Locals

Dr. Clarke, Eye Specialist, in Moro, Sat. Oct. 3, at Hotel Moro.

Carl McKean is about the streets again after several days in bed.

Ciarence Bourhill is visiting here for a few days with his father, George B. Bourhill.

D. E. Stephens drove to Pendleton last Sunday evening to look over the station there.

George Bourhill was a visitor in Portland the first of the week returning Monday evening.

L. W. Rakes and wife are in Salem this week helping the 4-H children at the State Fair.

Floyd Platt was in Salem the last of the week with exhibits of the 4-H children from this county.

Grandpa Byers is very ill at the home of his son, R. C. Byers, and is unable to be around as is his usual habit.

Raymond Crowder, formerly of the Arlington Bulletin, was in town renewing old acquaintances Thursday.

Mrs. Hugh Chrisman had the bone in one of her fingers broken last Sunday while helping Hugh change a tire on the car.

Ethan Woods is down in bed again for a few days with a recurrence of the undulant fever that made him so ill this summer.

O. L. Belshie, Jim Kenny, Chester Searcy, O. R. Knapp and A. G. Futter returned from their trip to the Blue mountains with three nice deer.

Alex Jackson who formerly kept the accounts straight in the bank of Moro, was here from The Dalles Wednesday looking around and meeting old friends.

Wm. Henricks and Wm. Jackson returned Saturday from their hunting trip to the Blue Mountains, without deer but a "good time was had by all" nevertheless.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Osborn, parents of Miss Helen Osborn, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades, were here the first of the week from Portland to visit their daughter.

The first meeting of the Moro Womens' Club will be held Friday afternoon October 2d, at the Domestic Science room at the school house instead of at the Masonic hall.

Dr. Clarke of the Clarke Optical Co., Portland, Ore, Eye Sight Specialist, will be in Moro, all day and evening, Saturday, Oct. 3, at Hotel Moro. See Him About Your Eyes.

George Updegraff and wife returned to Sherman county last Monday. Mrs. Updegraff was formerly Miss Helen Gridley of Auburn, California, until she became Mrs. Updegraff at a wedding in the Stanford Chapel at Palo Alto, California.

John Searcy has received an appointment as deputy in the Banking department and left Wednesday afternoon for Joseph where he will assist in the liquidation of the bank there. Mrs. Searcy and family will remain here for the time being.

Since Saturday a sabbatical calm has settled over the town and little has happened in the way of local news. No one has left town for the most excellent reason that there was no money to leave on. Citizens sit along the sidewalk in groups discussing the bank or perhaps the deer hunt. Altogether it makes a pastoral scene that would please the most rustic. And quite enough to please the most irritable.

Churches

Presbyterian Church.
Franklin C. Hoyt, Presiding Justice of the Children's Court, New York City, says: "From experience gained from handling thousands of cases of delinquent and neglected children, I feel that the religious training and moral guidance of every child is of supreme importance. Each boy and girl must be given opportunity to learn religious truths and to worship God."

Grass Valley School Notes
MARIETTA PERRY EDGEMOND

The Freshmen initiation held Friday night proved the most successful for the past few years. Games which consisted of quite a few new ones were played after the initiation and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves very much. During lunch several speeches were given among whom were, Don Smith, Willard Barnett, Marietta Perry, Pauline Newcomb, Henry Roth, Mr. Hughes, Miss Edmonds, Mr. McGowan, Miss Thompson, Miss Bryant, Mr. Coon, Mrs. Coon, and Earl Perry. Mr. Tetz was official spokesman.

The students of the civics class have handed in some very good graphs on "Stages in Economic Development" and "Steps in the Monument to Union."

The salesman from the Master Engravers visited the Grass Valley High and succeeded in pleasing the Seniors with his attractive design for a ring and noucements and calling cards. The Juniors picked out a very atpin. Three students are buying and two students are buying pins.

During the scrimmage last week with Moro, Bobby Rolfe a small player chipped a bone in his foot and will be confined to his bed for some time yet.

Miss Edmonds, our new high school teacher, seems to like Grass Valley a great deal and enjoys teaching here.

A cold epidemic seems to have swept over our school as a great number of students have colds. The students of typing II class are now trying to win their pins.

The football team will journey to Maupin, Friday, Oct. 2. The boys are quite enthused and pepped up about their game and hope they can come back victorious. The volleyball schedule for the girls is not definite as yet.
