CARD OF THANKS

Within the week we have learned that the kindness of friends, the touch of their hand, the sound of their voice, their expressions of sympathy are most comforting in bereavement. We thank those who were so kind and considerate to us during the trying days when death visited our home.

Sincerely,
Giles and Lela French and Children.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends who so quickly responded to our call for help on the night of the fire which destroyed our buildings last week, and to those who assisted us afterwards. Especially we wish to thank the telephone central who responded almost instantly to our call.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hennagin and family.

Card of Thanks

We take this means of expressing our thanks and appreciation of the helpful sympathy extended to us on the loss of our infant son, Jackie Lou.

"Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be made known unto God. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."—hil. 4:6-7.

Usual services on Sunday. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 and 7:45 p. m. Bible study on Thursday at 7:45 p. m. at the home of R. J. Ginn, J. D. and Mrs. Miller, Pastors.

Presbyterian Church

May 3, 1931.

Senator Royal S. Copeland, of New York says: "There never was a time in the history of American civilization when the work of the Sunday school was more necessary than at this moment. I shall never forget the good I received from the Sunday school. For twenty five years I was a Sunday school teacher. I know I received a blessing myself from contact with young Christians. In this age when law observance is one of our chief problems, the teaching and preaching in the church is a matter of vital importance. If I had my way, I should have every child in America come under the influence of the Sunday school and similar institutions."

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. Church services at 11:00 a. m. There will be special music by the quartet.

Methodist Church
