Cooling Drinks To Relieve Heat

Drink Recipes for Warm Days Are Timely Suggestions As Sun Mounts

As the weather gets warmer our appetites are often on the wane and meals have a tendency to dwindle into just a shadow of their winter proportions. We require approximately the same amount of food, regardless of the weather, to take care of the body needs. There can be a difference in preparation, of course, to meet the particular needs of the season. In summer, fresh vegetables and fruit are more appetizing in crisp salads and milk is more interesting served as a refreshing and cooling milk shake. The important thing to remember is that milk must be given the same prominent place in the summer diet as in the winter one.

Many people recognize buttermilk as an ideal summer beverage. Practically free from fat, high in essential food elements, with a cool refreshing tart flavor, make it a good hot weather drink.

Few homemakers realize how simple it is to prepare milk drinks. Plenty of cold milk, fresh fruits or fruit juices, chocolate or other flavorings, a few whips of the egg beater and the milk shake is ready to serve. Any meal you are serving will be more attractive and better balanced if a glass of cold or colorful milk shake is included.

Some delicious drinks are:
Pineapple Milk Shake
Two cups Pineapple juice
One-fourth cup of lemon
Two tablespoons sugar
Three cups of milk
Combine fruit juices, and sugar. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Add to chilled milk and shake with crushed ice.

Orangeade
Two thirds cup sugar

Three cups milk
Two cups orange juice
Add sugar to chilled orange juice and stir to dissolve. Pour slowly into milk and transfer to glass jar. Cover tightly and shake vigorously. Pour into glasses and serve immediately.

Russian Chocolate
One square chocolate
One fourth cup of sugar
Three fourths cup boiling water
Two cups milk
One teaspoon vanilla
One pint coffee
Melt the chocolate and add sugar and salt. Add boiling water and cook about five minutes. Add milk. Reheat and add vanilla. Beat the coffee in with an egg beater.

Coffee Milk Shake
Three cups strong coffee
Three cups milk
One fourth cup sugar
Cinnamon
Make fresh coffee, using 2 tbs. coffee to a cup of water. Cool the coffee and add sugar and milk. Chill, add ice and serve in tall glasses with a dash of cinnamon on the top.

Food Costs Up 3 Billion Dollars; Electric Costs Steadily Decline

The above chart is based upon estimates made by the American Institute of Food Distribution and upon indexes of food costs published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and upon information obtained from the Edison Electric Institute.

Annual food costs have risen more than 3 billion dollars, according to information compiled and announced recently.

March, 1935, compared with March, 1933, shows a $3,350,000,000 increase in the annual cost of food.

The increase alone in the annual cost of food is five times the total annual cost of domestic electric service in the United States. The total annual bill for all electric uses in the home is $677,000,000.

The Nation would save the amount of its entire bill for residential electric service if its food costs could be reduced approximately 5 1/2%.
