

Mothers of Men

Mothers of Men, to-day we salute you
And humbly before you we pledge our love
On earth and in heaven, ye Mothers, for us,
And accept our proffers both here and above.

Mothers of Men, has there ever been hero
Among the creation of God's mighty hand;
Who near you could stand and say, I'm an equal,
In the strife and the stress of this battle-scarred land?

Mothers of Men, to you has been given
An honor untold by tongue or by pen;
For next to the army of God's consecrated
March valiantly on the Mothers of Men.

Mothers of Men, if the army moves on, ward,
If the heart and the word bring solace renowned,
If the wisdom of Ages brings light to the night,
Then, Mothers of Men, to you is the crown.

Mothers of Men, the world has seen progress
Since first from the hand of the Maker it came
The sons and the daughters of earth first transgression
And smoother the path, and the rough ways more plain.

Mothers of Men, to you must be given
The palm and the glory of the good there has been;
For earth since creation has never yet boasted
Of heroes so valiant as Mothers of Men.
