Locals

Mr. Roy Martin, who is in a Portland hospital, is about the same.

R. H. Coppock left early Tuesday morning for Hood River to attend a meeting.

Mrs. N. P. Hansen was visiting in Moro the first of the week from her home in Portland.

Floyd Flatt took a load of horse and household goods to Hood River last week, returning Friday.

A list of those who are ill with the flu would read like the voting list with children's names added.

Miss Vivian Trounce was unable to make her regular trip to Moro last Saturday because of sickness.

W. H. Sipe and C. R. Cameron, representatives of the International Harvester Co., were in town Wednesday.

Miss Viola Hansen departed from her desk at the county clerk's office Wednesday long enough to visit The Dalles.

R. H. Coppock was in Gilliam county Monday, accompanied by Vick Barr, on business for the Hibernian Bank of Portland.

Jeff Wilson, one time pants presser, was here Sunday evening looking around for insurance prospects, as he is in that business in The Dalles.

The Missionary society will hold an all day meeting Feb. 17, with Mrs. McKean. Pot luck sewing to do and bandages to be made—bring old sheets.

Mrs. C. E. Pool and Mrs. M.
R. Eoff were here the first of the week to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton.

M. E. McKee and wife were in Portland the first of the week on a business trip. Don Clodfelter was in charge of the pharmacy during their absence.

Monday night the Moro Odd-fellows entertained fellow members of the order from all parts of the county, and initiated a neophyte into the mysteries.

Mrs. Hugh Chrisman entertained the bridge club and a few friends Tuesday afternoon.
There were six tables in all and those participating had a very enjoyable time.

Anson Woods and Elsworth Woods were here from Walla Walla and Weston, respectively, to attend the golden-wedding of their old friends, Mr. and Mrs.
R. W. Pinkerton.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold their social at the home of Mrs. C. R. Belshie February 18, Mrs. Avery Martin assisting to entertain. The Dorcas Society invited to attend.

A meeting was held Tuesday evening between the Rebekahs and their husbands. Cards were played, with clever stunts interspersed and a bounteous lunch topped off the night's program.

Miss Josephine Johnson's name appeared in the Monmouth Normal school paper, "The Lamron," as one of the cast in the play, "Lima Beans," which according to the notice, went over with wonderful success.

Ben Peetz and wife were here Wednesday and part of Thursday on their way to Pendleton from a trip to Portland. Friends surprised them at the L. L.
Peetz home Wednesday night for an old fashioned visiting bee.

A MILE AND A HALF FROM CHURCH

We're a mile and a half from church, you know,
And it rains today, so we can't go.
We'd go ten miles to a dance or show Though the rain should fall and the winds should blow, But the church is different, we'd have
you know,
That's why when it rains we just can't go.

in the subjects discussed during the afternoon, several offering interesting information and comment, that Mrs.
Bryant suggested that an "open forum" at the end of each meeting would enable us to get more out of the subjects of our study.

Mrs. Akers, as director, interspersed her program with some very pleasing musical numbers.

February 19th is the date of our observance of the Washington bicentennial, and Mrs. Margaret Peetz, assure you an enjoyable afternoon.

SAILOR HAT IS "IN"

By CHERRIE NICHOLAS

Again we have the sailor hat in our midst. It returns as an exponent of the new narrow-brim types which are now so fashionable. The model pictured emphasizes a recent trend which trims felt with flowers. Most of these trims chic sailors are worn tilted. Advance midseason and winter resort straws include many sailers.

A total of 187,252 acres of forest land was burned over during the last year, according to a report made to the Oregon state board of forestry at its annual meeting held in Salem.
This does not include national forest acreage, but only that coming under the jurisdiction of Lynn Crosemiller, state forester. This is approximately three times the acreage burned over in 1920, but falls far short of the record established in 1929.

FIRE HAZARDS IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Stock Fire Insurance engineers have made careful study and analysis of the fire conditions of every city and town. Details of this survey and recommendations for improvement may be had upon request.

Some of the community activities of STOCK FIRE INSURANCE

1. Correct building regulations and safe chimney construction, already adopted by more than 300 cities and towns; 2. Proper standards for community fire protection;
3. Educational and advisory work with Chambers of Commerce, schools, hospitals, city governments and various organizations along fire prevention lines; 4. Maintenance of Underwriters' Laboratories;
5. Fighting the crime of arson through cooperation with police and fire departments, fire marshals and other officials.
