Locals

W. D. Wallan is auditing the clerk's books at the court house this week.

D. E. Stephens made a trip to Portland Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Carroll Akers, of Albany, will be here over the week end to visit with his mother.

Arthur Christiansen moved his family to their new home in Arlington last Saturday.

Mrs. John Huntley has been spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Collis Moore.

T. C. Reece and family were in Salem last week for a few days returning to Moro Thursday.

L. L. Peetz and family attend the funeral of Mrs. Lulu Crandall in The Dalles last Wednesday.

Clarence Morrison and L. V. Moore drove to Portland Sunday morning with a truck load of hogs.

Dr. J. R. Morgan and wife are in Portland where the doctor is attending the convention of the dentists.

Edward Cummings, a nephew of R. H. Coppock, visited here Tuesday evening with the Coppock family.

W. T. Balsiger was in Pendleton last Friday to attend a meeting of the local managers of the Grain Growers.

Many users of gasoline filled up their tanks before the price raised last week. Buyers cleaned out the local station.

George A. Mitchell and wife were here Monday and Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Elliott's child.

Reverend F. A. Ginn left Monday morning for Eugene where he will attend the Oregon conference of Methodist ministers.

Norval May, football coach of Springfield High School, is here this week visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Ellsworth.

Mrs. L. W. Rakes and Victor Hays drove to Goldendale Wednesday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Fritts, Mrs. Rakes' parents.

James Stewart has been appointed stock inspector for Sherman county by the head of the agriculture department of the state.

C. L. Pepper, attorney of The Dalles, was here Tuesday afternoon on business, accompanied by his daughter, Ruth, who formerly taught here.

The county officials rooms in the court house have been kalsomined by Jack Noonan this week and present a brighter appearance to the visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farnsworth, cousins of Mrs. G. C. Akers, who attended Mr. Akers funeral here last week left Sunday for their home in Portland.

Mrs. Ruth Holloway left for her home in California Friday after attending the funeral of her father, G. C. Akers, and spending a few days with her mother.

Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Morse drove up from The Dalles last Sunday for a few hours visit with Mrs. Morse mother, Mrs. L. V. Moore and her sister, Mrs. Clarence Morrison.

D. E. Stephens and M. M. Overson, of the local experiment station, were in Pendleton last week to attend the field day of Umatilla Station where Mr. Stephens was one of the speakers.

Let us call attention to the advertisement of the Moro State Bank this week. It expresses a free and independent spirit that is not to be defeated by anything less serious than sudden death.

Rev. John Seethoff and wife were here Tuesday on their way to the Methodist conference in Eugene. Mr. Seethoff has been in Lind, Wash. for the past two years but expects to come back to Oregon next year.

Robert Urquhart was here Wednesday from Ephrata, Wash. where he is spending the summer with his daughter. While here he rented his house to Geo. Vintin, the new county clerk, who will move his family here soon.

C. R. Belshee and Mrs. Belshee were in Portland the first of the week to sell a car of stock. The city has a crew digging up and inspecting water meters where ever they are found to be inefficient.

Bruce Kee was in town Thursday morning from his ranch near Biggs. Harvest will begin soon in that end of the county.

Mrs. N. W. Thompson is back in the store again after a week spent at Camp Sherman with her daughter Mrs. A. Busch of Hillsboro.

The county has been on its exceptionally good behavior for the past week with very little happening out of the usual routine of June cultivation of summer-fallow made more necessary by the heavy rains. Hay is being cut again and what was cut before the rains is going into the barns after several turnings to allow it to dry whenever the sun peeked from behind the clouds.

Miss Nina McCord, a former teacher here, visited friends in Moro Sunday.

and the Lodge has suffered the loss of a good Odd Fellow and the community, a valued and honorable citizen, a loving and devoted husband and father. Therefore be it resolved, that the Chapter of this Lodge be draped for a period of thirty days in honor of his memory, and a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Lodge, a copy mailed to the bereaved family and the local press for publication.

Published in the Interest of the People of Grass Valley and Vicinity by The TUM-A-LUM LUMBER COMPANY

Vol. 31 GRASS VALLEY, OREGON, JUNE 26, 1931 No. 23

EDITORIAL.

Mr. Haggerty of Kent has just ordered a truck load of heavy timbers Tum-A-Lum Co was the lucky bidder.

See where a man murdered his wife because she was too extravagant. I think this is going altogether too far. Not for a minute could such a policy be endorsed or approved, but there is no objection to every married man reading this aloud to his wife.

Porch and Deck Paint at $1.00 per qudrt.

Warm weather is ideal time for painting and it looks as if we might have some good painting weather. Tum-A-Lum paint covers a lot of surface with a coat that will last for a long time. We offer this week at $1.00 per quart.

Obey that impulse—Repair, Re-paint, Remodel.

Sale, on rough lumber. At Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co, for week beginning June 22—if you need to do some repairing at this time take advantage of the low price while they last.

Through advertising we know all about Athlete's Foot, but perhaps you will be interested to know that "Bridge Shin" is a new disease which affects husbands who forget what is trump.

The new grain corporation is doing a new roofing job on their warehouse roofs at Bourbon, Grass Valley, and Kent. Mr. H. Peters handling the work.

Make it yourself—cupboards, shelving in the closet, stools, flower boxes, and many things around the house can be made with Tum-A-Lum-ber and our helpful plans.

THE KILOWATT KIDDIES
MOST SILENT OF SERVANTS

THE KILOWATT KIDDIES are as silent as they are superbly efficient. Invisible as they are, the tasks they perform through your Electric Service are limitless and satisfying. NO ONE disputes the adage "Silence is Golden." The quiet magic of Electricity brings your servants as silent as they are unseen—the Kilowatt Kiddies.

In every room of every house they are perfectly at home—and welcome. They can pick their invisible way at the most gigantic industrial job—yet they never clamor for anything, not even attention on your part!

The comforts Charley and Clara Kilowatt brings are as numerous as their services are silent. Employ these servants to the fullest possible extent—they make a house A HOME.
