

Moro Woman's Club Honors School Teachers

Henry Barnum and Wife Leave For Corvallis To Enter College After Farming Several Years;

The Women's Club entertained for the teachers Wednesday night at the school house by giving a reception in their honor. A program that included musical numbers by Miss Vivian Trounce, Mrs. Charles Ruggles, Lawrence Mitchelmore, a reading by Mrs. C. L. Poley and talks by Mrs. W. W. Knighten and Principal Walker was given after which a get acquainted meeting gave the teachers and parents a chance to become known to each other.

Henry Barnum and wife left Thursday for Corvallis where Henry will enter Oregon State college to begin the formal study of animal husbandry as an addition to his practical knowledge of that subject.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wood in The Dalles last Sunday.

D. E. Stephens drove to Eugene last week to take his daughter Mrs. Peterson to that city to begin a year's teaching in home economics.

John Milne is putting in the plumbing at the Court house and will install the furnace within a few days.

Perry Johnston, Frank Burnett, Roy and Ronald Powell drove to Baker last week to look over the Herbert Chandler herd of Herefords.

Mrs. Ellen Noyse of Portland, sister of Mrs. Otis Baker, visited here last week with the Baker family.

Miss Vivian Trounce has moved to Moro for the winter. She will make a trip to Grass Valley Thursday and to Wasco Saturdays throughout the winter months.

Mrs. Marion McKee and Mrs. Collis Moore drove to Pendleton Saturday to take in the Round-Up. They returned Sunday.

Allen Murray and daughter, Virginia, went up to Pendleton to see how professionals ride.

Mrs. Susie Hastings returned to Moro last week to remain for the winter. The three men school teachers will move into her house this week end and Mrs. Hastings will cook for them.

Mrs. Grace Bourhill came up from Portland Saturday to spend a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. George A. Simon of Eugene and Mrs. Pauline Wilcox returned from a week's trip in Idaho, taking in the Pendleton Round-Up on the way back, Mrs. Simon driving on to Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson of Portland spent a few days this week visiting with friends and relatives in and around Moro.

Christy and Lee Leroy, professional ropers and trick riders are at the Claud Thompson ranch this week, coming from the Round-Up at Pendleton. Last year they purchased a horse from Mr. Thompson which they have been using in their act and this year they bought another one.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bull returned Sunday from Camp Sherman where they had been staying during the last two weeks with their Uncle Owen Thompson. Mr. Thompson was ill in the Redmond hospital three weeks, going back to Camp Sherman with the Mr. and Mrs. Bull. He was much improved when they returned home to Moro.

J. C. Harper and wife of California were here from Friday to Sunday morning visiting with Mrs. Harper's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Rose. They were accompanied by Mrs. McCarty who is a sister of Mr. Harper. The McCarty's formerly lived in Moro.

Mrs. W. B. Johnston left Sunday for her home in Salem after a week's visit in Moro with relatives and friends.

Sunday the little house that stood opposite the court house was moved by Joe Ritner to his home formerly the Elliott place.

J. O. McKean and family were in Pendleton for the Round-Up the last day of that event.

W. W. Knighten and family drove to Portland Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. I. Westfield who died in Los Angeles last week.

The county court is having some work done on the well in the De Moss park this week and the workmen are finding the rock there pretty hard to do anything with.

The woodshed formerly on the Shiel place was moved to the Brinsbine place Wednesday where it will be used for a chicken house.

Chester Smith and his son in law, John Wilson drove to Lewiston, Idaho last week and toured around over the Palouse country while there.

Some of the local men who experimented with concessions at the Sherman county fair tried their luck at Tygh Valley last week with moderate success.

The county has bought another tractor and Irwin Morris and L. L. Peetz are working in Wasco to put the two of them together and make a good one out of the combination.

W. H. Ragsdale and son Harry have been in Hood River this week.

Mrs. John Matson was here for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Foss. She expects to spend the winter in California with her husband.

Try Journal advertising, it pays.

Grass Valley Couple Married At Dallas

Visitors From California Stop Here Briefly

Don Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Smith, and Glendora Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Garrett, were married at Dallas last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. John Bloch were witnesses. They have returned to Grass Valley to live.

