Locals

L. Barnum and wife were visitors here last Sunday from The Dalles.

W. T. Balsinger, manager of the local grain growers, was in Moro last Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Riddel was visiting in Suuyside, Wash, for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were in Toppish, Washington last Sunday where they spent Easter with Mrs. Tucker's parents.

Miss Viola Hansen left on Saturday's stage for Bend where she visited an aunt over the week end returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kirby and Miss Violet Kirby of The Dalles, spent Sunday with the Lynn Bowersox family.

J. R. Kaseberg of Portland, and a former resident of Sherman Co. spent a few days here the first of the week.

Frank Fortner was one of those who had some trouble getting to Portland and back home again last week, but he returned Tuesday.

A. M. Young and C. M. Mers-inger have been elected as delegates from Moro Odd Fellows lodge, to the Grand Lodge which meets at Corvallis May 19-20-21.

F. E. Fagan and family arrived in Moro to spend the week end at the home of Mrs. Fagan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M.
Young, returning to McMinnville Sunday. Mrs. D. A. Van-Gilder accompanied them on their return trip.

Carrol Akers, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Akers, with his family visited here over the Easter holiday with his parents.
Lloyd Hennigan and family, of Wasco, spent Sunday at the Akers home also making sort of a family reunion for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fike were visiting in Moro from Hood River last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. L. Ireland, aunt of Mr. Anderson. Mrs.
Fike and Mrs. Anderson are sisters.

Jeff Wilson of The Dalles, was making good time on the road near the Harmony school house last Sunday until he tipped over and rolled his car into the field on the Bert Davis land.
Max Belshe and Wilson were the occupants of the car but both escaped injury.

Harry Blough and wife visited with Mrs. Blough's brothers Lester and Howard Conlee here over the Easter holiday. Mr. Blough has been principal of the Peninsula school in Portland for the past seventeen years and was at one time a teacher in both the Moro and Grass Valley schools.

Hay Canyon has been a baseball playing community for many years as teams from there have played all over the county and recent developments have shown that the old spirit is as strong as ever. Harlandview Grange will have a team and a team composed of farmer boys under eighteen years old has been formed. They will start their season next Sunday when a double header will be played beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The so called hungry team from Starvation Point will play the well fed Harlandview team and the Juniors will cross bats with the boys from Moro.
Six innings will be played.

Churchiness

Methodist Church Notes.
(Moro)

Church school every Sunday morning at 10.
Preaching next Sunday morning at 11.

The Ladies Aid Society meets at the church every Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The theme of the Sunday morning sermon is, "Easter December."

Our church attended the Easter program at the Presbyterian church returning and holding our own school an hour later than usual. Our Easter program rendered Sunday evening was excellent. All the different numbers were well interpreted, possibly reaching a climax in the pageant given by Kings Herald and the pantomime by Mildred Adams and Mildred Alley. One feature of the entire program that was especially praiseworthy was the emphasis given to the Easter message; Eternal Life Through Jesus our Resurrected Lord."

The church with a cordial welcome.
F. A. Ginn, Pastor.

Methodist Church Notes
(Grass Valley)

Church school every Sunday
morning at 10.

Hreaching April 19 at 11.

The Ladies Aid Society meets with Mrs. Arzell Lemley on Thursday April 16, at 2 p. m.

There was a splendid attendance at the Easter service. The children and young people all did nicely in the rendition of the program. The church was quite prettily decorated, and the services were very pleasant and helpful.

We are expecting an unusually good time at Sunday school next Sunday. The trip to the Sea of Galilee is getting quite interesting. Last week the Beginners were ahead, this week the Young People's class, but the Jolly Juniors have a fine prospect, and we think they will probably be the first to arrive at Galilee. The boats are keeping quite close together. The Bible class is rear guard, but the attendance last Sunday was lovely. Let's keep it up.

The church with a cordial welcome.
F. A. Ginn, Pastor.

Kent News

The Auxiliary ladies sold five hundred daffodils last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lyons and family were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stout and son of Shaniko were visitors in Kent Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Davis and daughter, Pauline, Mrs. Rita Harpe, and Hester Lyons were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson Sunday.

Mr. Dick Stakely, who has been in the hospital in The Dalles, returned home last Friday, and is reported as recovering rapidly.

Mrs. Rita Harpe, Miss Loraine Darby and Mr. J. Rudolph were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wily Knighten last Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Daniel of Sandpoint, Idaho, were here last week for a brief visit with Dr.
Daniel's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Daniel.

A number of people from Kent were visitors in The Dalles last Saturday, including Mr. and Del-ling, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mrs. W. C. Helyer and son Durward, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Helyer and daughter, Norma Jean and Mrs. Rita Harpe.

The ladies of the Auxiliary are giving a public benefit card party, Saturday evening, April 11, in Kent Legion hall. The proceeds will be used in helping the Camp Fire Girls, finance their camping trip this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson of Portland spent the week-end at the J. H. Wilson home. Mr and Mrs. Wilson, nee Helen McCoy, were married in Portland last January 9, but had kept the news a secret until recently.

