Churches

Methodist Church
Moro

Church school every Sunday morning at 10.

Preaching next Sunday morning at 11.
Next Sunday, May 10, is the day set apart by the churches, also by a formal act of congress, as Mothers' Day. There is a beautiful custom of wearing a flower in honor of mother, a pink or bright colored flower if your mother is living and a white one if she has passed away.

The theme of the sermon is:
"Home and Mother." There will be special music for the occasion, also duet, and the old songs our mothers sang. Come and help sing the old songs. We cordially invite everyone to join us in our observance of the day.

Next Sunday evening Rev. C.
I. Andrews of Portland, State worker in the interest of religious education will speak at the church at 7:30. One half hour will be given to a sing-song of old hymns. The singing of the evening will be a continuation of the spirit of the morning service.
Rev. Andrews is an entertaining speaker. We invite everyone to help us make the evening service a fitting climax to the observance of Mother's Day.

The church with a cordial welcome.
F. A. Ginn, Pastor.

"God anointed Jesus of Nazereth with the Holy Ghost and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with Him. To Him give all the prophets witness, that through His name whoever believeth in Him shall receive remission of sins."—Acts 10:38 and 42.

Usual meetings on Sunday.

home of R. J. Ginn, to which a cordial invitation is given.

Pastors.

Presbyterian Church

Louis J. Taber, Master of the National Grange, says: "Aside from the Christian church, there is no agency in America so potent for national stability and welfare as the Sunday school.
It should be stimulated and supported on every hand. The Sunday school is of equal value in city or country, but the rural community without a Sunday school is a little like a home without a mother. And just as the flag awakens patriotism, so the Sunday school can touch the best of our boys and girls and lead them to more useful lives."
May 20th, Mothers Day, Sunday school at 10 a. m. Tom Frazier will sing a solo suitable to the day.

Methodist Church
Grass Valley

Church school every Sunday
morning at 10.

The Rev. Mr. C. I. Andrews of Portland, our state secretary of Religious Education, will preach next Sunday morning at 11. The theme of Mr. Andrews' sermon is: "Mother"

There was a fine interest manifest at the church school last Sunday. Several persons who had been absent for a Sunday or two returned. Everyone was very sorry that Ruby Fairchild, one of our most faithful and earnest pupils, was sick. We all hope and pray that she may soon recover and be with us again.
Billy Todd repeated the names of all the books of the Bible, both Old and New Testament. Bobt.
Eaton did nearly as well.

At the close of the church service there will be a basket dinner at the church. Bring your basket with sufficient for your family, and everyone will have plenty. During the dinner hour Rev. Mr. Andrews will come.

F. A. Ginn, Pastor.
