CLUB NOTES

The last day of April. The committee for the tea was appointed as follows. Refreshments, Vere Pike and Eunice Noyes; decorations, Rachel Poley and Phyllis Dickson; entertainment, Marjorie Blake and Greta Russell. We are all looking forward to a good time. Phyllis Dickson and Eunice Noyes demonstrated the making of a pear salad, it tasted good and was easily and quickly made. Many of the girls tried it at home. It was decided to not demonstrate the making of cake as Mrs. von Borstel did that when she met with us.

The cooking girls met for a few minutes May 17 in the lunch room at the school house. It was decided to have a meeting at 3:00 o'clock the following Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Poley's home.

At the Thursday afternoon meeting we cleaned up all business and the tea was seriously discussed. For refreshments we had tea and cookies. Many cards were handed in and Eunice Noyes and Vere Pike reported they would have their work completed when the tea was given.

The High School Sewing girls hold their meetings every Tuesday and sew on their different articles. The girls aren't going to exhibit their work when the others do because they won't all be through by that time but we are all counting on exhibiting at the county fair in he fall.

Greta Russell.

The 4-H Sewing Club of Wasco held no meeting during the past week because of test.

The Sewing Club girls accepted an invitation to dinner given by the cooking club tomorrow, May 16.

Six meetings have been held during this year. As ten meetings have to be held it is planned that if there is not time to finish these before school is out they will be finished after school is out.

Maxine Ballenger is planning to attend summer school.

Most of the girls are planning to attend the county fair and exhibit. It has not yet been decided if a demonstration team is to be sent or not.

Hazel Watkins.

The Little Housewives are planning a dinner which is to be given to the sewing club and Audrey and Idalia Spenger. It is planned to give this dinner May 16.

All members are to have everything finished by May 18.

Hazel Marie Watkins and Caroline Wall were visitors of the cooking club Tuesday.

The Little Housewives are now making menus.

At the meeting Friday it was decided to serve cookies, sandwiches, potato chips and deviled eggs at the dinner May 16.

Any member who will want fruit May 16 may bring it for themselves.

Catherine Fridley and Beryl Sheets are to give a demonstration at Moro for the county fair.

Maxine Ballinger may attend the summer school at Corvallis.

Margaret McDermid.

The Seven-and-One Sewing club which is led by Mrs. Essie Wilson had their achievement day exhibits and lunch last Friday. Four of the members made exhibits. They were: Maxine Pluemke, Dorothy Southern, Frances Gregg and Charlie Bill Wilson.

The girls prepared a lunch for noon and set the table in the office. Mr. Knighten had been invited but he did not arrive. All of the other eight guests were present, making sixteen at the table.

The lunch consisted of potato salad, sandwiches, punch, orangeade, strawberry shortcake and cream.

There must have been plenty of good things to eat because I saw various ones who had been present having a very contented look on their faces all afternoon.

This club has had all of the required ten meetings and has received their charter. Most of the girls are also nearing the completion of their work.

"Mustard?" This was the question at the "weenie" roast party at Buck Hollow last Wednesday evening for the Sunshine Sewing Circle and their guests.

Most of the crowd went down at about 4.30 in Dunlap's car. They went: Charles and Margaret Dunlap, Karl Pluemke, Anna Sather, Evelyn Davis, Phyllis Haynes and Mrs. Ida Davis.

Dick Abell came down later bringing Phoebe Lyons and Kenneth Sather.

For amusement we played hide and seek and leap frog and went swimming.

We ate lunch just as it was beginning to get dark. Our fire was built with a log that the boys brought up from down the canyon. It made a dandy fire. For lunch we had wieners, buns, coffee, cookies, and pickles. I hope every one had a good time—I did.

The Hungry Seven and the Cook Fun-Sing Camp Cookery clubs had their exhibits for Achievement Day in the primary room.

The Hungry Seven had four displays of biscuits. They were judged by Millie von Borstel's cooking club who gave the honors to the following: Hugh Hoskinson 1st; David Hoskinson 2nd; and Earl Lyons 3rd.

The work of this club is all completed as they have finished their record books and written the stories of their work.

The Cook-Fun-Sing club had six exhibits of cookies and their posters on the ideal luncheon and breakfast.

The last meeting of this club will be on Wednesday of this week. The final reports are almost finished. Nellie Wilson won first prize on her cookies. Millie von Borstel's cooking club also judged the work of this club.

