

COMING

SHERMAN COUNTIANS

Grass Valley School Notes

M. HARRIS, EDITOR

The Student Body held an assembly Friday afternoon in which they sang songs and practiced yells. It was decided that the boys were to compete against the girls in presenting a program for the following Friday afternoon assembly. Those on the boys committee were Orville Ruggles, Bruce Alley, and Willard Barnett; Juanita Boyce, Marietta Perry and Pauline Newcomb served on the girls girls committee.

The Grass Valley Midgets defeated the Rufus Midgets in a very exciting game last Friday night in the local gym. Both teams played good ball and gave promise of good teams for the high schools in future years. The final score was 25-16 in favor of the Grass Valley Midgets. Referee, Earle Perry.

The Grass Valley Tigerettes defeated the Rufus girls by a score of 35-13 last Friday night. The Grass Valley girls took the lead and kept it throughout the game. Both the defensive and the offensive were outstanding. The Rufus girls were considerably taller than the Grass Valley girls but the Tigerettes made up in speed what they lacked in stature. Mr. McGowan was referee.

The Grass Valley Tigers added another victory to their list when they defeated the Rufus Wolves last Friday night by a score of 27-19. McGowan, referee.

The Civics class has been debating on the question "Resolved that the Jury System in the United States has been a failure and should be abolished."

The Bookkeeping class has started on "Partnerships and Accounting."

The Healthy Living class is making a model of the circulataries.

Kent School Notes

Hester Lyons—Editor.

The Kent boys' basketball team met an overwhelming defeat last Saturday evening, when Wasco beat them by a score of 45-20.

The Kent girls' basketball team journeyed to Wasco last Friday evening, where they were defeated by the Wasco team by the score of 30-16.

Richard Sather has returned to school after having been absent last week on account of sickness.

Leona Sather and Edna McKay were absent from school Monday.

The Rufus teams will meet the Kent teams on the home floor next Saturday night.

The sixth grade pupils are making a copy of Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington, and are using card boxes as material for the house.

The Kent school is having its program in honor of the two hundredth anniversary of Washington's birthday, this Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Robert Mitchell returned to school Wednesday after being absent Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Wilson has enrolled in typing 1.

The Kent school wishes to express its appreciation to Representative Robert Butler for sending it the picture of George Washington and for a copy of the song, "Father of the Land we Love", which was written for the American people by George Cohen.

The seventh and eighth graders have elected the following officers: President, Robert Helyer; vice-president, Myrtle Helyer; secretary-treasurer, Bertha Helyer; English inspector, Harley McKay; property inspector, Clarice Mitchell; sheriff, Myrtle Helyer; decorator, Phyllis Haynes; manner inspector, Joseph Morrow; personal inspector, Melvin Barnett; librarian, Paul Schillings.

Lamb—Choice, $4.75@5.25.
Spokane
Cattle—Steers, good, $5.25@5.75.
Eggs—Good to choice, $4.50@4.65.
Lamb—Good, $3.50@4.75.

Dates for the 13th annual Deschutes county fair for 1932 have been set for September 22, 23 and 24.

The war department has allotted $30,000 for carrying on improvement works in the Coquille river.

The Dundee city council has decided to build a new city hall. It will face the highway on a lot just south of the postoffice.

The Halls-Creek sawmill has been moved to Brewster valley by R. H. Hill and D. C. Hayworth of Arago, and work is to start soon.

Nels Hedlund of the Hedlund hatchery and poultry farm of Brownsville is busy superintending some 10,000 eggs for hatching this spring.

Jackson county paid bounty on 210 coyotes and bobcats during January. The total amount was $626, as compared with $702 in January, 1931.

Resolutions condemning the use of butter substitutes in the Josephine general hospital have been adopted by Pomona grange of Josephine county.

Complete reorganization of the Bagley Canning company of Ashland with Medford and Ashland capital is announced. The plant will be expanded.

A total of $48,383.87 was spent last year in improving and maintaining the Yamhill county market road system, according to a report filed at McMinnville.

UNVEILED IN RICHMOND

Full-length bronze statue, by Rudolph R. Evans, of Robert E. Lee, Confederate leader, which was unveiled in Richmond on January 19, the one hundredth and twenty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Lee. The heroic figure stands on the exact spot where Lee stood when he took command of the Confederate forces.

