

Wheat: U. S. Exports to Europe and Production in Europe

WHEN Europe produces more wheat for herself she buys less from the United States. That is the nature of the world wheat problem. In 1921, when many wheat ships were busy carrying the bread grain to Europe, that continent produced 1,200,000,000 bushels. Since 1921, European countries have been producing more and more of their own wheat and the wheat traffic across the Atlantic has slowed up. In fact, efforts of European countries to supply their needs, and their buying wheat from other countries has just about cut off our wheat exports, as the line boat for 1933 represented in the chart indicates. The United States doesn't want to withdraw from the export market, but rather than have grain piled up in the United States or be sold at less than cost, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has begun a wheat plan which will reduce acreage in the United States and bring production down to the point where it can all be marketed at a profit to the farmer.

OREGON STATE NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers

Rainier—The white line on the Columbia river highway from Portland to Rainier is to be continued to Astoria by the state highway department as fast as weather conditions will permit.

Merlin—Rogue River valley grange and Redwood Highway grange, in Josephine county, have joined the Merlin grange in a movement to maintain a reduced scale of salaries for county officials.

Ocean Lake—Evidence of an early spring or no winter are noted here by appearance of Scotch broom buds. Harold Kuhn this week picked a full blown rhododendron bloom which was growing on Floral avenue.

Bend—To combat a threatened outbreak of hydrophobia, City Health Officer Fowler of Bend has ordered that all dogs in the city must be either tied up or muzzled. Two unknown cases of rabies have developed.

Eugene—A memorial to the late Mrs. Adelaide Lilley, for more than 27 years librarian at the Eugene public library, has been voted by the library board. The memorial will be in the nature of an appropriation of $100 for outstanding non-fiction books.

McMinnville—Although the direct costs of government in McMinnville for 1934 will show a reduction of 42.7 per cent, as compared with 1933, there will be an increase of 3 per cent in taxation, owing to an increase in warrant indebtedness and bond retirement.

Pendleton—The Umatilla county court, the city of Pendleton, and the Pendleton water commission will join in an application for a federal loan for Umatilla river flood control and irrigation. Per flood control the sum of $2,500,000 will be asked for irrigation $500,000.

Salem—The stocking of Oregon streams and lakes with trout in October exceeded all records for the past year, according to Matt Ryckman, superintendent of hatcheries. A total of 2,767,399 trout and steelhead were planted. The larger portion were 5 inches or greater in length.

Baker—Building is enjoying a boom in Pine valley, Baker county. Hardly a week passes that new buildings are not started or old ones repaired. Floyd Bowerman is constructing a large fireproof garage at his farm home on Clear creek. This is the first private garage of its kind to be built in the valley.

Astoria—Subscription of funds with which to purchase a silver plaque for the new U. S. cruiser Astoria which is to be launched at the Bremerton navy yards December 16 is near completion with receipt of a donation from Vincent Astor, New York. He is a great grandson of John Jacob Astor, for whom this city was named. Astor forwarded $100 to Mayor J. C. Ted Brook.

Rhododendron in Bloom

Gold Beach—A large sprig of brilliant lavender rhododendron was brought in town from the south slopes of Grizzly mountain. Asaleas are reported blooming up the Rogue river.

Radish Weighs 15 Pounds

Nelsoot—Charles Nelson, postmaster, is exhibiting a gigantic white radish, grown by C. H. Skinner of Nelsoot. The radish had stalk measured six feet and the radish itself weighs 15 pounds.

Hops Bring $5 Cents

Mount Angel—A. J. Ray & Son purchased the P. J. May 130-hale lot of early culling hogs here at $5 cents. John Medley has been reported having sold about 600 hales at a price not reported.

Sawmill to Be Removed

Glendale—The George L. Jantzer sawmill, located in the Astoria district east of Glendale for the past 13 years, is being moved to a new location on the Crater Lake highway near Prospect. It will be ready for operation in the spring and will cut pine exclusively.

Fire-Tax Plant Busy

St. Helens—Sufficient orders have been received to keep the Fire-Tax plant in operation until December 25, according to R. W. Simerall, recently appointed general superintendent. In addition to government orders for CCC camps, the Armour company has placed orders for insulating board for refrigerator cars.

Turkeys Shipped at Baker

Baker—Baker county shipped 5100 pounds of turkeys last Monday night from the Pacific Fruit & Produce company warehouse. The car will complete loading at Hermiston and from there will be sent to Los Angeles. The Turkey Growers' association advised local owners 10 cents a pound on birds and will pay the balance when the turkeys are sold. Farmers will receive all less actual handling cost.

HI-WAYS TO HEALTH

OREGON DAIRY COUNCIL

Not only has the house wife to plan and make or choose her own Christmas gifts but usually has to solve this annual problem for every member of her family. A gift that a child has made will be much more appreciated than any thing which is purchased for him to give.

"What more" logical gift is there than a box of home made candies which the children have made and packed? To add variety to the assortment, the cooking of some of the candy will require supervision but many need no cooking and are easily made and shaped.

For the grownup looking for new ideas in candies there is a new folder "How to make commercial candies in your home" which will be sent to you on request to this paper, or by writing me in care of the Dairy Council in Portland.

Some candy recipes that children can make:

Peanut Butter Fudge
Two cups sugar
Three-fourths cup rich milk
Four tsp. Peanut butter
One teaspoon vanilla
One eighth teaspoon salt
Boil sugar and milk to soft ball stage (238 degrees F.) Let stand with out beating until cool. Add peanut butter, vanilla and salt. Beat until creamy. Pour into buttered pan and cut in squares.

Butter Scotch
Two cups brown sugar
One cup water
Two tsp. vinegar
One-half cup butter
Boil together sugar, water and vinegar for ten minutes; then add butter and boil till hard crack (310 degrees F.) Turn into buttered pan. Mark off into squares while still warm.

Brownie Creams
One cup confectioner's sugar (6X or 10X)
One cup brown sugar
One tsp. vanilla
Two tsp. eggs
Two tabp. butter
Mix all ingredients together and work with the hands until smooth and creamy. Shape by spoonfuls into balls, set aside for one hour. Dip in melted chocolate and roll in toasted coconut.

Brazil Nut Fondant Stuffing
To one and one-third cups (one-half pound) confectioner's sugar, add One-eighth tsp. vanilla, two tabp. cream and two-third cup (3 ounces) chopped Brazil nut meats. Place only a small quantity of the fondant in each prune or date so that the filling may be completely enclosed by the date and kept moist. Brazil nuts are easily shelled if the nuts are steamed for 10 minutes before cracking.