Word has been received by the Kent Forestry Club that the county Forestry Clubs Field trip will be on June 4th and 5th. The destination will be Bonny Crossing on Badger Creek up near Ht. Hood.

The following is the program for the two days:

1. Gather at Grass Valley 8.30 June 4th Roll Call.
2. Leave in group for Bonny Crossing on Badger Creek at 9:00 a. m.
3. 12:00 Lunch at Bonny Crossing. Each club will arrange sleeping quarters, and set up field kitchen.
4. 3:00 p. m. Club leaders will help each club select and classify as many broad leaf species as available.
5. 6:00 p. m. Roll call. Evening meal.
6. Report of club leaders on number of broad leaf species found.
7. Games and songs, and a stunt or skit by each club.
8. 10. Taps.

June 5th.

1. 5:00 a. m. Club leaders fall out.
2. 6:45 Roll call.
3. 7:00 Breakfast.
4. 8:00 Organize for hikes and gathering seeds and species of cone bearing trees.
5. 12:00 Dinner.
6. 1:00 p. m. to 3:00. Each unit may use this time as they desire.
7. Roll call. Berak camp.
8. 4:00 Retreat.

This club will have a meeting on Thursday of this week. Corliss Andrews, leader, says that Mr. Johnston is planning to be present and advise us and answer questions about the trip.

The Katty Kanning Club held their sixth regular meeting last Thursday May 8th. All of the members were present. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved the members all recited the club pledge.

Phyllis Haynes gave a very thorough as well as interesting report on the Kinds of Fruit Grown in Oregon. The president appointed Virginia and Bertha Helyer on the committee to give the report next time on a subject of their own choosing.

There was a discussion on how to make the meeting more interesting. Several suggestions were received. We hope some of them work.

"Dorothy's Kitcheneers" held their last meeting at Levinia Barnett's home last Wednesday evening. They had a party afterward.

Annie Laurie Haynes and Levinia Barnett were on the demonstration team. They served chicken, gravy, potatoes, string beans, peaches and cake.

After supper they had a party. They had each invited a guest. The party lasted until nearly midnight.

when the crowd was served with Cookies, cocoa and marshmallows. The girls made exhibits of cakes, bread, and butterscotch rolls for Achievement Day. They had them arranged on tables with bright colored covers and marigolds as a decoration. It made a very attractive exhibit.

The work of this club has been completed. The progress cards are nearly all turned in and the leader has promised the girls a picnic sometime soon.

The Hungry Seven Camp Cookery Club has had three meetings recently. The first was at Paul Schilling's home. Before supper all of the boys except the cooks spent their time examining a Ford bug which Paul is building.

The chief cooks were "Buzz" Wilson, Paul Schilling and Cecil Norton. They cooked doughnuts, mashed potatoes, scrambled eggs, tomatoes and coffee.

After supper a business meeting was held. It was decided that the club would have a wieners roast at the next meeting which would be Tuesday at Luther Davis's.

The boys listened to a fight over the radio then went home.

When the boys had all gathered at Luther Davis' for the wieners roast they set fire to a big pile of brush and then built a stove to cook their supper on.

Bob Helyer and Charles Wilson were on the supper committee and they served hot-cakes, ham and wieners. Clarice Mitchell and Evelyn Davis got the wrath of the gang on them when they mixed some red pepper with the butter. The boys ate it very innocently but it sure got results.

A business meeting was called in which the boys decided that they would move some rock for the Legion in order to pay the rent on the hall for the time when they gave their dance. Charles Dunlap and Joe Morrow were appointed on the cook committee for the next meeting.

The "next time" was a picnic in Buck Hollow which was last Tuesday afternoon. The leader forgot all about it and left town so the boys went down without him. Buzz Wilson took them all down in his truck.

As soon as they arrived they all went swimming and then went hunting wood. Cecil Norton, Chas. Wilson and Luther Davis decided it was better to hunt food so they went up the canyon. No success on their part.

For supper the boys had rice, tomatoes, ham, potatoes, eggs and coffee.

The Hungry Eleven are planning on taking a trip on about the 14th of June. They have not definitely decided where to go yet but will probably do that at the meeting Tuesday night at Charles Wilson's home.

Margaret Dunlap.

The Shamrock Sheep Club did not hold their weekly meeting Thursday, May 10, as usual because of the baseball game between Kent and Grass Valley, at Kent, however they gathered for their meeting Tuesday May 15, at the school house. This was their ninth meeting of the year. The meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. When the roll call was taken the members were found to all be present. Each individual responded to roll call by telling the members about the progress of his or her sheep. Some of the members sheep have gained considerable in weight since the sheep club has been organized.

