MORO SCHOOL NOTES
by Anita Kenny

A representative of the Road Photo Service of Tacoma, Washington, was at school Friday to take pictures of the Moro high school. On Monday afternoon the Senior class of '35 and the three high school instructors had their pictures taken by representatives of the Ball Studio of Corvallis.

The first issue of the Optimist will be published October 15. The editor, Gayle Amidon, and her staff began work on the paper this week.

Moro won its second football game of the season when the Huskies defeated the Paposoes of The Dalles with a score of 12 to 0 on the home field Friday.

Excellent playing was shown by both teams. Moro scored in the first quarter when Fraser went over for a touchdown, but the extra point was not made. In the third quarter Barnes made a touchdown for Moro.

As Axtell had his ankle badly hurt in the third quarter, it was necessary for W. Thompson to take his place.

Substitutions in the fourth quarter were: Conlee for R. Belshee, Nahouse for Barnes, W. Thompson for Johnston and Noonan for Thogerson.

The Girl's League sold homemade candy at the football game Friday.

Two of the high school boys, Gordon Fraser and Ronald Powell, are absent from school this week as they are attending the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland.

The Moro volley ball girls won another victory last Friday night by defeating the Kent team on the Kent floor by a score of 28-19. Moro was in the lead for points from the second quarter throughout the game. The floor and lighting being much different than their own accounted for the poor playing during the first quarter, but after the team became accustomed to the conditions they improved greatly. The starting line-up was: Gayle Amidon, Genevieve Nahouse, Dorothy Fraser, Lois Thompson, Melba Thogerson, Helen Strong.

Substitutions were Irma Morgan for Doris Thompson, Betty Powell for Dorothy Fraser; Gertrude Gillmor for Melba Thogerson and Mary Pinkerton for Helen Strong.

Courtesy Needed
By Car Drivers

The simple element of courtesy on the part of the automobile drivers would have averted 866 accidents in Oregon in August and cut the total for the month in half, reveal records of the office of Secretary of State P. J. Stadelman.

Such infractions of good driving practice and rules of the road as driving on the wrong side of the road, failing to yield the right of way, cutting in, passing standing street cars, passing on a curve, passing on the wrong side, failing to signal, failing to stop for thru highway, and cutting the left corner were responsible for the 866 accidents. All of these could have been eliminated had common courtesy guided the action of the offending driver, stresses the state department, in checking over the record of 1,727 accidents during August. Of this total, failure of 352 drivers to yield the right of way was responsible for the largest number of accidents.

Additional causes for difficulties in some of which courtesy on the part of the driver might also have produced different results, were exceeding the speed limit, improper turning, disregarding an officer or signal, driving off the roadway, double or prohibited parking, skidding, backing, and failing to set brakes properly.

"Why an individual who never fails to observe ordinary courtesies in other relationships with his fellowman loses all respect for the rights of others when he gets behind a steering wheel is one of the dangerous oddities of human nature, adversely affecting safe driving records" points out the accident bureau of the secretary of state's office, as it urges courtesy on the streets and highways and caution against thoughtlessness or careless car operation.
