"Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like. He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock; and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon a rock."

Kent News
Joint installation of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows was held last Saturday night after the regular Odd Fellow meeting. Amandus von Borstel and Mrs. Clara Helyer acted as installing officers while Roy Barnett and Mrs. Ada Guyton acted as grand marshals.
After installation a social hour was held.

A group of the younger grangers gathered at the Grange hall last Saturday night and organized a degree team with L. E.
Clark as drill master. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served by some of the ladies of the Home Economics Club. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Helyer and family visited at the home of Elinor Helyer Sunday.
Mr. & Mrs. Dick Reckmann, Jr., and Hester Lyons were visitors at the J. C. Wilson home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Helyer and son, Jessie, were in Shaniko on business Tuesday.

The Kent Grange No. 688 held its regular meeting Wednesday evening, January 27, at which time the Harlandview degree team put on the first and second degrees. After the business meeting refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.
The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cox and son, Warren, of Grass Valley were visitors in Kent Sunday.

Oliver Schadewitz, who has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Schadewitz, returned to his home at Maupin, Sunday. Virgil Schadewitz accompanied him, and will visit a few days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunlap and son, Kendrick, returned home from Corvallis Sunday evening. Kendrick who has been in the hospital with an infected knee, is reported as being better.

Clarice Wilson was a dinner guest at the home of Mrs. Ida Davis Sunday.

Carl Gregg and family, and Mrs. Frank Haynes were visitors at the Alfred Lyons home Sunday.

Among those from Shaniko who attended the basketball game at Kent last Friday night were: Darrel Altermat, Jimmie Rees, Laurence Gott, Margarite Reeder, Elsie Wolfe, Marshal Richardson, Phyllis Hannä and and son, Arnold, visited in The Dalles Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Walton and daughter, Ellen, of Dufur, are visiting with Mr. Walton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walton.

Miss Alma Guyton is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. I. Guyton.
Mrs. Florin Coon, of Grass Valley, was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.
Knighten Saturday.

BRIMMED HATS ARE MILADY'S FAVORITE

Every hat just now swoops down to capture its rightful share of smartness. And even if one eye is obliterated from view in the downward path of the brim, we see enough to know that our hat and costume is being duly admired. And that is the main thing.
Very few hats just now are not brimmed, be the amount of brim ever so infinitesimal. Of course the turban is always with us, but the majority of women, being cognizant of the benign power of the brimmed line, are wise enough to avail themselves of its services.
The big brim, of course, is out of the question with high fur collars, and even if this was not the case, the combination of the large hat with the be-furled, lavish clothes of winter would be rather too dramatic.

SLEEVES TO BEAR BURDEN OF STYLE

By its cuffs shall you know it—as a frock or jacket of this season's crop.
Sleeves carry the burden of much of the mode this year.
First we had oversleeves with long narrow cuffs, then puffed sleeves or arms covered with fabric cut on wholly correct leg-o-mutton lines. Now come wide cuffs, bishop's sleeves and other cuffy glories.
There's no doubt about it, there is a picturesque note about the wide cuff whether it be on frock or coat and it is especially luxurious when it is fur lined, as it is being done this season. Then, too, the glove gets a chance to expose its crinkled, or wrinkled surface with grand eclat and effect.
Wide cuffs of white are very good with black frocks and they give even the largest, most utilitarian hand a soft, delicate appeal. And that's something when hands have been gripping tennis racquets or golf clubs through the years.

Locals

Lester Nahouse is out from his enforced vacation and while he still smells like formaldehyde he is on duty again at the sheriff's office.
Mrs. Nahouse is completely recovered from her case of small pox.

Sid George, of the state industrial accident commission, and former state commander of the American Legion for this state was in town last week.

According to Monday's papers the Buchanan estate that is of particular interest to some residents of this community holds no property in the state of New York as previously thought.

Elmer Hansen with his wife and mother made another visit to Portland to visit George Hansen.

The Keystone class will drive to Grass Valley, Sunday night to meet with the Poles.

Lester Gohles and family are living in the house formerly occupied by the Binder family while an addition is being dug to their basement and other improvements are being made to their home in Mowry's addition.

The Moro bridge club spent the Tuesday afternoon session in Gras Valley as guests of Mrs. C. L.
Polley.

Karl Eaton was a visitor in Moro Wednesday from the southern part of the county from where he makes occasional trips to more populous areas.

The brick building known as the bank building has been sold by Barnum to another man in The Dalles.

Carl McKean was in The Dalles the first of the week attending the tractor school given by the company of which he is local manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hennagin, of Wasco, spent the week end here with Mrs. G. C. Akers.

Sergeant Grimm, of the state police called at the sheriff's office here last week.

C. A. Binder and wife were here one day last week from White Salmon.

Friends of Chester Smith supped him with a birthday dinner Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Bryant's home. As he entered the door he was greeted by 46 fellow church members singing a happy song. Talks were made by O. A. Ramsey, A. M. Wright, E. E.
Barzee, R. J. Ginn, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs.
Kenny, Grandma Belshie, Mrs. Bryant and Mr. Smith. Greetings were read from former pastors of the local church.

Two old Spanish coins, one of which is 212 and the other 131 years old, were found at Dirty Buzzard bar up Rogue river from Gold Beach by Rollie Alexander, prospector. The older of the coins bears the date, 1720, and the other, 1781. The coins are said to be well preserved. It is believed the coins were carried to the bar by early Indians, who obtained them from Spanish traders along the Oregon coast.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Consolidation of the Creswell Fruit Growers' bank with the Eugene Bank of Commerce was announced last week by C. W. Dixon, president, and Leonard Zinnicker, cashier of the Creswell institution. The Eugene bank assumes the assets, deposits and liabilities of the Creswell bank.

State police thought it unusual that a milk truck with a California license should be in the Medford district, so they gave chase. They arrested Antoni Lemarre of San Francisco and seized 360 gallons of grain alcohol destined for Portland. The alcohol was carried in 10-gallon milk cans.

Oregon automobile passenger registration dropped 12,088 for the first 10 months of this year over the same period in 1930. Curry county alone showed an increase of private passenger cars. In Multnomah county 75,043 cars were registered, compared to 78,816 for the first 10 months of 1930.

Exhibits of poultry sent to four fairs and shows this year brought 80 ribbons to Everett K. Chase, poultryman north of Eugene. He showed his birds at the Lane county fair, the state fair, Pacific International and the Bandon poultry show, and was awarded 12 first places, 34 seconds and four third places.

A shovel at least 66 years old was used by Norborne Berkeley, judge of the justice court at Pendleton, in clearing ice from the sidewalk in front of his office recently. The shovel was used in 1886 by the late William Martin, pioneer Umatilla county judge, who then was placer mining on Granite creek, Berkeley said.

Test borings are being made by government engineers for the new bridge across the Clackamas river, which is to be a part of the new super highway between Oregon City and Portland. The state highway commission engineers have prepared plans for the span and a call for bids will be made in the near future.

First assessments against stockholders of the closed Moro State bank have resulted in the levy of approximately $7000 against Wasco county stockholders. The assessments have been levied under the new 1931 law, which specifies that bank officials have the right to levy in the resident counties of the stockholders.
