Moro School Notes

For the past few basketball seasons the Moro basketball girls have not been overly successful. Perhaps it was ill-luck, insufficient training, poor material or numerous other things. In reading of the censored bridge tournament we found that people brought the players good luck omens, like rabbits feet, ect. Therein lay our fault. The Moro girls had nothing to promote the efforts they put forth. What could we do to alter the situation? Why a mascot of course. In the gymnasium Thursday afternoon, some child had left her teddy bear. Miss Kutch, the coach, picking up the toy, suggested we use the child's forgotten play thing for our mascot. Our problem was solved and Friday 22nd, at the basketball game at Grass Valley, many teddy bears appeared to do their part in helping the girls of the team win. And they did win. Here's to you Teddy. We, the girls of Moro basket ball team hope you will continue to bring us luck.

The Moro Teddy bears met the Grass Valley Tigerettes in an exciting game, Friday, 22. Although the Moro girls were a few points ahead throughout the entire game, they were not so far in the lead that the game was uninteresting. The final score was 33-25. The Moro line up was as follows:

Lavon Sayers Janet Stephens Patricia Powell Grace Cothran Leora Peets Imogene Johnson Sbstitutes: Marjory Nahouse for Lavou Sayers.

The Moro boys were not so successful when they played Grass Valley. They met a defeat of 43-24.

The basketball game between the boys, grade teams of Moro and Grass Valley schools proved to be of a great deal of interest. They played Friday 22. Althe the Grass Valley team proved superior, the Moro boys show the prospect of making a good team.

An Escrito club has been organized by the English instructor, Miss Bacon, to promote interest in creative writing. The officers of the new club are: Richard Barnes, president; Lavon Sayers, vice-president; Flora Williams, secretary. The members are: Frank Prather, Tommy and Gordon Frazier, Maxinee Hendrichs, Syble Belshie, Lyle Woods, Eva Miller. The club had a pot luck turkey dinner at the home of Mrs. Akers Tuesday night, Jan. 26th. After completion of the business on hand the rest of the evening was spent in playing games and fun in general.

The State library has sent our books for the grade children to use. They are called "Little Libraries." The grade children must have readin certificates in order to pass their grades. The first grade must read two books, the second grade three and the rest of the grades five.

Kent School Notes

Hester Lyons—Editor.
The Kent girls played a good game in spite of the defeat which they suffered when they played the Wasco sextet last Friday night.

At the end of the first half the score stood 11 to 4 in favor of the visitors, but in the last half the Kent girls came back and kept even with the Wasco team. However, the lead gained by Wasco in the first half could not be overtaken, and when the whistle blew the score stood 25 to 18 in favor of Wasco. Clarice Wilson made 14 of the 18 scores.

High school students who were neither absent nor tardy this semester include: Clarice Wilson, Karl Pluemke, Kenneth Sather, Charles Wilson, Margaret Dunlap and Evelyn Davis.

The Wawbansee Camp Fire Girls met at the home of Lorena Young Tuesday evening, Jan. 26. At this time Alta Norton and Anita Dunlap were initiated into the organization.

Mothers night will be a special feature of the Grass Valley-Kent game next Friday night. At that time all mothers of the boys and girls teams of Grass Valley and Kent are invited to be present as guests of the high school pupils. It is hoped that every mother will be there to see her boy or girl take part in the game.

The members of the Epicurean club entertained their friends at a buffet supper Saturday night at the J. E. Norton home. The menu consisted of vegetable salad, mashed potatoes, creamed chicken, biscuits, breaded tomatoes, pickles, pineapple sponge, angel cake and coffee.

The boys' and girls' basketball teams of Kent have five more games to play this season. They are as follows:

Jan. 29	Grass Valley at Kent
Feb. 5	Moro at Moro
Feb. 13	Wasco at Wasco
Feb. 19	Rufus at Kent
Feb. 22	Rufus at Rufus

The Wasco boys' team scored a victory over the high school team last Friday night when the visitors piled up 27 points to the locals team's ten. At the start Kent got the jump and scored within a few seconds after the game started, but were unable to keep up with the visitors, who at the half had 13 points to Kent's 5. In the second half Wasco secured 14 more points while Kent secured one basket and shot two fouls, thereby making a final score of 27-10.

RUFUS SCHOOL NOTES

Running there string of consecutive victories up to 4 the Rufus Wolves, Saturday night, dispatched Ione 32-21. The game was closely fought during the first two quarters with Ione leading 9-8 at the half. Rufus' inability to connect for numerous set-ups and cripples kept the score down. In the last half Coach Nolen's men started a rally which soon brought them a commanding lead. Deyo with nine points, Brown and Chase with eight and Floyd with six point were the chief point gatherers for Rufus. McNab's stellar defensive work contributed greatly to Rufus' victory. Ely and Lundell for 16 out of Ione's total of 21. In the last two weeks the Rufus boys have won from Arlington 16 to 15; Dufur 31-8, and The Dalles Subs 21-12. Friday night they tangle with Wasco, and Saturday journey to Dufur for a return game.

The Rufus Migets defeated the Arlington Migets by a score of 4-5. The game was won by last quarter work, when T. McNab swished one through just before the whistles.

Anna Coats is back after a severe illness. E. Lyda has straight 92 in County exam., which they have taken in the eighth grade room. In the 7th grade, Marie Mathison has 100, and Georzianna Blackdurn an average of 97.

The state sent us fifteen books that the children are reading and enjoying. Those reporting on five within six weeks will be awarded.

INTERMEDIATE ITEMS

Division 1 of the 4-H Cookery club met yesterday for the first time. There are 17 enrolled in the club. Mrs. Nolen is the leader. Two girls will demonstrate a project each Friday. Clara Jane Mathieson and Lida Morris will show us how to make good toast this Friday.

Members of the fourth grade Geography class are making posters of Switzerland. The posters show the different phases of Swiss life.

Jackets Are Now Worn

Whether women as a class have revolted or not cannot be ascertained but the fact remains that they no longer consent to shiver in evening gowns. There is a jacket with every other dress seen where smart people are gathered and many of these little nothingnesses are trimmed with bands of fur which at least makes them warm looking.

Stripes of Gay Color a Fall Feature Style

Stripes have laid a brilliant mark on the fashion tableau of the fall and winter.

While the background of the style picture is woven of monotone weaves many a highlight is given by stripes of gay hue.

Striped wool scarfs, blouses and frocks and striped silk vests a bit more sober in tone are all used to add a bright note to the ensemble. Even the one color fabrics reflect the striped note in ribbed and diagonal weaves.

RIGHT FOR FLYING

This orange-colored leather jacket with matching helmet and cloth skirt is just right for flying. To shield the wearer in the colder regions, the jacket is lined with lapin, with collar and lapels of the same beige-colored fur.
