Huey Long's Soldiers on Guard

Scenes in the office of the registrar of voters in New Orleans, when a machine gun company of the state militia took over the job of guarding the registration rolls for Senator Huey P. Long. The gunners kept their weapons trained on the city hall, across the street, in case Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley should direct the police to stage a sortie.

Floating Ambulance on West Coast

Built by the Los Angeles playground department for use by the life-guard service which protects its beaches, an unusual patrol boat has been put into service. Equipped with everything for lifesaving and resuscitation, from inhalators to stretchers and hospital equipment, the new boat is said to be the first of its kind. It is 33 feet long and has a speed of 15 knots.
