MORO SCHOOL NOTES
Gordon Fraser, editor.

The Moro volley ball team vanquished the Rufus team for the second time. This time, however, it was by a larger score. The final count being 21 to 43 in Moro's favor. Both teams showed excellent team work with the ball being in the air for long periods of time. The first half ended with Moro in the lead to 27.

The Moro line-up: Peetz, Amidon, M. Nahouse, Sayrs, Johnson, and Stephens.
Substitutes: McRea, Pinkerton, Cothran, and Nahouse.

Grass Valley is now the lone obstacle in the path of the Championship bound Moro volley ball team as they defeated Wasco Tuesday night to add another victory to their undefeated list. Moro served first and before they lost the ball a total of 15 points had been amassed. The game ended with Moro in the lead 19 to 44. The Moro line-up: Sayrs, Stephens, Peetz Johnson, M. Nahouse and Amidon. Substitutes: McRea Cothran, G. Nahouse and Pinkerton.

The parents of the foot ball boys gave them a delightful banquet Saturday evening. Mr. Walker, Mr. Stephens, and Mr. Guinan spoke to the assembled parents and football players while Mr. Cunliff entertained them with his saxophone. After the banquet those who attended were invited to the high school gymnasium, by the high school girls, where a dance was given. Paul May, Mr. Nahouse and Melvin Baker furnished the music.

A football game will be played Thanksgiving between the Moro All-Stars and the Wasco All-Stars. These teams are made up of former-high school players and men about the towns who still feel capable of playing the national sport.

Auxiliary Meets and Sews For Needy

The American Legion Auxiliary met on Wednesday, November 16th at the home of the president, Florence Martin. The afternoon was spent in visiting and sewing for community service. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Vernon Flatt's on Wednesday, Nov. 30 at 1:30 p.m. Notices of all meetings will appear in this paper unless it be a special meeting. No cards are being sent out. Those who are not members but eligible are always welcome at these meetings. Mrs. Ella Thompson is one of our charter members and our membership chairman; visit her and find out what it means to be an American Legion Auxiliary member. The following classes of women are eligible for membership, mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of members of the Legion, widows, mothers, sisters and daughters of men who lost their lives in the world war, or of veterans who have died since discharge from war service, and women who themselves were regularly enlisted in the army or navy during the war—such as army nurses and navy yeomanettes.
