

COMING SHERMAN COUNTIANS

Kent School Notes

Hester Lyons—Editor.

The Kent boys ended their basketball season when they played with Rufus on March 1st. The boys lost this game to Rufus by the close score of 17-18.

Charles Dunlap was high point man for Kent. The end of the season left Kent fourth place in the county as it has won three county games and lost five, but the boys have won five games out of thirteen played during the season with a total score of 217 points against the opponents 327 points. The boys consider their showing is pretty good considering the inexperience of the players at the first of the year.

Those eligible for letters are Chas. Dunlap, Chas. Wilson, Karl Pluemke, Harley McKay, Millard Howell, Lester Wilson and Richard Sather.

In order that physical education may be continued in Kent high school the hour that was formerly used for basketball practice will now be spent in various other games such as tennis, croquet, and base ball. The gym will be used for practice on days when the weather does not permit playing out side.

The girls of Kent Cooking Club, Division II, have finished their project for this division and will soon start on Division III.

Roy Hogue, Jeane Haynes, Glenn Sather were awarded reading circle certificates.

The game with Rufus ended the basketball season for the girls. The game was an easy victory for Kent. The score stood 25-6 in Kent's favor. This made the girls total of four games won against four lost. When the season opened the Kent girls turned out in good style, many of them showing splendid promise of good material. As time went on many of them dropped out leaving just enough for the team, so patrons feel that the girls have done very well this season. Girls who will receive letters are Clarice Wilson, Hester Lyons, Anna Sather, Marguerite Mitchell, Lorena Young, Edna Lyons, Alta Norton and Margaret Dunlap.

Superintendent L. W. Rakes visited Kent school last Tuesday.

The seventh grade English class is having a blackboard newspaper each Friday, which is proving to be very interesting. Phillis Haynes reports foreign and national items, Phoebe Lyons reports local items, and Paul Schilling is the joke editor.

Jack Sather made one hundred percent in the six weeks' spelling examination in the eighth grade, and Phillis Haynes made the same record in the seventh grade spelling test.

The fifth graders entertained the rest of the pupils of the intermediate room last Monday afternoon when they showed them the moving picture reel of Europe which they made.

Leona Sather has returned to school again after having been absent for a week.

Melvin Barnett was absent last week on account of sickness.

The Wawbansee Camp Fire girls play has reached completion. The three act play entitled "Lost—A Chaperon" will be given at eight o'clock at the school house Saturday night, March 12. The basket social which had been planned has been postponed indefinitely.

Grass Valley School Notes

Grass Valley midnets defeated the Rufus midnets Saturday night by a score of 25-10. The score was quite close in the first quarter but the Grass Valley midnets edged out ahead of the Rufus midnets and remained ahead throughout the game.

The Grass Valley Tigerettes were defeated by the Rufus girls last Friday by a score of 25-17. The Rufus girls took the lead and kept it throughout the game. Cynthia Bell and Marietta Perry played their last game. Nolan acted as referee.

The Grass Valley Tigers were defeated by the Rufus Wolves Saturday night by a score of 24-15. The wearers of the red and white lacked their regular center and one of its regular forwards had the boys played good ball considering their loss. Referee—McNab.

The Grass Valley Tigers will journey to Hood River, Friday, where they will represent Sherman county with the Wasco Warriors. The draw has placed the red and white quintet against the A team of Wasco county which will be either Dufur or Maupin. The winner of this clash plays the winner of the Wasco-Hood River game on Saturday afternoon.

The Typing I and II classes are taking daily speed tests in preparation for the annual Sherman County Typing contest at Moro.

The Bookkeeping class took another test sent out by the publishers of their text books. Marietta Perry made the highest score with 96 points out of the possible 100. The median of the entire class was 66 per cent.

The students have a magazine campaign which started last Friday and will last one week. There are two sides. Marietta Perry and Orville Ruggles are captains of the green side and Zela Ruggles and Willard Barnett are captains of the red side. Erasmus Baker is business manager. The losing team is to give the winning team a party. The green side is ahead at present.

Those students getting on the honor roll for the fourth six weeks are: Seniors, Willard Barnett, Cynthia Bell, Pearl Bell, and Marietta Perry. Juniors, Gevenieve Beardley and Sylvia Coyle. Sophomores, Norma Garrett, Earle Shipley, Vivian Reynolds, and Lila Boyce. Freshmen, Taylor Baker, Dorothy Fairchild, Lawrence Todd and Mildred Alley. Vivian Reynolds heads the entire school with a card of four P's.

Mr. Rakes, county school superintendent, visited school last Thursday afternoon.

Cooperatives Defended By Prairie Farmer

This editorial from the Prairie Farmer gives some information about the successful operations of the Farmers National Grain Corporation.

Attacks against the Federal Farm Board and Cooperative marketing have recently been directed against the Farmer's National Grain Corporation and salaries paid its managers. Socalled "big business" interests have intimated that the reason the grain corporation was so successful was because it was nursed with public funds. Directors of the corporation have filed a statement with the senate committee on agriculture which shows that during its first two years of existence, from October 29, 1929, to October 31, 1931, the corporation has purchased and handled more than 390,000,000 bushels of grain at a cost of less than a cent per bushel, including a total cost for salaries and wages in all departments and branches of "not to exceed one-fifth of one cent on all bushels bought, handled, and/or sold. This cost included the organization period and expenses incidental thereto. Net earnings of the corporation after setting aside adequate reserves, represent a gain to organized grain producers of 2 2-3 cents per bushel. No public money is or has been used in the payment of any salaries of officers or employees of the Farmers National Grain Corporation," the report says.

The success of the Farmers National Grain Corporation has been due in a good part to the management of a capable executive, George S. Milnor. He came to the corporation with a record of success in private grain business. He has used that ability in the interest of grain growers.

Too many cooperatives have failed because of inadequate management.

The direction of a marketing association is not a job for a retired farmer who may have ample time but little ability along marketing lines. When farmers learn that they must pay a manager a salary equal to that which he can make in the open trade, and that only the best man is able to direct the destinies of a cooperative, then cooperative marketing will be successful.

Gossip about high salaries paid managers of cooperatives is camouflage to hide the high profits which old-line traders take from handling farmers commodities.
