Brief Resume of Happenings
of the Week Collected for
Our Readers

Albany—C. H. Stewart, one of Linn county's prominent pioneers and citizens, has celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary at his home in Albany.

Albany—Linn county's delinquency on the 1932 tax roll stands at $287,156. The total roll was $919,071, of which $540,696 has been collected.

Newberg—The Newberg pulp mill will start full operations about January 20. The mill will run four 8-hour shifts and employ over 100 men in the mill.

Salem—According to County Engineer Swart, the Willamette river just opposite Salem is getting ready to cut a new channel, which will cripple Salem's dock facilities.

Yamhill—With a number of applications on hand for old age pensions, the Yamhill county court, with a budget appropriation of only $7000 is limited in what it can grant.

Astoria—An ordinance to permit the taxpayers of Astoria to pay delinquent taxes with bonds, warrants or bond coupons will be introduced at the next session of the city council.

Roseburg—The city of Roseburg has made application for a federal appropriation of $19,000 to be expended under the civil works program in the improvement of the municipal airport.

St. Helens—An effort is being made by Columbia county farmers to raise sufficient money to maintain the office of county agricultural agent. No appropriation was made for it in the 1934 budget.

Maiheur—Tax levies in Maiheur county for 1934 show a slight increase over 1933. The levy for state and county purposes is 20.55 mills, as compared with 18.9 mills in 1933. The increase is due to lower valuations.

Baker—The body of William J. Jayton has been found on his farm at New Bridge, Baker county. He had apparently dropped dead in a field half a mile from his home. He was among the early settlers in the Wingville district.

Eugene—Plans are being worked out to establish a federal relief transient hotel in Eugene. Portland and Klamath Falls have been designated as the main points for transient relief hotels but lesser establishments are planned for interior cities.

The Dalles—Vigorous opposition will be made to a dam at Bonneville that does not allow ocean vessels to pass through it, by members of the Inland Empire Maritime conference. The Dalles Chamber of Commerce and the Dalles port commission.

Eugene—A maximum work week of 44 hours and a minimum store-open week of 56 hours are sought in a petition being circulated among Eugene business men. The petition is sponsored by the Central Labor council and all organized labor groups of the city.

Salem—Approximately 10 per cent. of the population of Marion county is enrolled for possible relief work, according to E. T. Barnes, manager of the national re-employment office. Out of a population of something over 50,000 the number of men and women enrolled is 5036.

Philomath—Residents of Philomath and vicinity have asked the Benton county court to clear and grade about two miles of the Marys Peak road that leaves the Alsea highway one mile from Philomath. The road would make some 30,000,000 feet of timber accessible.

Klamath Falls—A road crew working at the old natural bridge over Lost River, in Klamath county, has uncovered six skeletons, presumably those of Indians buried years ago. The bodies were found where the old Applegate trail crossed Lost river and at the spot where the first shot was fired in the Modoc war.

Coquille—Vic McAllister of Coquille, convicted of involuntary manslaughter, has been sentenced by Circuit Judge Brand to serve four years in prison and be placed on probation for five years, during which period he must contribute $20 a month to the family of Lewis Coombs of Delmar, whom he killed in an automobile accident.

Woman's Trip Eventful
Harrisburg—Mrs. Joe McIsaac of Great Falls, Mont., who is visiting with relatives here, had an unusual trip by rail a few days ago on her way to Harrisburg, being in four wrecks and not getting hurt.

Lumber Plant to Open
Astoria—The Uptegrove Lumber company, which moved its operations to Astoria from the south and east several months ago, will go into full production next week on a one-eight-hour shift basis, Harold Turley, general manager of the Astoria plant, announced. The plant is now at 60 per cent of capacity on the one-shift basis and when it goes into full production will employ about fifty-five men.

HI WAYS TO HEALTH

OREGON DAIRY COUNCIL

Use bread to the last crumb is the slogan which can be adopted by most housewives as the possibilities for using bread crumbs are about numberless. Transforming left-over breads of all kinds into delicious puddings, croquettes, timbales, stuffings, scallops, fondues and au gratin dishes can become much the same kind of thrill as making an attractive suit for the young son out of a discarded top-coat of the father's. Bread crumbs are really a quickly available form of flour that is seasoned, cooked and ready for the baking dish or cooking kettle. When crumbs are combined with milk, butter and eggs, they contain the necessary protective elements, vitamins and minerals which make them truly nutritious foods.

and bread broken in small pieces and cooked with 2 tbsp. of butter until browned. Turn into a buttered baking dish, cover with buttered bread crumbs and bake in hot oven until the crumbs are brown.

Some recipes utilizing the bread crumbs are:
Corn au Gratin
Two cups canned corn
Two small green peppers
One onion, finely chopped
One-fourth cup of butter
One-fourth cup flour
Two tsp. salt
One cup milk
Two egg yolks
One cup dried bread
Two tablespoons butter
One cup buttered breadcrumbs
One-half cup grated cheese
Cook pepper, onion and butter five minutes. Add flour, and seasonings and stir until well blended. Add milk stirring constantly. Bring to boiling point and add cheese, corn, egg yolks

Convent Pie
One-half cup macaroni, small pieces
One cup milk
One cup bread crumbs
One-fourth cup butter
Three eggs beaten
One-half tsp. salt
One-half cup grated cheese
One teaspoon onion juice
A little chopped celery
Cook macaroni. Scald one cup milk and pour over bread crumbs. Add all other ingredients. Butter pan thoroughly and turn in mixture. Set mold in pan of water and bake in slow oven until firm in center, about three-fourths hour.
Molasses Brown Betty
One-half cup molasses
One-half cup cold water
Juice and rind of one-half lemon
One cup sugar
One teaspoon cinnamon
One-fourth teaspoon cloves
Two cups dry crumbs
One-half cup butter
Six tart-apples
Make a syrup out of the molasses, water, sugar, spices, lemon juice, cooking briskly for 3 minutes. Wash apples but do not peel, slice thin. Alternate layers of apples and bread crumbs in a well-buttered baking dish, and pour hot syrup over them and bake in a moderate oven until apples are tender.

DEAN ACCEPTS

Corvallis—Dr. W. A. Schoenfeld, dean of agriculture at Oregon State college, has accepted appointment to the board of directors of the regional office of the Farm Credit administration in Spokane. Dean Schoenfeld takes the place of Dr. E. M. Ehrhart who was recently made president of the federal land bank and thus ineligible to serve also as director.

The regional board of directors, under the new administrative setup, has supervision of all four of the divisions of the farm credit administration for this district. These are the federal land bank, the intermediate credit bank, the bank for co-operatives and the production credit corporation. The work as a board member will not interfere with Dean Schoenfeld's present duties at the college.

RUFUS SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Duvall spent the week end in Portland visiting.
The Rufus girls lost to Grass Valley by a score of 18 to 10, in a hard fought game. The boys, on the other hand, won by the same margin of points, the score being 20 to 12.
Friday, January 12 the boys will meet Goldendale on the home floor. Following this game, the Rufus and Ione town teams will play.
Dufur will be the first out-of-county opponent for both the girls and the boys. We play there Saturday after the Goldendale game.
The Girl Scouts are planning a meeting and party for Friday. Business meeting will take place immediately after school and the party will follow.
