

COMING SHERMAN COUNTIANS

Kent School Notes

Hester Lyons—Editor.

The Spaulding salesman visited at Kent high school on Tuesday.

Rose Ellen Barnett was absent from school Monday on account of illness.

Nellie Grace Wilson has returned to school after being absent a week. Glenna Sather was absent last week on account of sickness.

Marjorie MacInnes was absent from school last week on account of having the flu.

Almost all the high school pupils attended the party at Anna Sather's home last Friday evening.

Arnold Dellinger and Rua Helyer returned to school Monday after having been absent for some time.

After the volley ball game last Friday evening, the Kent boys' basketball team scrimmaged with the Grass Valley team.

The girls' volley ball team goes to Wasco Friday evening, Nov. 20, to play that team, while the return game will be played in Kent Monday evening, Nov. 23.

The boys' grade and high school basketball teams will journey to Wapinitia Friday afternoon where they will play the Wapinitia teams that evening.

The journalism class of the Kent high school was glad to receive a copy of the "Arrowhead" which was published by the Rufus high school. This is the only exchange we have received except the Emerald and the Barometer.

The fourth grade pupils have been very much interested in their project on the life of the Pilgrims, and having finished their study of our New England forefathers are going to fix their sand table to represent the way the Pilgrims lived.

The high school girls are working hard on the program which is to be given the last week in November. Margaret Dunlap, Anna Sather, Hester Lyons, Clarice Wilson and Alta Norton were appointed as the committee to have charge of the program.

The sixth graders are writing a diary of the Lewis and Clark expedition. Rose Ellen Barnett is acting as Captain Clark with Helen Sather helping her, while Maxine Pleumke represents Captain Lewis, with Edna McKay and Helen Sather as helpers.

The volley ball game with Grass Valley last Friday evening proved very interesting. At the end of the first half the score was 12-14 in favor of Grass Valley. The Kent girls then got down to playing and kept the game very even until about the last four minutes when Grass Valley steadily forged ahead. When the whistle blew the score was 29 to 21 in favor of Grass Valley.

GRASS VALLEY SCHOOL NOTES

Marietta Perry—Editor.

The Grass Valley volley ball team has turned the tables and changed their defeats (which have occurred in preceding years) into victories and won the Sherman County Championship in volley ball.

The volley ball team defeated Moro on the latter's own floor last Tuesday, November 10. The black and orange scored the first few points but when the Tigerettes warmed up they flashed ahead and succeeded in staying there. Both teams played good volley ball but the Grass Valley team surpassed the Moro team in team work. The final score was 34-23 in favor of Grass Valley.

The volley ball team journeyed to Kent, Friday night, November 13, where they succeeded in winning their seventh straight game, still keeping their thousand per cent average. The teams seemed to be quite evenly matched in the first half of the game but in the second half the Tigerettes gained the lead and played there until the final whistle ended the game. The score was 30-22 in favor of Grass Valley.

The Civics class wrote some good themes on "What Armistice Should Mean to Us."

The Healthy Living class is studying the different portion of the cat's anatomy.

The basket ball boys played a practice game with Kent, Friday night and defeated them by quite a large score.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tetz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hughes, Miss Thompson, and Miss Edmonds attended the Oregon homecoming at Eugene, Saturday, November 14th.

MORO SCHOOL NOTES

A pep rally was held Friday afternoon before the football with Dufur. Grace Cothran, the yell leader, led the yells and school songs. The students returned for classes until 2:30 when they were dismissed for the game.

The Honor Roll this year is very well filled. A student must have fifteen points in order to be on the Honor Roll. Those in high school who have made the necessary points are: Doris Amidon, Gayle Amidon, Sybil Belshe, Iva Belshe, Grace Cothran, Gordon Fraser, Eva Miller, Lavon Sayra, Helen Searcy, Flora Williams, Marjorie Nahouse, Maxine Henrichs, Jonny Gentry.

Those in the grades who have made the points are: Audrey Baker, Vera Jean Henrichs, Mearle Miller, Ardis Truitt, Claudine Thompson, Gene Brisbane, Wyman French, Oleta Henkle, Clara Mersinger, Lois Melzer, Melba Thogerson, Doris Thompson.

A surprise party was given for Ralph Henkle Sunday, November 1. Moro was defeated by Grass Valley 40-22 in volley ball.

The Moro girls had their first victory when they played the Kent six in volley ball. This game proved to be one of the most exciting games of the season. Kent was ahead at the end of the first half but the Moro girls outplayed them in the second half, thus proving themselves victorious.

Wednesday, November 10 a student body meeting was called for the purpose of a pep rally for the volley ball girls who were to play Grass Valley that evening. The yells and school songs were led by Grace Cothran and Richard Barnes. The girls met a defeat, however.

After the game the student body gave a rally for the football boys who were to meet the Wasco gridders the next day. The boys were also defeated.

Donald Burnet and Lyle Woods were absent from school Friday. They went to Eugene for Homecoming.
