Good Bait

An angler sat on the bank of a canal in Yorkshire, watching his float. Presently a bishop came along with his pretty daughter. They stopped to look on.

"My friend," said the bishop, "I perceive that you are a fisher."
"Aye," grunted the angler.

"I also am a fisher."
"Eh, is that soa?" said the man with the rod. "Well, Ah'm pleased to meet a fellow sportsman."

"Ah, but there is a misconception in your mind. You are a fisher of fishes, but I am a fisher of men."
The angler turned and surveyed the daughter.

"Aye," he said at last, "and with bait like you you ought to get suthin' good!"

"These are wonderful trousers I Saxony, made into a suit in Berlin wearing."
"They look very ordinary."
"But the wool came from Australia. English merchants sold it to a Scotch factory, it was woven in Saxony."
"Nothing wonderful about that."
"No; the wonder is that so many people can get a living out of them when I have not yet paid for them."

Approaches---it comes running to some who are busy with their own businesses and worries---it comes slowly to others who are troubled over what the future might bring,

But slowly or swiftly it will be recorded event by event in the pages of the Sherman County Journal.

As in 1932 your weekly, county paper will faithfully record the personal happenings, the condition of crops, the community and county problems, and the events that occur in the industry we live by.
