W. F. Jackson was in Portland the first of the week on business.

I. E. Wilson was in Portland Monday on a short business trip.
Mrs. C. W. Templeton is in Portland this week on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Harold Bryant and Bob Barker spent Sunday at the home of Harold's mother, Mrs. W. C.
Bryant.

Mrs. Jean Stamey and children were here the last of the week visiting with her sister, Mrs. A.
S. Johnson.

The Dorcas society held their this week's meeting at the Geo.
Hennagin ranch as guests of Mrs. Hennagin.

Mrs. A. S. Johnson is in Hood River this week to care for Mrs.
Granville Phillips, her mother in law, who is ill at her home there.

George Updegraff attended the meeting of the abstractors of the state in Portland last Friday, returning to Moro Saturday morning.

Miss Lois Bryant left last Thursday for Portland, where, with Miss Doris Fortner, she will attend the summer camp of the Campfire Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Balzer of Grass Valley, were in Moro Thursday having some dental work done while the section crew is taking a lay off.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Douglas of Wenatchee, Wash., are here visiting with Mrs. Douglas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Vin-tin. Mr. Douglas is an apple grower.

C. S. Knowles, Superintendent in charge of Construction for the Pacific Power & Light Co., was in town Tuesday looking over the work being done here by the company.

BORN: To Mr. and Mrs. Hormer Beale, Saturday, July 24th at The Dalles Hospital an eight and a half pound son. All concerned doing very well.

This is the time of year the smoke rolls in from the timber fires and the sun is red at midday. First smoke of any consequence was noticeable Thursday.

R. H. Coppock and family drove to Camp Sherman last Saturday evening for a week end trip. Mrs. Coppock and children remained there for a few days R. H. returning Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Bessie Holman and family and her stepfather, Dave Maxwell, were in town Saturday attending to business relating to Mrs. J. A. Maxwell's estate of which Mrs. Holman is administratrix.

In honor of Mrs. J. C. Freeman's birthday last Sunday, the Brishane and McKean families lured her and Mr. Freeman to the park where the three families spent the afternoon in proper holiday manner.

Mrs. E. W. Hastings enjoyed a visit over last week-end with her sister and family, Mrs. A. R.
Wagoner and husband and two sons, Donald and Richard, who were on the way to their home in Long Beach, California. They arrived here Thursday afternoon and left Monday morning.

On July 28th a family reunion was held in Gresham in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barzee, who have been married for 59 years.
They are pioneers of Sherman county and have many friends and relatives here. Art Barzee and Mrs. Everett McQuillen are children of the aged couple.

Four railroad men from the general office were in Moro last Tuesday morning on a tour of their lines in a motor car. They were W. H. Guild, Superintendent of the Oregon Division, J.
H. Cunningham, District Freight and Passenger Agent, O. I. Paulson, Ass't Supervisor of Agriculture, and E. A. Klippel, Jr., Ass't Passenger Agent.

Miss Jane Irvin, of Camila Court House, West Virginia, is visiting with the Coppock family at Camp Sherman. She says that her part of West Virginia was in the drouth area last year and that little was raised in the way of crops. This year they have wheat that is producing from 30 to 60 bushels per acre although it is not worth much.

Presbyterian Church.

11 a. m. Rev. John Phipps of Green River, Utah, will preach.
There will be special music.

Christian Science
Golden Text: Zephaniah 3:17.
The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.
Responsive Reading: Romans 8:28 32, 35, 37 39.

Church services every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

tend the church services and make use of the reading room which is open daily, where all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

The Full Gospel Assembly
"Moses chose rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt."—Heb. 11: 24 26.

Most thoughtful people agree that our country needs a great turning to God in real repentance, and to seek after righteousness.
But to crystallize that sentiment into action is another matter for the individual. The willingness for the other fellow to do it is widespread. O! that people who have the light would "choose" as did Moses!
Usual Sunday meetings:
Sunday school 10 a. m.
Preaching 11 a. m., and 8 p. m.

land, will be the principal speaker on the night of August 7th as a guest of the 40 & 8. Bert Bates, known to all Legionnaires as a writer of a humorous column in the Oregon Legionnaire, will be in Corvallis from Hollywood, Calif., and will add to the general jollification.

C. M. Bentley, examiner of aplicants for drivers and chauffeurs licenses, was at the court house last Monday afternoon and gave a few examinations. Some passed, but most of them didn't.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County in the Matter of the Estate of Jane A.
Maxwell, Deceased.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed Executrix of the Estate of Jane A. Maxwell, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby notified to present the same to the undersigned Executrix, with the proper vouchers, at the office of F. L. Phipps, Citizens Bank Building, The Dalles, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice.

Date of first publication, July 31, 1931

OREGON NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST
Medford citizens voted four to one against the issuance of $225,000 in bonds for construction of a sewage disposal plant and trunk line sewer.
The Country Club Park addition an-nexion was also defeated.
Bondholders of the Medford and Talent irrigation districts have been notified that interest due on bonds July 1 cannot be met, pointing out that the burden of interest and amortization of bonds is above the earning capacity of the average land in the two districts.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

Since elimination of bounty on seasons the herd at Port Orford has increased appreciably.

The first load of wheat threshed in the Albany territory was marketed there for 40 cents a bushel by Elmer Miller.

Ontario's dog policeman continued his work this week with diminishing results, due perhaps to the vigilance of local dog owners.

