

Fareka Lodge No. 121 A.F. & A.M.
Moro, Oregon
Meets the 1st and 3rd Thursday evenings of each month. Visiting members cordially invited to meet with us.
Elmer Hansen, W. M.
C. V. Belknap, Secy.

Moro Lodge No. 113, I. O. O. F.
Moro, Oregon
Meets every Monday evening in the I.O.O.F. hall. Transient and visiting brothers are cordially invited to meet with us.
Ralph Brisbane, N. G.
Joe Traut, Secretary.

Lupine Rebekah Lodge No. 116
Moro, Oregon
Meets 2d and 4th Thursday evenings of each month. Visiting members welcome.
Glenn B. Bantz, N. G.
L. H. Bull, Secretary.

Chris Schultz Post No. 71
American Legion
Meets at Legion Hall on 2nd and 4th Wednesday evenings of each month.
L. French, Commander
Wily W. Knighten, Adjutant

Horses for Sale: Frank von Borstel, Grass Valley. 3t
Well seasoned 16 in. fir or pine wood $3.50 in timber. O. R. Hulise Mosier, Oregon.

Baby Chicks—Wilcox Hatchery, 514 East 2nd St. The Dalles. Leghorns, 8 c. Rocks and Reds, 9 c. Will Trade for Wheat, now or Fall delivery?
I will measure crop land and contracted acreage for farmers so haying can be done in season. Have experience as surveyor. S. C. Brock, Wasco, Phone 9F12. pd-2t

Wanted: Job as harvest cook by efficient, capable woman. Write Adah Baldwin, Troutdale, Ore. Rt. 1, Box 98.

Camp Fire Play, "Returning of Rosalia," to be given at Legion Hall, May 26 at 8:00. Adm. 35 and 15 cents.

Foor Rent: 5 room bungalow, $5 per month. See Floyd Platt.

Betty Cushman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cushman, visited with her grandparents last week from Condon.

The McKean and Searcy building near the hotel is being remodeled to make room for a larger office.

Foss and company have bought a machine for fitting brake linings that makes close and accurate alignment possible.

The condition of George Bourhill is less satisfactory this week than it was over the week end and it is not thought that he will be able to return to his work as was expected earlier.

Perry Johnston and family left early this week for Adah, in Tillamook county to gather information relative to club work in this county.

Sid George, national delegate for the Oregon American Legion, was here Monday visiting with legionnaires.

The former Lola Tucker and her husband have moved back to New York from Camas, Washington.

Mel Schadewitz has traded his Studebaker to Al Wright and now has a shiny looking Packard.

Misses Marjorie Nahouse and Doris Fortner have been selected as Doters of Tradition at Linfield college, McMinnville. This is a girls society interested in keeping the traditions of the school.

The T. S. Reese family had as guests for luncheon on Saturday May 19, Professor and Mrs. James T. Matthews and son Oliver, of Salem. Prof. Matthews has been on the faculty of Willamette University more than 40 years. The Matthews family were on their way home from Arlington where Professor Matthews had addressed the graduating class of the high school at that place on Friday evening May 18th.

Mrs. Ralph Brisbane was the delegate to the Rebekah convention at Tillamook from the lodge in Moro. The meeting was held this week.

ack Cochran and family are moving into the Binde Jr house on main

G. L. Corey, district manager of the light company and L. A. McArthur manager of the company were here Thursday.

L. L. Peetz and W. H. Helyer returned from their fishing trip Monday and while they didn't get too many fish they look as if they had been having a good time. They report that there will be no wheat in the Madras country this year.

Members of the hog allotment committee for the county drove to Arlington Monday for a meeting of such county committees of this area. The trip was made by way of Condon and the men report that wheat conditions in Gilliam are no better than here.

Elmer Barzee and Bart Burrell spent a few days of last week trying to entice fish out of the chilly waters of Elk Lake.