Wasco

An S. N. R. division of the 4-H club was installed in the Wasco school for the grade girls under the direction of Miss Georgia Striker January 15th, and are the first ones in Sherman county to receive their charter from the Oregon Agricultural College, which is sponsoring the 4-H club. Miss Striker reports that they received their charter last Thursday. There are ten girls in this club at the present time. The enrollment is as follows: Naomi Grady, Gene Spencer, Margaret Moon, Evelyn Olson, Cleo Rickles, Jean Wall, Dorothy Lamborn, Barbara Nunn, Jocelyne Garmon, and Katherine Richelderfer. The first officers of this club are as follows: Jocelyne Garmon, president; Barbara Nunn, vice president; Dorothy Lamborn, secretary and treasurer.

This last week end, Wasco was the victor of four basketball games played here.

Friday night both the boys and girls teams of Moro were defeated in two very one-sided games. The scores were as follows: the boy's score was 15-59, and the girls score was 17-29.

Saturday evening the Kent boys and girls played a double header here in which Wasco succeeded in winning by the scores of 16-30 in the girls game, and 20-47 in the boys game. These four games were not nearly so interesting as the games that were played the preceding week with Grass Valley as the competition was not nearly so great.

Miss Ruth Schwendel was a visitor in Moro Sunday.

Miss Cathryn Johnson is suffering from a sprained ankle which she received last Monday in basketball practice.

This week, Miss Elma Proffitt has been absent from school because of an attack of the flu.

Kenneth Walker is confined to his home this week with the flu.

Miss Selma Watkins entertained the young peoples class of the Methodist church at her home last Monday evening with a valentine party. Names were drawn and everyone received a valentine.

Archie Goer returned to Outlook, Washington last Monday.

A surprise birthday dinner was given Miss Elma Houston last Sunday in honor of her twentieth birthday, by her sister, Miss Etta Houston. The table was very attractively decorated with valentines. Those present were: Mattie Paris, Etta Houston, Ben Morford, Clyde Fifley, Archie Goer, and Elma Houston. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wall attended the Eastern Star at Moro Thursday night. After the business meeting cards were enjoyed by those present.

Miss Cathryn Johnson was a Friday and Saturday guests of Myrtle Garland.

The Skyrocket card club met Saturday night at the home of Miss Bell Clothier. Miss Winifred Fortner made high score for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent and daughter shopped in The Dalles on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Briggs are visiting at the home of Mrs. Briggs parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Olson.

Mrs. Paul McColloch and Mrs. Lloyd Hennagin were visitors in The Dalles Saturday. Mr. Hennagin joined them in the evening.

Mrs. Harley Dutton returned to her home in Fossil Saturday after visiting for some time at the Robert Evans home with her mother Mrs. Mary Richelderfer who is quite ill.

Mrs. John Crawford of Granddall is visiting her sister Mrs. Fred Fortner.

The losing side in the membership contest of the Pythian Sisters entertained the winners with a most delicious dinner Thursday night at the Fraternity Hall. About forty were present and a vote of thanks for the entertainment was given by the captain of the winning side.

The Les Jours bridge club met with Mrs. Herbert Root Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McPherson and son and Johnny and Olive Robinson were guests at the John Roysse home Saturday evening.

A number of Wasco folks are planning to attend the celebration of the Boy Scout Week by the Moro Boy Scouts Sunday night.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church met at the home of Rev. Hawk Sunday night.

Mrs. Roy Atwood entertained the Junior Camp Fire girls at her home Thursday night in a most pleasing manner. Games were played and later the hostess served delicious refreshments. She was assisted by Mrs. Hailey.

NEW PERKINS HOTEL

Washington at Fifth Street, PORTLAND, OREGON

Our usual pre-war transient rates still prevail. Special Rates to permanent Guests

UNDER THE PERSONAL MANAGEMENT OF Edward C. Holt

RATES
Room with bath privilege, $1. up
Outside room with private bath, $1.50 up

Special rates where more than two persons occupy one room.

Let us show you our Accommodations

Mrs. B. J. O'Connor and Mrs. Hazel McDaniels of Sacramento, California, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Banta, Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Banta are brothers and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oviatt and Marion spent the week end with Mrs. Oviatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Yocum.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Banta and son and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Yocum and daughter were Sunday guests at the Brock home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brock and son were guests at the J. T. Johnson home Saturday evening.

A very enjoyable time was had at the leap year party given by the Rebekah's at the Fraternity Hall Wednesday night. A fine program was given and afterwards they danced. Mrs. J. R. Yocum made a very good auctioneer to sell the men's baskets. The lodge plans to give a series of parties in the near future.

