

3,000,000 FAMILIES HELPED BY RED CROSS

Distress in All Areas Met by Giving Food, Clothing and Other Aid.

More than 3,000,000 families throughout the nation were given relief of various types by the American Red Cross in the past winter, to aid them in their distress caused by unemployment, disaster or other misfortune.

A major relief task, due to unemployment and other unusual conditions in the bituminous mining counties in twenty states, was met by the Red Cross chapters alone, or participating with other agencies. In these 143 counties, the Red Cross aided 80,000 families through giving groceries, school lunches, clothing, flour and other necessities to combat privation.

Flour, milled from government wheat turned over to the Red Cross by Congress, was given to 15,000,000 persons in the period from March 8 to June 30, the close of the fiscal year. Flour will continue to be given through the winter of 1932-33, and Red Cross chapters also will give cotton clothing, made from government cotton, turned over to the Red Cross for distribution.

"The Red Cross faces the busiest winter since the days of the World War," Chairman John Barton Payne said. "It is organized in virtually every one of the 3,072 counties in the United States, and will co-operate with all agencies to meet distress wherever found. The flour has proved of great benefit, and the cotton clothing will be given wide distribution."

While carrying on nation-wide these unemployment and other relief measures, the Red Cross also was engaged in its regular peace-time activities in public health nursing, service to ex-service men and their families, teaching home hygiene, life saving and first aid. The Junior Red Cross, composed of almost 7,000,000 school children, also rallied to the support of the society's relief efforts, and the children aided others of their age in practical ways, formed sewing and food canning classes, and were of great assistance in chapter relief work.

While the wheat and cotton were given by the U. S. Government, no money was provided to pay for the necessary work entailed. The Red Cross will meet this expense of almost $500,000 from its treasury. Citizens can aid by joining as members of the local Red Cross chapter during the roll call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

Clothes for the Needy

Women volunteers sewing for the needy under direction of the Red Cross produced 246,000 garments last year, and will produce millions of garments in the winter of 1932-33. These will be from the millions of yards of cotton cloth distributed by the national Red Cross from the 500,000 bales of cotton turned over to the organization by Congress. Cloth was sent to all chapters requesting it, and later it was proposed to send some simple ready-made garments, including trousers, overalls, underwear, stockings and sox.

Huge Task of Nurses

Red Cross public health nurses, who work in hundreds of communities, are meeting the greatest demands in history for their services, due to the depression. Visits in maternity cases, protecting the health of infants and children, and aiding mothers in distress due to unemployment of the bread-winners have taken them into thousands of homes. The nurses made 1,357,000 visits to or on behalf of individuals, and inspected 949,000 school children. More than 58,000 adults were instructed in home hygiene and care of the sick.

Blind Readers Get Books

Books in braille for reading by the blind are made by women under Red Cross direction. Last year 2,813 such books were produced in single copy, and 3,528 in double copies. Fiction, biography, history, economics and school books were among those printed in braille. The Red Cross gives them to libraries for free distribution to blind readers.

Red Cross to Enlist Great Army of Members to Fight Distress

Last year 4,004,459 men and women joined the American Red Cross as members during the annual roll call, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. A peace-time army even greater than this will be needed in 1932-33 to support and carry on the nationwide relief work of the Red Cross. There are 3,639 Red Cross Chapters and they have 10,000 branches.

Classic Sports Frocks

For hot days in the country the designers' universal offering is the sleeveless sports frock of cotton pique, shantung or silk pique in colors as varied as a box of bonbons. Powder blue, daffodil yellow, water green, shell pink and saffron are included in the selections.

at seeding time in the spring or if finances are hard to obtain—a condition that is almost sure to prevail—it is probable that hundreds of acres of land will remain in summer fallow instead of being sown.

This, of course, presuming that the wheat is frozen out, a presumption that is not yet a certainty.

Cost of Government Increased Since 1917

The payments for operation and maintenance of the general departments of Oregon amounted to $14,971,229, or $15.06 per capita. This includes $446,124, apportionments for education to the minor civil divisions of the State. In 1930 the per capita for operation and maintenance of general departments was $14.33 and in 1917, $5.90. The payments for operation and maintenance of public service enterprises in 1931 amounted to $828, interest on debt, $2,762,414; and outlays for permanent improvements, $12,279,541. The total payments, therefore, for operation and maintenance of general departments and public service enterprises, for interest and outlays, were $29,579,912. Of this amount $21,568 represents payments by a State department or enterprise to another on account of services. The totals include all payments for the year, whether made from current revenues or from the proceeds of bond issues.

Of the governmental costs reported above, $15,250,217 was for highways, $4,182,620 being for maintenance and $11,067,597 for construction.

CONTROLLING WEIGHT

There are numerous ways and means for controlling weight. These may be grouped under the following heads—fake remedies, ductless gland therapy, exercise and baths, and special diets. The latter one or cutting down the food intake must always be considered the reliable course to follow in weight reduction. The exact form of the diet is not essential as that it be well balanced and low in fuel value. Extremely one-sided diets are liable to cause ill health and malnutrition, because of lack of nutritional essentials, if used for any length of time.

For the ordinary overweight individual, it is best to effect reduction by cutting down on the concentrated fuel foods (sugar, starchy and fatty foods) and to keep on with an otherwise balanced diet. The diet to be safe over fairly long periods, should supply liberal amounts of good protein, vitamins and mineral. This is best done through the use of milk, fruits and vegetables as the foundation of the diet.

A diet guide called 'Safely Control Your Weight', written by Dr. Herman N. Bundesen of Chicago, is a safe one to use. The purpose of this little book is to help one attain and maintain that weight which is best suited to his build. To quote from Dr. Bundesen in his discussion on the essential foods in a reducing diet, "Certain foods must be kept in your diet regardless of how many others are eliminated to reduce present

Go-Getter Disparaged

A young man is recommended to me as being alert, on his toes, a live wire, a go-getter. Alert for what? On his toes for what? What is he wiring? What is he getting? When I think of the marvelous and unendingly persistent patience of a Fra Angelico, a Chardin, a Cezanne or a Matisse, I wonder how my friend expects ever to produce a masterpiece. The great things of this world were never made this way.—Cyril Kay-Scott in the Rocky Mountain News.