Bill Haynes and his niece, Catherine Waldner visited here Monday from Happy Camp, California, where they are living and where Bill and Catherine's father run a sawmill. She will go to Corvallis where she will attend school this winter staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes.

Cecil Fritts and Bob Hays were here Tuesday from Stevenson, Washington where Cecil has been fire lookout during the summer months.

Bruce Alley returned to Vancouver Sunday after a week's vacation with his parents.

R. J. Baker and family drove to Portland Monday morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. I. Westfield and to Forest Grove to return Dale to his school work there.

The Lemley family returned Monday evening from Forest Grove where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Elsie, who was married Saturday.

Arnold Sharp and wife and Hans Koepke and wife are visiting in Olympia this week with Mr. Sharp's parents. They were at the Round-Up before going on to Olympia.

Mrs. Etha Schilling was in Eugene for a few days this week to take her daughter, Barbara Walpole to the University for another year of schooling.

This week end will see another annual hegira of deer hunters for many hunting parties will pull out of town Friday or in the wee small hours of Saturday to spend a week or more in the tall timber searching with their eyes for a good set of horns to bring home. Two or three women have volunteered to stay home and run the town while the men are out in the hills.

Miss Vivian Trounce was here last week lining up a class of music students for the winter. Elmer Hansen and wife were here from Goldendale Saturday evening for a few hours.

Among those going to school this winter from Grass Valley are Norma Garrett, Dorothy Olds and Vivian Reynolds who will attend Monmouth normal Mildred Alley who is going to Willamette, Ellen Cox, who will attend O. S. C. Earl Shipley who will return to Linfield, Barbara Walpole to Oregon and Dale Baker to Pacific.

Perry Strong and wife of The Dalles were here Tuesday on business.

Tom Alley returned Tuesday from Salem where they had gone to establish their daughter, Mildred in school for the winter.

A shower was given Tuesday afternoon at the Ruggles ranch for Mrs. Willard Barnett who was married the last of August.

Classified Ads.

Livestock
For Sale: 60 Head aged ewes. Lester Barnum, Moro.

For Sale: 6 Hampshire Bucks, all ages and all prices; some registered. Lloyd Henrichs, Moro.

13-27 pd
Taken Up: 2-yr old black mare, white strip in face, unknown brand on left hip. Owner call and get her. Wm. Buether, Grass Valley.

Land
FOR RENT: About 800 acres good farm land 6 miles west of Kent. Good buildings. Inquire Lillian Schassen, 118 W. 9th street, The Dalles.

Feed
For Sale: 400 acres Stubble Pasture, also 60 tons hay, 10 miles S. E. The Dalles.

Chas Harth, Rt. 4, The Dalles, 31-pd.

For Sale: 200 Tons Turkey Red Chaff at Wasco. Can be moved or fed on ground. Plenty of water. Bob Elliot, Wasco.

Visitors From Tennessee Come To Kent

Mrs. Dunlap Goes To California To Visit With Relatives

Clay and Richard Stout of Upland, Wash., accompanied by their sisters, Victoria and Fannie, of Mountain City, Tennessee visited the following homes at Kent Tuesday and Wednesday, J. H., J. M. and J. C. Wilson and J. L. Davis. These people were all former neighbors in Tennessee. The Stouts were on their way to the Pendleton Round-Up.

Harley McKay left for Hood River Sunday where he will pick apples.

Kent got a bit damp Saturday for the first time this fall when 48 of an inch of rain fell.

E. M. Helyer and daughters Virginia and Bertha spent last week end in Hood River visiting at the home of John Adams and picking blackberries.

Mrs. Clifford Ullmann of Redmond and Mrs. Roy Daniels and son Cecil of Monmouth visited at the W. C. Helyer home Sunday. Mrs. Daniels will spend some time here with her parents. Mrs. Ullmann returned to Redmond Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. A. Dunlap left Sunday morning for Happy Valley, Calif., where she will visit her sister Mrs. John Waldner.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKay were transacting business in The Dalles Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson and daughters Connie and Dorothy of Antelope spent the latter part of the week visiting with relatives at Kent.