William Hall, Durkee merchant and postmaster, was robbed of $2560 by a masked bandit as he prepared to put the money in his safe.

Within the next few weeks the pear harvest will begin in the Rogue River section. Indications are that the crop will be a normal one.

The sale of the Chieftain gold mine, on south Myrtle creek, 35 miles southeast of Roseburg, to E. E. Ward, formerly of Spokane, is announced.

The wheat crop on the ranch of Bob Goad, deputy sheriff of Umatilla county, was destroyed by fire. It is believed a firecracker started the blaze.

Construction work on the new $265, 000 Jackson county courthouse at Medford will begin so as to provide work for local labor during the winter.

The Clatsop county fair board has concluded to hold no county fair this year, but will put on a big show next year. The fair last year had a deficit that wiped out its surplus.

Lucile Driecoll, whose home is in Heppner, but who has been studying nursing in Pendleton, is in a critical condition as a result of tetanus caused from a frog-sucker burn.

As a measure in carrying out its county tax reduction program, the Wheeler county court at its July session voted to consolidate its 15 voting precincts into five districts.

A cinnamon bear killed with a shot from a small-calibre rifle has been brought into Glendale by Ted Dyer.
The bear weighed nearly 300 pounds and stretched to a height of over six feet.

Caught in a premature dynamite blast while clearing land, Robert L.
Davis, 30, employe of the Linden Logging company of Canby, suffered a badly burned face and fractured left arm.

Pendleton voters rejected the $90, 000 bond issue proposed by the city council for improvements on the Umatilla river levee. The count in the vote was 250 against the issue and 233 for it.

Guns, drum corps and peppy impromptu parades of uniformed delegates enlivened the opening days of the 23d annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary.

Frank C. Oxman, pioneer cattleman, who was one of the principal witnesses in the prosecution of Tom Mooney and Warren K. Billings for the Preparedness day bombings in San Francisco in 1916, died at his farm home near Durkee. He had been ill of heart disease for a year, and for a week had been sinking rapidly.

The state fair will open at noon Saturday, September 25, and continue through to Sunday night, October 4, a run of eight and one-half days. Decision to open the fair a day and a half earlier than usual was arrived at during a conference at Salem.

During the week July 7 to 13 in clusive, 10,119 persons and 3280 cars entered Crater Lake national park, according to park officials. Of these, 7157 persons and 2905 cars entered the park for the first time this season, the remainder being re-entries.

The state board of control has voted to dismiss J. W. Howard, superintendent of the state school for the blind, and his staff, effective August 15, and elected Walter C. Dry to the superintendency.

More than six tons of loganberries from a little less than an acre is the crop harvested by Jacob Truseck, near Woodburn. Half a ton was left on the vines. The berries sold for 5 cents per pound.

The annual salvage of bass, crap-ples, sunfish, perch and catfish has been begun by the state game commission. They are taken from the sloughs that are drying up and placed in running streams.
To date there has been sold by the growers of Rogue River valley 6000 tons of cannery Bartlett pears at prices ranging from $22.50 to $27.50 per ton. Some growers are holding out for $30 a ton.

Josephine county spent $47,361 on roads and bridges during the first six months of the current year as compared with $54,429 for the same period last year, according to the report of the county engineer.

Quentin Armstrong, 40-year-old ex-service man, was lodged in the county jail at The Dalles, facing a sanity investigation after he had attacked G.
Huskey, night watchman at Mosler, with a butcher knife.

As the result of blasting by the government in the channel of the Coquille river off the Bandon waterfront recently thousands of silver smelt were killed. Boys in rowboats scooped them up by the bucketful.

A huge stone razor nearly two feet long and weighing several pounds has been found on the Deschutes river rim of the Pleasant Ridge community. It is an Indian artifact carved from a shale-like rock and is thought to have been used as a hatchet by early Indians.

Reduction in county expenses was asked by a committee from the Columbia County Taxpayers' league, in an all-day session with the county court. A reduction to 6 cents a mile from 10 cents now allowed county officers and road-patrolmen for mileage was asked.

The body of Frank Rickman, 15, an Indian, was found in the upper basin of Cello canal. He had been missing from his home in The Dalles a week.
A bicycle was found in the canal near where the body was discovered, indicating the lad fell while riding the canal wall.

The Crag Rats of Hood River have notified the public that the life lines have been taken off Mount Hood.
Snow and ice conditions this year are abnormal and inexperienced climbers who plan to climb Mount Hood on the north side are advised to secure efficient guides.

Umatilla county's wheat crop for 1931 will be approximately 4,500,000 bushels, as compared with 5,000,000 bushels last year, according to the estimate of H. W. Collins. He estimates the crop of Oregon, Washington and Idaho at 79,000,000 bushels. Last year it was 83,000,000 bushels.

As a result of the overwhelming defeat of the $225,000 septic tank trunk sewer bond issue the city council of Medford is in a quandary as to what can be done in the way of remedying sanitary conditions sufficiently to meet the requirements of the state board of health.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson of Shedd has a century plant that has been in bloom for several days. The plant is about two and a half feet in height and has a cluster of creamy colored bell shaped blossoms over a foot long. Twenty-seven blossoms were counted, and a number of buds are developing.

A warning has been issued to irrigation water users to co-operate closely with the irrigation companies in an effort to prevent serious crop injury in Josephine county. Water users already have been placed on a restriction of water cutting for only half the amount used under normal conditions.