Easter Sunday proved a gala day for Kent Sunday School.
There were one hundred twenty five present with a collection amounting to $16.45, which will be used for Missionary purposes.
Two hundred and twelve Bible chapters had been read. The attendance in the Young People's Class was won by Marjory Mac-Innes's side. After the Sunday School hour a long and interesting program was given. Following the program Joe Wilson took four pictures of those who were present at Sunday School.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Crocker was the scene of a most enjoyable social event last Sunday. The occasion being a joint birthday dinner-party for the little children who are relatives of the hostess. A color scheme of yellow and white was used in the dining room, while favors consisted of Easter baskets.

The guest list was as follows:
The Charley and Joseph Yeackel families Earl and Mrs. Fred Yeackel, Mrs. Mark Kayser and children, all from Centerville, Wash.; the Davenport family of Yakima Wash.; Mrs. Ernie Feathers of Arlington; the Herman Peters and Ben Allen families of this vicinity and the Seginhagan family of Maupin.

NOTICE

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Ants grown from seed raised at the Herald & Fitchner greenhouses in McMinnville won first award at the Canadian National exhibition of flowers last fall, according to word just received by Mrs. Daisy Fitchner.

Sawmills in Lane county are operating about 35 per cent of normal production at this time, according to H.

J. Cox, secretary of the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's association. This is a slight increase over January 1.

The first automobile of the season reached the rim of Crater Lake April 1st. This is the earliest that any automobile ever reached the rim and was made possible by the forest service crew keeping the snow plowed out as it fell this spring.

With the announced purpose of keeping the price of gasoline within the reach of farmers, who use quantities of it, the Umatilla Oil company was being formed by prominent farmers. The company will consist of 300 stockholders with a capitalization of $25,000.

The state highway department received from the federal government a deed to approximately 290 acres of land, located on Humbug mountain, in Curry county. The land is on the route of the Oregon coast highway and will be used for park and recreational purposes.

The heifer Jersey calf with a perfect cougar head which was born recently at the Grant Plak farm is thriving. Last June a cougar was seen to attack the cow, grazing in the Plak pasture, and it is believed that the fright caused thereby resulted in the deformity in the calf.

What is left of the town of Cen-trallo, better known as Deschutes, has been sold by Deschutes county for $475 and costs of advertising—$244.
Kotzman Bros. ranch in the Grange Hall district, part of the old Central Oregon Irrigation district office for $225 and W. B. Harrie and B. V.
Churchman of Bend bought the Deschutes hotel building for $250.

Secretary of State Hoos has apportioned $58,778.40 in motor vehicle fees among the 35 counties of the state.
The apportionment was based on the amounts which each county had contributed and represents one-third of the net receipts from motor vehicle registrations for the past three months and one-fourth of the net receipts under the motor transport act for the same period.

Yamhill county had improvement association won double honors among the 13 associations of the state reporting to R. W. Morse, extension dairyman in charge of the testing work at Corvallis. The Yamhill group mark for the month was an average of 31.94 pounds of butterfat each for the 579 cows. High herd average also was won. Spring Lako farm with 25 cows turned in an average production of 45.56 pounds of fat a cow.

the Pacific northwest.

The next meeting of the Commercial Club will be held Friday evening April 17th when members of the state tax commission will be present to tell of the effect the new tax laws will have on the state levy against real property. Like the former meeting this one will be open to citizens of the county who are interested in the matters to be discussed.

The Kilowatt Kiddies

Bring
CLEAN QUICK COOKING

THE KILOWATT KIDDIES are symbols of service . . .
ELECTRIC Service that converts thousands of tasks into self-doing services. Invaluable as they are, countless Kilowatt Kiddies spring to your service the instant you summons them. Command Charlie and Clara at any time—the cost is little . . . their service limitless.

BE MILES away—at the bridge party, the Club Meeting, . . . confident that the Kilowatt Kiddies will attend the cooking in your absence. Charlie and Clara Kilowatt are real economists, too . . . The ELECTRIC Range they symbolize actually saves food by reducing cooking shrinkage. Your meals just about "cook themselves" though the time and temperature controls the Kilowatt Kiddies can be depended upon to watch—whether you are there or not!

ELECTRIC Cooking is as modern as the 'morrow . . . as convenient a change over other methods as the ordinary stove was over the cave-man's fire . . . as economical as only Electric Service can be through special low rates for cooking provided by the Pacific Power & Light Co.

If You Could See Your "Future" On The Screen!

WOULD you pay admission to see a film that would reveal the years ahead? Of course you would—chances are you would be a "first-nighter" too.

Your future in life is veiled—but there are certain general rules that each one of us must follow if we would court success.

Getting the most out of your money is one big rule for future progress. For many of our neighbors' accounts here are the corner-stone on which they are building.

You, too, can benefit from our sound, helpful service.
