"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Timothy 6:10.
Not money itself, but the love of it, is the root of all evil.

Notice American Revised Version: "The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil, which some reaching after, have been led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows."
But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, Godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. I Tim. 6:10, 11.

Again let us call your attention to the fact that you need to attend church services. The church needs you and you need the church.

There are perhaps three types of christians who respond to the call to service:

1 Rowboat christians—have to be pushed wherever they go.

2 Sailboat christians—always go with the wind.

3 Steamboat christians—make up their minds where they ought to go and go there, regardless of wind or weather.

We will hope to see you at church next Sunday in spite of the weather.

HOOD RIVER DEFEATS
MORO 57 TO 0.

Hood River eleven defeated Moro eleven fifty seven to nothing Friday October 26, at Hood River.

Hood River received the ball on the kickoff. The ball was received on the Hood River goal line and returned to the 50 yard line. By making a series of charges the Hood River team made a touchdown.

From the starting of the game the Moro team was outplayed by the larger and more experienced boys of Hood River. At the end of the first quarter the score was 19 to 0. After the first kickoff Moro received the ball most of the time to try to stem the advance of the Hood River team. We failed, however, to make first down and punted to Hood River. The ball was returned past the line of scrimmage. Hood River went down the field for a touchdown. During the entire game the Hood River team proved to be better players than the smaller Moro team.

GIRLS VOLLEY TEAM PLAY-ED KENT TEAM.

The Moro Volley Ball team played Kent team at Kent Friday, October 2.

Kent played an individual game while Moro used team work, and although defeated the Moro sextet played a very good game. A large crowd attended the game.

The Moro players were:
R. F. Janet Stephens
C. F. Grace Cothran
L. F. Eugene Johnson
R. B. Marjorie Nabouse
C. B. Leora Peetz
L. B. Doris Amidon
Subs, Lavon Sayers, Gail Amidon.

The typing students in the Commercial Department of the school have already shown rapid progress by making perfect speed tests. Those who have made this achievement are: Russell Belshee, 33 and 35; Ivan Belshee 52; Helen Searcy, 45 and 52; Philip Ruggles, 40.

The students of the Moro High School that went to the State Fair were: Evelyn Hastings, Lorena Noonan, Paul Fraser, and George Hennagan. Evelyn and Lorena went as a salad demonstrating team. Paul Fraser won the trip by being high point club member at the Boys' and Girls' County Club Fair.

Grace Cothran has been appointed the new yell leader.

De'ective Eyes.

One of the most successful flower shows ever staged in that part of the state, was held at Sheridan under the auspices of the Women's Civic Improvement club of Sheridan.

Mrs. Ray Noyes of Baker was the first woman reported at Baker to have killed a two-point buck deer. "I just aimed at the middle, closed my eyes and pulled the trigger," she said.

A special election November 7 has been called by the city council of Pendleton to vote on a 2-mill tax levy for unemployment relief. The tax would yield approximately $10,000.

Dashing in front of a shotgun as his playmate pulled the trigger, Lawrence Kline, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kline, of Medford, received fatal injuries and died in a local hospital.

George Hug, superintendent of Salem schools, reports that although textbooks are being supplied free of charge some parents are complaining because they have to buy pencils and paper.

Jack Nash, proprietor of the Wemo store near Sandy, which burned recently, will rebuild. All mail and office equipment and all goods in the store and house furnishings were burned.

On the north side of La Grande, in a thickly populated area, two trees are misbehaving. A prune tree is putting forth new leaves, and an apple tree has both fruit and blossoms on its branches.

Fifty-five acres of certified White Rose potatoes are being harvested on the Scappoose diked land project by the Wheeler Seed company of Portland and are yielding around 200 sacks per acre.

The apple harvest in Jackson county is under way. It is estimated that the crop will be about 30 per cent of normal. The big portion of it has been sold for export, mostly to England and Germany.

Extension of the membership of the Oregon Turkey Growers into the Willamette valley is to be undertaken by a campaign to be started in October. Many growers between Eugene and Portland have applied for membership.

The number of fires in the national forests in Oregon this year, as summarized by forest officials, totaled 1953 as compared with 1331 in 1930. The area burned over was but 22,800 acres as compared with 60,500 last year.

Nineteen hundred cans of fruit and vegetables were put up at the Mione cannery, in McMinnville recently, and will be at the disposal of the Yamhill county Red Cross organization for distribution among needy families this winter.

The cantaloupe crop of the Umpqua valley this year will equal if not exceed that of last year although there are only 350 acres in production as compared with 400 acres last year. Wesley Williams, prominent grower, has up to the present shipped 28,000 cases. Last year in October 28,000 cases shipped 43,000 cases. Market conditions have been fair.

Two Yamhill county farms now possess Oregon's total supply of mechanical corn-pickers, which are now being tuned up for use on the Stockton Brothers farm near Sheridan and the E. M. Alderman & Son farm near Dayton. Corn harvest on these two farms is expected to start about the middle of the month when it is expected the picking machines will attract considerable attention from other growers.

Albany has paid the last installment of $208,030, given for a $75,000 bridge that was scrapped seven years ago. When the city council ordered a warrant for $7912 covering accrued interest and the last remaining $6000 in outstanding bonds it wiped out a debt contracted in 1891 on which not a cent had been paid until 1921. The 1891 bond issue of $75,000 was used to build the Albany-Corvallis wagon road bridge across the Willamette river there. In the 49-year period ending last week the city has paid $138,030 in interest on those bonds because no sinking fund was provided with their issue.

Oregon state highways surfaced at the end of 1930 aggregated 3604 miles, according to a report released at Salem. Approximately 377 miles of highway were surfaced last year. The entire mileage in the state system was given at 3552.

Students of the Scappoose section are now attending classes in the new $50,000 union high school of district No. 4, which accommodates pupils from Scappoose, South Scappoose, Warron, McNulty, Chapman and Willows Bar (Savies Island).

ELECTRICITY . . . . .
The New Helper
. . . . . ON THE FARM

What cheap and abundant electric power has done for the industrial worker and his family in the alleviation of drudgery and the betterment of living and economic conditions, it is now doing for the farmer.

It is lightening the load of physical toil and increasing the comforts and convenience of the farm home.

Just recall the farmers' wives of a few years ago—and many even today! The drudgery of washtubs over old washtubs! Then ironing! heating flatirons on the kitchen stove, and then back and forth, back and forth, from stove to ironing board. Pumping water by hand. Cleaning and filling kerosene lamps. Butter produced only after grueling labor. But why continue! How utterly this situation has been changed in the electrically equipped farms of today!

One wife is now needed where two and three were needed before. Hard physical toil was the reason.
