Many Local Persons Listed at Wasco County Pioneers Day

Of the people who registered at the Old Wasco County Pioneer picnic last Saturday many were from Sherman county or had done their pioneering in what is now Sherman county. Several had come for a great distance to greet old friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Bolton who once owned the Moro drug store were there as was Charley Moore, Grass Valley's first mayor and Martin Masiker who was the first white child born in Sherman county back in 1862 when there was plenty of bunch grass and the Indians were something of a threat and the roads were where you found them.

The list follows: Mr. and Mrs. Ladru Barnum C. F. Fulton Carson Masiker and wife Mr. and Mrs. Martin Masiker W. L. Wilson and wife G. W. Schartz Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith Louis Scholl Jr. B. L. and Kool-ade was served after the demonstration was completed.

During the discussion of new business each member was asked by the president to report how far along they were in their work and how many cards they had handed in. It was found that all of the members were mostly up-to-date in their work.

So far one member, Nellie Wilson has handed in all of the cards necessary for this division of work.

A special meeting is to be called for the discussion and making of plans for the dinner that is to be given for the mothers of the members.

Over forty persons including 4-H club members, their parents and leaders gathered at the home of Theo. von Borstel Sunday p. m. and enjoyed a meeting of the Fat beef Club and a social time as well.

Quite a number of boys from the Grass Valley stock clubs were present and took part in the judging of beef and doing stock as well as in the games enjoyed by the entire group.

Mr. Barnum demonstrated mixing wet feed for our beef calves for the benefit of those who missed his demonstration at the previous meeting. He presented each boy in the Kent Club with a show stick. We are very happy to have these and wish to thank Mr. Barnum for them.

Pictures were taken of the different club groups, some showing the boys active judging beef calves.

Refreshments consisting of buns spiced ham, cakes, nut bread, punch and coffee were served for which we wish to thank the hostess and the Five Star Serving Club.
