

Grass Valley School Notes

MARIE HENRY, EDITOR
The student body held a meeting last Friday afternoon for the purpose of nominating student body officers. Among those nominated were: President: Bruce Alley, Loren Beardsley and Genevieve Beardsley. Vice President: Sylvia Coyle, Earle Shipley, Virgil Perry. Secretary: Owen Eaken, Norma Garrett, Lila Faye Boyce and Sylvia Coyle. Treasurer: Earle Shipley, Mildred Alley and Hays Boyce. Sergeant-At-Arms: Henry Roth and Owen Eaken. Yell leader: Taylor Baker and Earle Shipley. Editor: Genevieve Beardsley, Eva Perry and Florence Young.

The Grass Valley Tennis girls defeated the Moro Tennis girls in some very good games on the local court last Friday afternoon. Pauline Newcomb and Genevieve Beardsley defeated Evelyn Hastings and Genevieve Nahouse 7-5 in doubles. Eva Perry defeated Marjorie Nahouse 6-3 in singles. Norma Garrett and Charlotte Ruggles defeated Marjorie Nahouse and Evelyn Hastings 6-2 in doubles. It was quite hard to judge which way the ball would go due to the wind which was blowing. The girls will journey to The Dalles Thursday and to Moro Friday.

Achievement Day will be held next Wednesday afternoon, May 25 and will consist of the following program: 9:00 Exhibit—Showing what the students have accomplished.

10:00 Mock Trial—Presented by the Civics class.

12:00 Pot Luck Dinner.

1:30 Program presented by the grade school and high school.

2:30 Tennis Tournaments.

8:00 Three act play.

KENT SCHOOL NOTES

Hester Lyons—Editor. "Oh, Kay!" which was presented last Saturday night by the junior senior classes was well attended by an enthusiastic audience which declared the play one of the best that had ever been produced here.

Entrance receipts amounted to $37.20. Deducting $10.00 for royalty and $5.00 for incidental expenses, the classes cleared about $22.00.

The play, "Deacon Dabbs" which was to have been presented by the freshman-sophomore classes next Saturday night, May 21 has been postponed until Thursday evening, May 26. There will be no admission charged for the play which will take the place of the Commencement exercises which were to have been held Friday evening, May 27.

Commencement exercises for Kent High school will be held Thursday night, May 26, instead of Friday night as had been announced.

The members of the grade girls' Cooking Club had their last meeting at the home of Geraldine Norton last Friday afternoon. Cake, jello and lemonade were served. Also the boys Camp Cookery Club held a meeting Friday afternoon. The boys were divided into different groups and cooked tomato soup, macaroni and cheese, and cornstarch pudding.

Superintendent Bakes and Miss Cowgill visited school last Tuesday. Miss Cowgill gave an interesting talk on different ways to cook, which was enjoyed by all of the cooking girls.

The boys of the Camp Cookery Club took in $2.45 last Saturday night when they sold candy between the acts of the play.

The intermediate room has two horned toads and a frog for nature study.

Visitors in the intermediate room last week include: Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Carl Gregg, Ted Kelly, Arnold Dellinger, Mr. Bakes and Miss Cowgill.

After the sixth grade had finished its Oregon History the class divided into two groups for visualizing events and Helen Sather and Helen Wilson fixed the sandtable and there pictured the important events in Oregon History while Rose Ellen Barnett, Maxine Pluemke, and Edna McKay made a moving picture reel showing the important events of Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Will be held Friday night the 27th of May in the high school auditorium with Francis V. Galloway, of The Dalles, as speaker of the occasion.

There is a total of 45 students who are finishing their high school courses in Sherman county this year. Twenty four are girls and 21 are boys.

Grass Valley will graduate one of the largest classes in the history of the school when sixteen seniors will finish their school work. Due to sickness during the school year their graduation will be postponed until June 2nd nearly a week later than the other schools of the county. The class night activities will be held on the night of May 27th and the usual class history, class prophecy and class will, will be read for the entertainment of the school patrons. Rev. S. L. Boyce will give the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 29th at 11 o'clock.

Nine of the sixteen graduates are girls. They are: Pearl Bell, Cynthia Bell, Ethel Barnett, Helen Engstrom, Pauline Newcomb, Doris Evelyn Olds, Marietta Perry, Maxine Rolfe, and Zela Ruggles. The seven boys are: Vern Erasmus, Glen Baker, Dale Baker, Willard Barnett, Oker Perry, Orville Ruggles, Don Smith and Claydon Vinton.

Wasco

Saturday evening the camp fire girls will present a 2 act play in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. The title of this play is "How Beth Won the Camp Fire Honor." The proceeds from this play go toward paying the summer camp funds.

Tuesday was clean-up day in Wasco. The stores were closed between 2 and 4 o'clock. At noon the school children put on a pot parade after which there was a pot luck lunch on the Legion open air dance floor. In the afternoon the Firemen played the high school in base ball and succeeded in beating them to a tune of 15-5.

Saturday evening the Juniors sponsored their annual Junior Prom. It was an enjoyable event. The hall was decorated in the Senior class colors of Salmon and Silver. The punch bowl was in the form of an old garden well.

Beginning Monday evening the Came Fire Girls will be seen canvassing the town in the annual Poppy drive which is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. The Auxiliary has 375 poppies which are to be sold in and about the community this year. Don't forget to help the World War veterans.

As a correction in last weeks paper Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson were guests at the home of Mrs. J. H. Johnson on Mother's Day.

Monday evening the mothers of the Senior class of the Wasco High school gave a dinner in honor of the class of '32. This most delightful banquet was given in the lodge hall and was attended by the class members, the high school faculty, and parents of the senior class. The dinner was served by the members of the Junior class. After dinner, Mr. McCulloch acting as toast master, called on all the Seniors and many of the parents for after dinner talks. Mr. Manning made a short address in behalf of the faculty, to the members of the Senior class.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Gilder and family spent the week end with friends in Spary, Oregon. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dutton in Fossil.

Miss Maggie Triplitt spent the week end visiting in Kent, and while there attended the high school play that was given Saturday night.

The Tuesday Study club had their final meeting at the home of Mrs. John McDermid Tuesday.