The C. W. Johnsons entertained the J. T. Johnsons Sunday the occasion being the birthday of the two men.

The second public meeting sponsored by the Sherman Cooperative Grain Growers will be held Saturday, February 27th at the school auditorium in Wasco. D. E. Stephens of Moro and J. P. Yates of Wasco have been secured as speakers. Mr. Stephens subject will be "Production" and Mr. Yates will speak on Freight Rates. The public is cordially invited to attend. Meeting to begin at 2:30 p. m. which will be preceded by a short business meeting at 2:00.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Reid.

The Wasco Study Club met at the home of Mr. Frank Lamborn Friday afternoon. After a short business meeting the club adjourned and most of the members went to the school house to the Lincoln day program.

Mrs. Jack Sheets entertained the Tuesday Study Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Georgia Bell McPherson and Evelyn Spencer spent some time in Wasco Saturday with their parents. Both girls are student nurses at The Dalles hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gentry entertained at dinner Saturday night. Covers were laid for twelve. After dinner bridge was played and high score for the women was made by Mrs. Hugh White and for the men by W. H. Burris. Guests were Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White, Mr. and Mrs. H. Burris, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Root and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cline.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kasseberg went Dalles on business.

The Mary Elizabeth class of the M. E. church had their class party at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Frobe of The Dalles were dinner guests of Mr. Eliza Dingle Sunday.

Judge Potter is having his Klondike residence remodeled throughout. The work is being done by R. O. Scott.

Joe White spent Wednesday in The Dalles on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fields shopped in The Dalles Thursday.

R. C. and A. C. Harper were in the Dalles Wednesday on business.

Eva Tuel had the misfortune to fall Saturday and break her leg at the Frank Knox home. The injured girl was rushed to the hospital and attended by Dr. Coberth.

Miss Norma Feldman of Portland spent the week end at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Feldman.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Continued from page one.

Some problems relating to the adjustment of the Moro State Bank may be properly the business of the community club; this being a political year many contestants for office may wish some means of addressing local citizens on questions of the day and the club can function to advantage in that role.

In any case there will be a meeting February 23rd, Tuesday, and all who are interested in the business life of the town of county are invited to attend.

Teacher: "Johnny! What is an adult?"
Johnny: "An adult is one who has stopped growing except in the middle."

Read the ads in the Journal

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, H. B. BAKER, Administrator of the Will Annexed of the estate of John J. Schaeffer, deceased, has filed his final report and account of his administration thereof with the Clerk of the County Court of Sherman County, Oregon, and that by order of the Judge of said court, on the 7th day of February, 1932, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., has been fixed as the time, and the County Courtroom in the Court house in the City of Moro, Oregon, as the place, for the hearing of said final report and account and objection thereto, if any there be, and the settlement and closing of said estate. Dated this 20th day of January, 1932.

H. B. BAKER, Administrator with the Will Annexed of said Estate.
Updegraff & Pepper
Attorneys for said Administrator with the Will Annexed. (J22722)

PRINTING? WE DO IT.

BILLS
CARDS
FORMS
ENVELOPES
LETTER HEADS

For any kind of Printing call on us. We can do it have it done.

THE SHERMAN COUNTY JOURNAL

In Charge of Press at Conventions

William J. Donaldson, Jr. (left), superintendent of the house of representatives press gallery, and William J. Collins, superintendent of the senate press gallery, will have charge of arrangements for the press at the Republican and Democratic national conventions in Chicago this June. Newspapers from all over the world will have their representatives at the conventions and it will be the duty of these two men to see that ample facilities are provided for filing their copy.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

THE MARKETS
Portland
Wheat—Big Bend bluestem, hard white, 7 1/2; soft white, western white, hard winter, northern spring and western red, 5 1/2 c.

Hay—Buying price, f. o. b. Portland: Alfalfa, $14@15; oats and vetch, $12.50@13.
Butterfat—18@20c.
Eggs—Ranch, 12@14c.
Cattle—Steers, good, $5.50@6.
Eggs—Good to choice, $4@4.75.
Lamb—Good $4.75@5.25.
Seattle
Wheat—Soft white, western white, northern spring, 57 1/2 c; hard winter, 55 1/2 c; western red, 55 1/2 c; bluestem, 69 1/2 c.
Butterfat—23c.
Eggs—Ranch, 12@14c.
Cattle—Steers, good, $5.50@6.
Hogs—Good to choice, $4.75@4.85.