SUCCESS OF THE Wheat League

For the seventh time the wheat growers of the Columbia basin counties of Oregon are convening to talk over their troubles and consolidate themselves into a closer unity for mutual aid.

The first years when wheat was high, methods of production were most prominent and that committee of the league had the most attendants.

The McNary Haugen plan of the Coolidge administration, the farm board plan, the co-operative movement and the present governmental agencies for farm relief have all received the careful consideration of the wheat league.

Wheat farmers are an intelligent class with an ability to judge their position in society as it is and as it should be.

This meeting should be no exception to this general rule. Finance, transportation and wheat marketing are the most important questions before men now.

MONEY MADNESS

The muddle about money is attracting exceeding interest these early winter days when the hot stove league is in the first part of its session.

The sound money advocates are being accused of trying to stabilize the dollar at the old rate of exchange which is not possible without considerable suffering.

There are objections to the commodity dollar that is in prospect although the president has given no indication that he will adopt that plan.

All the evils of the capitalistic system—and they are many—are being ascribed to the gold standard of money; an assertion that cannot be proven.

Lifting debtors out of their condition by changing the gold content of the dollar may be of temporary benefit, especially to the farming element.

Greece has greased the skids for Mr. Insull. Ha. Well Mr. Insull greased the skids for many men in his day and he can't object.

A short time ago we had lots of liquor and it was illegal to sell it. Now, according to press reports, there is little liquor since it is legal to sell it.

Mae West says she will slap the next man that holds her up. Worse things could happen to a guy at that.

A few more talks from the president and Gov. Rolph will not be "sunny Jim" any more.

GRASS VALLEY SCHOOL NOTES
Kenneth Todd—Editor.

Under the direction of Mrs. Rowe a girl's league was formed, in the student body. The purpose of this league is to promote character, encourage scholarship, render service to other activities, and give training in the field of leadership.

Officers elected for the league were Helen Stark, president; Vivian Reynolds, vice president; Mildred Alley, secretary; Janet Wilcox, treasurer. A program committee was appointed by the president consisting of Charlotte Beardsley, Emma Ellen Fortner and Dorothy Olds.

The high school paper the Tiger Tattler was published and issued this week for the second time and was a much better edition than the first, both as to material and printing.

POPE

KENT SCHOOL NOTES

Margaret Dunlap, Editor.

The high school play "Tea for Tom" is a three act comedy of the present day. The Story is as follows:

When the parents of two young people endeavor to regulate their future, it is but natural for the youngsters to rebel. Alice and her chum exchange identities. Stanley and his companion stop at the hotel and the deafness of the proprietress is the cause of their being mistaken one for the other. A double love affair develops and upon the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Covington it is learned that the match-making plans have materialized satisfactorily.

The play will start at 8:15 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Admission at the door will be 20c and 30c but if the tickets are purchased previously from a student they will cost only 15c and 25c.

The Thanksgiving program given last Wednesday night was well attended and successfully presented.

It is reported that our school building is to receive some badly needed repairs. We hope it will be soon.

Cecil Norton is taking the part of Pete Kirby in the play. This was formerly Robert Helyer's part.

The 7th and 8th grade room have begun practice on a Christmas play. The title is "Red and the Christmas Whoppers."

"Prosperity" savings accounts.

Those who are looking to the return of prosperity can help themselves along the way by a Savings Account at The Dalles Branch of the strong United States National Bank.