Darrel Haynes of Happy Valley, Calif., and Katherine Waldner of Corvallis arrived at Kent Saturday evening where they visited relatives over Sunday.

John Bell, Mrs. Volna Guyton and son Billie, Marguerite Mitchell Mrs. Clarice Sacre and son George were visitors at Moro Wednesday afternoon.

J. B. Adams of Moro was a Kent visitor Tuesday and Saturday. W. C. Guyton is now driving a new 1935 Chevrolet Coach.

Millard and Dale Howell who have recently purchased a ranch near Goldendale, Wash., visited at the home of their father Geo. Howell Tuesday and Wednesday. They took a load of cattle on their return trip to Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eakin of Rufus visited at the E. M. Helyer home Tuesday.

Mrs. Betty Kelly spent the latter part of the past week at the J. H. Wilson home.

C. B. Andrews and Volna Guyton spent a few days last week in Portland transacting business.

COAL

A Car Will Be In About October 1st
Orders Taken Now

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company, Grass Valley

CONFIDENCE

All Satisfactory Business is built on Confidence - Confidence on the part of the buyer that goods purchased will be of good quality and fairly priced.

Dependable Groceries, Fresh Vegetables

Overalls, Jumpers, Shirts, and all kinds of

DRY GOODS

Trade At

H. Zeigler's Quality Store

The Dalles-Columbia Market

Farmers and Deer Hunters

SHOP THIS ADD

COPPER CARBONATE

Guaranteed 52 percent - In 50 lb bags - Pound 18 c

LET US TAKE YOUR ORDER

Hunting Supplies

Deer Hunting Orders Carefully Filled

Pork & Beans Van Camps 3 for 25 cents
Large Tins

MATCHES

Six Box Carton 17c

SALT

Two pound in carton 9c

Pancake Flour 10 lb Sperry's 59 cents

COFFEE 3 lb Golden West in tins 80c

MILK All Pure Tall Cans 5c

BACON - Back or Side per pound 35 cents

SUGAR 5 lbs in cloth bags 25c

P. A. and Velvet 2 oz - 10c - 16 oz 73c

Cigarettes popular brands in cartons $1.15

Headquarters For Sherman County Folks In The Dalles

Alex Marshall, Manager

Tuesday, September 24

at Moro

Henry Bros. Circus

See our Lions, Bear, Leopard,
Baboon and trained Monkeys

Educated Ponies, Trapeze Performances

Admission: Children 25 c

Adults 35 c

For Sale

Stock of:

Hardware (all kinds)

Paints-Varnish etc.

International Harvester
Company Implements.

Drills, Plows, Harrows, Disks,
Engines, Weeders

Plumbing Goods

Leather, Tools, Oils, Dishes, Tinware, Cutlery, Harness

Will sell it all as a BUSINESS

or a nail at a time. Come in and see about any part.

Roy J. Baker, Grass Valley

CHURCHES

Grass Valley Baptist Church
Sunday, September 22nd, Rev.
E. B. Johnson will preach in the Baptist church in Grass Valley.

Subject of the sermon at 11 a. m.
"Christ's Descent into Hell. Theme for the evening sermon "The Holy Spirit. His Advent, Work and Departure."

Christian Science

Subject: MATTER

Golden Text: Joel 2:1. Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble:
for the day of the Lord cometh,
for it is nigh at hand.

Responsive Reading: Habakkuk
3:3, 6-8, 13, 17, 18

Community Presbyterian Church
Rev. Lawrence H. Mitchelmore will speak on "What Difference Does it Make?" at the 11 o'clock service.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. A new class for young people will be led by Mrs. Mitchelmore. Although the general age limits have been set at 20-30, all young married people, and others who are interested in such a group will be welcome.

Christian Endeavor for high school age at 6:45 p. m.

Junior Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.
with Donald Thompson, leader.

Thursday night, 7:45. Midweek service at the manse.

Full Gospel Assembly

Sunday School 10:00 a. m.

Morning Service 11:00 a. m.

Evening Service 7:45 p. m.

When Your Shoes need repair

send them to

WERNMARK'S

GOOD SHOE REPAIRING

304 Second St. THE DALLES