Light Blue for Evening
For dance and party frocks, light blue is a favorite color. The dress pictured is of ciel blue chiffon patterned with velvet flower motifs. The peplum effect adds to the grace of the silhouette. Pale blue satin is also favored by the smart Parisienne for her evening gown.
CHERRIE NICHOLAS.

Scarf Becomes Bonnet by Simple Twist of Wrist Not for a long while has there been a more practical and generally becoming bit of headgear than the sports scarf which, by a simple twist of the wrist, becomes a bonnet. Intended only for wear on the head, this scarf of wool or tweed-like mixture, matching the sports frock, is made so wide that by merely wrapping it around the head and pinning it, the bonnet is achieved. The ends, standing smartly out, from the only ornaments beside the pin.

PARIS FAVORS VELVET

According to what leading couturiers in Paris are saying, this is going to be a velvet fall and winter. The consensus is that there certainly will be as much velvet used this season as last year and probably more.
One reason for an increasing enthusiasm for this material is that the velvets now being made are the most beautiful and flattering that ever existed. According to the opinion of one leading designer, couturiers and fashion creators everywhere will have to use it, for nothing equally as attractive has been found to take its place. Another enthusiastic couturier declares that velvet has become the classic material for both daytime and evening costumes.

Wise Spending

Careful and wise spending will help solve our economic problems and will be of untold benefit to the farmer. Our troubles are not caused by the spend-