Elnor Helyer, the sheep club leader, announced that he had received a letter from Mr. Perry N. Johnston, County Agent, stating that he would be present at one of their meetings some time in the near future. Mr. Helyer wrote and asked him to be with them on Thursday, May 17. The members are looking forward to Mr. Johnston's visit as he will no doubt give the club several new ideas in regard to the sheep club project.

Rost Ellen Barnett, one of the Shamrock Sheep club members informed the club that a 4-H club fat-lamb show, that is somewhat similar to the Pacific International 4-H Wool Show which will be held again this year, is being held by Lane, Benton and Linn counties sheep clubs May 26, at Junction City.

The purpose of the International

Wool Show is to help the 4-H sheep club members determine the quality of wool produced by their sheep and to bring about improvement in quality and quantity. While the purpose of this 4-H club show is to help the counties to teach the boys and girls interested in sheep raising the most desirable weight and finish for market lambs, also to encourage good breeding, management, feeding and the importance of good fleeces. There will be about 100 lambs from all the counties at the show. As Rose Ellen says, "They should surely be able to see all these qualities when they have such a large variety of lambs and sheep to pick from."

At the next meeting David Hoskinson will entertain the members and also Mr. Johnston with two songs. Sing 'em pretty, David. Donald von Borstel will report on the sheep club project as a whole.

The next meeting will be held May 17, at the school house.

Friday, May 11 was achievement day for the various 4-H club projects of Kent. These projects were exhibited at the school house where a large group of 4-H Club members, leaders, parents, teachers and friends were present. A portion of this large group gathered in the office where they watched the high school girls score and judge their cooking exhibits.

Angel food cake was exhibited by the second division and a loaf of bread by the third division of the Merry Makers Cooking Club, better known as Kent's high school cooks. This group is led by Mrs. Theo. von Borstel who has proved to be a very efficient leader. Our leader judged the Angel food cakes and then the members attempted to score and judge them. These cakes were judged according to their appearance, flavor, and texture. Appearance counted 20 points flavor 45, and texture 35.

There were five of these cakes to be judged and as a rule in 4-H club projects, four exhibits are only judged at one time. Due to this reason the cakes were scored and judged two times. The cake winning the 4th prize in the first scoring was left out in the second scoring and the fifth cake that had not been scored took its place. Those winning the various placements on their cakes were, Phoebe Lyons, 1st; Evelyn Davis, 2nd; Clarice Mitchell, 3rd; Bertha Helyer, 4th; and Myrtle Helyer, 5th.

These cakes were very good considering that some of these members were new at making this type of cake. The members found it quite difficult to judge them as several were nearly what one would call "ties". However, I think everyone was satisfied with the way that the cakes were placed.

The third division of cooking project was not judged as only one member of the three in that division brought their exhibit.

The Merry Makers were also asked to judge the cooking and camp cookery clubs of the lower grades. Baking powder biscuits from the camp cookery club and cookies from the younger girls cooking club were the items that were judged. We thoroughly enjoyed judging other folks exhibits although several of the members tried to test the biscuits, cookies and cakes—too much which did not agree with the digestive systems.

The Merry Makers did not hold their weekly meeting on last Friday, May 11, because of achievement day. However, our next meeting will be held Friday, May 18. This will be our last meeting unless some special meetings are called which is not probable.

One of the 4-H club members recently said that they had heard that each year the Oregon State Chapter of Mu Beta Beta, nationally known 4-H honor society, awards a silver loving cup to the one making the highest grades of any freshman on the campus 4-H club at Oregon State college. This year Andrew Schmidt of Redmond won this cup. This is only the second time the award has been made.

Perry N. Johnston recently sent letters to all 4-H club members stating that in this year as in the past, the 4-H club summer school will be held on the Oregon State college campus during the month of June. It will begin on June 11 and close June 23. The cost of board and room will be $12.00 unless you art sent on a scholarship. Housing conditions will be similar to those of the past. The members with their leader should reach Corvallis by noon Monday, June 11. They will reach this destination by train or buses. Each member and leader are asked to bring necessary bedding and towels. Also each member is asked to bring necessary equipment such as sewing material, athletic equipment which includes bathing suit, gym suits, and tennis shoes, also a drinking glass.
