which the consumer pays when he buys the goods, but they go only to those growers who have agreed to do their part toward adjustment of production for the benefit of all producers. Davis explains.

The old pitfall in any form of limited action tending to raise prices of farm products to "parity" with other commodities, was that such a raise in prices would bring a rush to increased production which soon defeated the whole effort. AAA officials point out. The processing tax and contract idea was the first plan devised which would insure a greater price to those farmers who joined in a production control program than others. The general market price is thus kept from fluctuating so much as to attract new producers or greatly increased plantings by present growers.

JINGLES

But yesterday, the extras say this wife man saw the light. His car stalled on the railroad track—

Toot Toot! Ding Dong! Good Night

See what happened to Hustle-U-Hugh!

The traffic-hole closed. Just as he went through.

There once was a gay caballero, Who drank some very strong beer-o.

He went for a ride, And he skinned up his hide— And that was the last of our hero!

Wasco Boys Doing Well At Linfield

FRIDLEY

Linfield College, McMinnville, Oct. 27. (Special) Kenneth Fridley was recently elected General Manager of the Student Body at Linfield college. Fridley has been well liked and admired by Linfield students every since he entered college. He has been outstanding in football. Fridley is the hardest hitting fullback Linfield has seen for years. He weighs only 175 pounds but it is all muscle and drive. He is the mainstay of the Wildcats' line this year on defense and is an exceptionally good blocker.

Another Wasco student is at Linfield and he also is fast becoming an outstanding Wildcat pigskin athlete. Melvin Welsh is a second term Freshman and has made his place on the varsity eleven as end. He can block well and snags passes with an exceptionally high degree of efficiency.

Still another Wasco student is also pigskin minded. Max Williams plays in the back field of the Frosh team and has already proved his worth at ball carrying.

The Truck Bill

The truck and bus law should be amended. Better still it should be repealed and a new one enacted in its stead. The regulatory parts of the law should be repealed in toto. There is no sense in making the trucking rates of the Willamette Valley applicable to the rates on the dirt roads of Eastern Oregon. Nor is there any good sense in making a poor man, trying to live by the earnings of a small trucking business, go to Salem and stand an examination, to ascertain if any other trucker objects to his being licensed, before he is given a permit to operate.

The purpose of these regulatory features is obviously not for the production of revenue for the use of the State Highways, but to stifle competition and protect existing common carriers. Under the guise of protection of our highways, we are subsidizing and protecting old line carriers and the people are paying the bill in a higher truck freight rate.

All are agreed that the trucking industry should pay a reasonable revenue for the use of the highways, but that can be arranged on a graduated low rate of gross income instead of checking up on the per ton mile which requires a flock of accountants, besides causing untold agony to the truck driver.

If I am elected to the State Legislature again, I shall be in a position by reason of committee appointments and experience to assist in giving Eastern Oregon a truck law that will be enduring.

Barbara Norskoski has returned to finish her senior year here. She intends to stay at Millard's for the rest of the school term.

The interclass volleyball tournament is progressing very well. The championship now lies between the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. The majority of the high school students are hoping the Sophomores will win. This, however, is not surprising, because the Sophomores have the largest class in high school.

The Rufus girls attended the Girls League Frolics at Wasco, October 27. Prizes were given for the best costumes. Barbara Belshie of Moro received first prize and second prize was given to Dessie Belshie of Wasco. All the schools of the county attending put on kind of a skit. The Rufus girls put on a foot pantomime, and Margaret Burnett, Josephine Bryant, and Anna Costa put on a cowboy skit.

The date of the second annual high school carnival has been changed to November 3 at 7:30 p. m. The admission for adults is ten cents and children free. The band will play that evening and a free program will be given. After the program is over, a dance will be given. It will cost 25 cents to dance the remainder of the evening, or, if you wish to dance only once or twice the price will be five cents a dance. There are many other important features to be given. Everybody is invited to come.

The primary room is starting a Rhythm Band. They expect to entertain soon.

The instruments in their hand are: drum, triangles, click clacks, jingle sticks, bells, bird whistles and tamborines.

The primary room is having a Halloween party inviting their mothers and friends.

The 7th and 8th grade girls and their teacher, Miss Brackett, are planning a surprise party for the boys on Halloween. The girls are decorating their room for the occasion.

DEFEAT
THE HEALING ARTS
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT!
VOTE 305 X NO

Every person in Oregon is vitally concerned in the proposed "Healing Arts Constitutional Amendment" which will be on the ballot at the general election November 6.

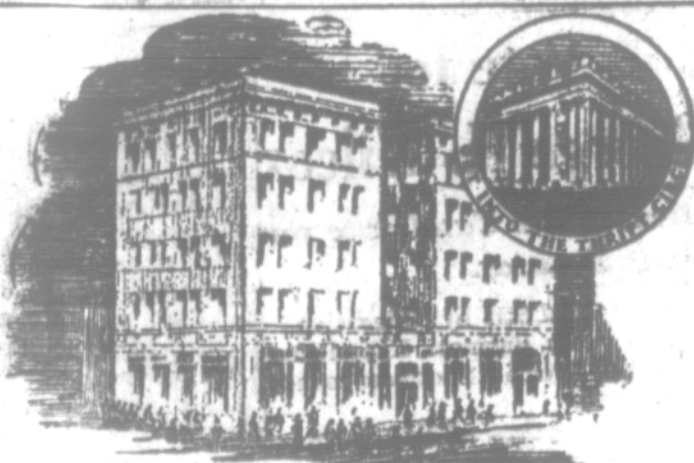

Under the fictitious claim of preventing "MEDICAL MONOPOLY," this vicious Healing Arts Constitutional Amendment is proposed by healing "cultists" and others having selfish interests, in order to destroy the effects of the Basic Science Law passed by the last Oregon legislature. It also is designed to destroy the high standards maintained by our Oregon hospitals, and to rob the State Industrial Accident Commission of its power to properly administer the ever efficient Workmen's Compensation Act.

This Amendment is a direct attack against Oregon's enviable health standards and low rate of mortality. It challenges the self respect and common sense of every person who has the welfare of this state at heart.

Every voter in Oregon should make it his or her business to appear at the polls on election day and vote "NO" against the Healing Arts Constitutional Amendment.