Wife—Mrs. Smart has a new hat, darling.
Hubby—Well, if she were as attractive as you are, dear, she wouldn't have to depend so much on millinery.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

The "Chick a dee" Chicken club met at the school house for a meeting last Tuesday May 22. This club has not been doing much in the way of meetings but the members are determined to finish .00 per cent are are sure that they will.

The meeting was called to order by the president, R. Robert Mitchell and the meeting proceeded in the usual manner. They sang an opening song and recited the club pledge. When the roll call was taken the members were found to be all present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bertha Helyer and Millard Howell reported that they had completed making out the program to be used by the chicken club.

After the program of work was discussed the members talked over unfinished and new business. It was decided by the members to tell something about the progress of his or her chickens when his or her name was called at roll call and it would be a good idea as it would stimulate more interest in the club.

The next meeting will be held May 29, at the school house.

The Farm Accounting Club held a meeting at the Kent school house Tuesday May 22. Miss Mary Magee leads this group. The meeting was called to order by the president, Evelyn Davis and the opening song was sung. The members recited the club pledge and the roll call was taken. When the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved it was found that considerable time had elapsed since the last meeting. The members are still working on their accounting books and they hope

Court News

Claims Presented and Allowed Against the General Fund at the May, 1934, Term of County Court.
Ella Vanlandingham, old age pension $10.00
May A. Whiting, old age pension 10.00
Mrs. Flora E. Eakin, old age pension 15.00
William J. Brownlee, old age pension 15.00
Mary Jane Young, old age pension 10.00
Julius Ruhburg, old age pension 15.00
David Aaron Fleds, old age pension 15.00
John Hood Henderson, aid age pension 10.00
Mrs. R. G. Garrett, county needy 20.00
Mrs. S. L. Coats, county charge 15.00
Mrs. Peter Fleck, county charge

How the County Voted

| | Rufus | L. Grove | Klondike | Monkland | Michigan | Rutledge | Kent | G. Valley | Moro | Wasco | Total |
|-------------|-------|----------|----------|----------|----------|----------|------|-----------|------|-------|-------|
| Tax, Yes | 26 | 26 | 21 | 28 | 8 | 10 | 30 | 26 | 82 | 26 | 283 |
| Tax, No | 48 | 18 | 40 | 38 | 16 | 17 | 42 | 23 | 80 | 71 | 393 |
| Graham | 12 | 4 | 12 | 23 | 5 | 7 | 8 | 10 | 39 | 14 | 134 |
| Upton | 34 | 14 | 14 | 21 | 8 | 15 | 50 | 26 | 60 | 55 | 297 |
| Brown | 21 | 10 | 22 | 31 | 2 | 9 | 24 | 9 | 24 | 44 | 196 |
| Dunne | 10 | 1 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 2 | 10 | 12 | 7 | 45 |
| Holman | 12 | 2 | 1 | 6 | 2 | 7 | 15 | 6 | 11 | 8 | 70 |
| Loneragan | 1 | 2 | 5 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 4 | 3 | 1 | 19 |
| McAlexander | 3 | 4 | 2 | 13 | 7 | 6 | 21 | 5 | 53 | 11 | 119 |
| Abrams | 6 | 1 | 4 | 5 | 1 | 2 | 7 | 7 | 10 | 8 | 51 |
| Snell | 42 | 19 | 25 | 49 | 12 | 20 | 56 | 30 | 96 | 65 | 414 |
| Fatland | 39 | 13 | 17 | 38 | 8 | 15 | 46 | 21 | 55 | 40 | 292 |
| Turner | 28 | 7 | 10 | 33 | 8 | 15 | 35 | 24 | 70 | 49 | 279 |
| Mahoney | 10 | 3 | 3 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 3 | 2 | 3 | 5 | 31 |
| Martin | 18 | 19 | 28 | 9 | 10 | 4 | 10 | 8 | 54 | 22 | 182 |

"He's sleeping now, Doctor"
The comfort of it: to know that every form of human aid can be summoned easily and quickly!
Nothing else does so much, in so many ways as your telephone. Its price, a few cents a day.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

J. F. Foss H. O. Kunsman<