 o'clock sharp. All members are urged to be present and friends of the church will be heartily welcomed.

Sherman county people will be interested to hear that Mrs. L. J. Murdock (Florence Tate) appeared as soloist with the Corvallis Womens Club Choral, Mrs. James Lester Gault, director, in recital at the M. E. Church, Corvallis, Oregon. Mrs. Murdock's beautiful high soprano voice was heard to advantage in Harkers "How Beautiful upon the Mountains." She is the daughter of E. A. Tate of Wasco, Oregon and a pupil of Prof. Paul Petrie of the Music Department of Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon.

Robert Morison, brother of William Morison of this city, died in Long Beach, California, last Sunday morning of pneumonia. Mr. Morison has been ill for several weeks and a sister, Mrs. Hales, drove to California to be with him. The deceased was once a resident of this county having once owned part of the place now belonging to O. L. Belshee in Hay Canyon. He is survived by his wife; William Morison of Moro; Mrs. Grace Hales of Pendleton; Gibson Morison of Adams; and Dick Morison of Weston. He had no children.

Chirs Taylor arrived in town Thursday from his ranch down on the John Day river where he has been working for the past two months without seeing the bright lights of the city.

Students from the University of Oregon and the Oregon State College are spending their spring vacation at home this week. Among them are Keek McKean, Velma Powell, Gwendolien and Dorothy Foss, and Vernon Miller from the University and Lamar Sayrs, Ione Miller and Emma Jean Stephens from the College.

The Moro Commercial Club has invited the members of the State Tax Commission to speak here some time in the near future and has also asked our representatives E. W. Snell and J. P. Yates to speak at another meeting to be held soon. On these dates the members of the Commercial Clubs of Grass Valley, Kent, and Wasco will be invited to attend and hear these speakers. Dates will be announced later.

Churches

Methodist Church Notes.
(Moro)

Church school every Sunday morning at 10.

Preaching Sunday morning at 11. The sermon will be appropriate for Palm Sunday. The theme is, "The Coming of the Kind."

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society meets every Thursday afternoon at the church at 2.

The increasing interest in the Church school is very gratifying. Last Sunday was a great day for our school. There was quite an increase in attendance.

The program for Easter is well in hand, and we are looking for a happy Eastertide. As Easter approaches we all are impressed with the life that is springing forth all about us. Easter means life. The resurrection of Jesus was a demonstration of the immortality of the soul. Immortality makes living a serious business. Humor and myth are needful, but having a sense of humor even in the hardest experiences is quite different from treating life itself as if it were a trival matter.

The church with a cordial welcome.

F. A. Ginn, Pastor.

The Full Gospel Assembly

The evangelistic meetings continue each night in the week except Monday, at 7:45.

Miss Louise Hodge, the evangelist, announces for the subject on Friday night, "The One Pearl of Great Price." Saturday night subject will be, "The Stranger;" and on Sunday evening it will be, "Love Found a Way." The Sunday morning service will be conducted by the Pastors.

Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by preaching at 11 o'clock.

J. D. and Mrs. Miller, Pastors.

Methodist Church Notes
(Grass Valley)

Church school every Sunday morning at 10.

Preaching April 5th at 11. The subject will be: "The Power of the Resurrection."

The Ladies Aid Society had a very pleasant meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Garret. The next meeting will be held on Thursday April 2d, when Mrs. Fields will be hostess to the society.

Our church school was most wonderful last Sunday morning. The attendance was a splendid increase and the church service was a very happy occasion. The spirit of the whole service was one of fine fellowship.

The Easter program is being prepared with singing by the school and also special choir. We are looking for an excellent Easter service to which everyone is invited.

There is a fine competition in our trip to the Sea of Galilee. The Beginners class is ahead this week, but the Jolly Juniors, and the Young Peoples Class are working hard and things may change at any time.

"THE PENALTY"
"He might have dwelt on the hill top
Put chose the valley below,
And planned that some day later
The heights his heart should know.
But when, as life's shadows lengthened,
His feet sought the mountain sod,
He found that the valley's brush heaps
Had hidden the paths to God."

The church with a cordial welcome.

F. A. Ginn, Pastor.

Baptist Church
(Grass Valley)

Sunday school every Sunday at 10 a. m.

Christian Science

Church service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Lesson service topic for the service Sunday morning will be "Reality."

Golden Text, Isaiah 61:11. As earth bringeth forth her bud, and the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Responsive reading: Psalm 111:1-10.

Reading room open daily where all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and to visit the reading room.

Presbyterian Church.

J. C. Penney says, "All I am today I owe to my religious training as a boy. Of course much of this came from my parents, but a good deal of it came through the Sunday school which I attended."

Sunday school at 10 a. m. as usual.

The Leedy grange hall at Cedar Mills was dedicated by State Master C. C. Hulet with several other officers of the Oregon state grange assisting in the ceremony. The new building was built almost entirely by the volunteer labor of the members and their friends.

Oregon onion growers, headed by V. C. Bishop of Lake Labish, Marion county, propose to form an organization within the next few weeks with a view to safeguarding the market. Bishop declared that more than 100 cars of onions remain unsold in the Lake Labish district.
