Subject: He Saved Others.
Subject: The Seven Sayings from the Cross.

This year 1933 is 1900 years after the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ. He was put to death at the age of 33 years by the cross on Calvary. The world owes more to Jesus Christ than it does to all the heroes of men. His teaching, his truth, his spirit, his sacrifice, has been the greatest transforming power among men. If this is true, how are we treating him?
All are cordially invited to attend the church services and to make use of the reading room in the rear of the church building, which is open daily where all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

Mrs. Jones—Does the baby take after his father Mrs. Smith?

Mrs. Smith—Yes, very much. We have just taken his bottle away from him, and you know the little fellow tried to creep right down the cellar stairs.

Mrs. Stewart—What are your sons acquiring at college, Mrs. Sanders?

Mrs. Sanders—Robert has acquired sinist' trouble and athlete's foot at Yale, and all that Richard has acquired so far at Boston Tech is a severe case of technocracy.

Goofus—If you stood in my shoes, what would you do?

Rufus—I'd give them a shine to start with.

Flapper Flo—Teacher, George Washington must have had a wonderful memory.

Teacher—Why so, Flora?

Flo—Cause most every where you go you see a monument erected to his memory.

Is your dog affectionate?

Yes, indeed; I've sold him three times, and each time he has come back to me.

Jack—That dollar you gave me yesterday was a counterfeit. What do you mean by that?

Jack—Well, didn't you say to me I want a dollar and I want it bad?

"Bill, I want to give you a little friendly advice."

"It's alright with me; but remember I don't stand ready to back it up with any money."

NEW SPRING WEAVES
BY CHERIE NICHOLAS

This attractive dress which is so timely for immediate wear is of special interest in that the materials of which it is made carry a message of what's new in spring weaves. It is made of a ribbed sheer bengberg. As its name implies it has a slight ribbed surface which distinguishes it from the ordinary smooth sheers, greatly enhancing its appearance. The gown here modeled is navy with contrasting color in the lining of the jabot and the patterning of the scarf-print sleeves. Navy is making a big spurge for spring and reports from Paris continue to come in regarding its importance. Considerable mention is also made of light blue which is a featured color for the new blouses and accessories to be worn with spring suits and ensembles.

DESSERTS THAT SATISFY

When desserts are considered as another avenue for getting three of the protective foods in the day's diet—milk, fruits, eggs—they become at once nutritious and satisfying. Eggs being more plentiful, desserts with a custard foundation are among the popular ones. Custards made with milk and eggs and combined with fresh or canned fruits, offer a variety of appetizing combinations.

Desserts provide a way too of getting iron into the diet through the use of molasses. Molasses is a rich and inexpensive source of iron and affords many delicious ways of supplying this important mineral to the diet. Gingerbread, an ever popular dessert, molasses cup cakes and hot breads are all good ways of getting molasses into the menu.

A few nutritious dessert recipes, sure to satisfy, are:

Molasses Brown Betty
One half cup molasses
One half cup cold water
Juice and rind of one-half lemon
One cup sugar
One teaspoon cinnamon
One-fourth teaspoon cloves
Two cups dry crumbs
One half cup butter
Six tart apples

Make a syrup out of the molasses, water, sugar, spices, lemon juice, cooking briskly for three minutes. Wash apples but do not peel, slice thin. Alternate layers of bread crumbs in a well buttered baking dish and pour the hot syrup over them and bake in a moderate oven until apples are tender.

Prune Filled Custard
One and one-half cups of milk
Two eggs
Three tablespoons sugar
One fourth teaspoon salt
One half teaspoon vanilla

Heat milk in top of double boiler. Beat eggs with sugar and salt. Add milk gradually to eggs, stirring constantly. Return mixture to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly until mixture coats spoon. Remove at once from boiler. Add flavoring. Pour into sherbet glasses. Chill thoroughly. When ready to serve, top with a generous tablespoon of Prune Filling, made by blending thoroughly one half cup chopped prunes, 3 tablespoons sugar and one tablespoon lemon juice.

Coffee Froth
Two eggs
Three-fourths cup scalded milk
Pinch of salt
Three-fourths cup of hot coffee
One-half cup sugar
One tablespoon cornstarch
One tablespoon cold water
One half cup whipping cream

Beat egg yolks with sugar. Add scalded milk and coffee slowly, beating constantly. Add cornstarch, which has been mixed with cold water. Cook in double boiler until mixture coats spoon. Place in parfait or sherbet glasses. When cold, top with spoonfuls of whipped cream.

Custard Fruit Pie
One large pastry shell baked
Three eggs
One-half cup sugar
Pinch salt
Two cups milk
Two cups cooked prunes (or fresh strawberries)

One half cup whipping cream
Scald the milk in double boiler. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar and salt and add gradually to milk, stirring constantly. Pour into pastry shell and bake thirty minutes in slow oven (350 F). When pie is cool arrange cooked prunes, or fresh, sweetened strawberries, over the custard, and top with sweetened whipped cream.

Father, looking over his son's expenses at college—How's this! "A pair of rubbers, $50." That's outrageous. Explain it.
Son—It was for two massage artists who rubbed me while I was training for the team.
