Rufus School Preparing 6 Men Football Team

By Lawrence Henderson

Football—Yes sir, football has become a reality in three of the Sherman county schools at last. But did you ever hear of a football game in which each team is only allowed six men? The first game, as far as any one knows, ever played in the state of Oregon will be played between Rufus and Grass Valley next Friday, October 11th.

Kenneth McKenzie, the seventh and eighth grade teacher has undertaken quite a responsibility in coaching our football squad. But with ability and the squad's determination we expect fair results. In order that football could be played here we found it necessary to get equipment and the Rufus student body wishes to thank the Wasco High school for the football equipment.

The high spirits of all school children in Sherman county could easily be imagined for all the teachers were attending the teachers' institute in Moro. Mr. Tetz and Miss Valentine, our high school teachers, were both on the program.

Last Friday steps were taken in the form of the selection of senior announcements. Those who wished class rings have ordered them along with the announcements.

The Moro-Rufus game proved to be one of the outstanding games played this season. The very atmosphere at the Moro gymnasium where the game was fought, was charged with tension and an anticipation of a hard fight. Both teams were evenly matched and prepared to win but Moro, a well formed team and thoroughly instructed on cooperation, proved their supremacy in the game on their own floor, the score being 22 to 10. They may expect another hard game on our floor the next to the last game of the season.

Grass Valley Defeats Kent In Volleyball

By Janet Wilcox

The Grass Valley Tigerettes defeated the Kent volley ball team last Friday night. The score was 55 to 8. The line up for the game was a little different than in the Grass Valley Wasco game. Marjory Blake started out in Frances Fairchild's position and other members of the line-up were: Janet Wilcox, Ruby Fairchild, Cora Bayer, Louise Roth and Kathryn Burton. Subs used were Frances Fairchild, Isabelle, Emma and Bobby Fortner, Ramona Spoor and Vere Pike. After the game members of both teams with their coaches were served sandwiches and coffee by the Grass Valley Girls League.

*Folks—Today's the day!
I've been making whiskey nearly
50 years, and now my own
Family's Whiskey is available in Oregon.*
Harry Wilken Sr.

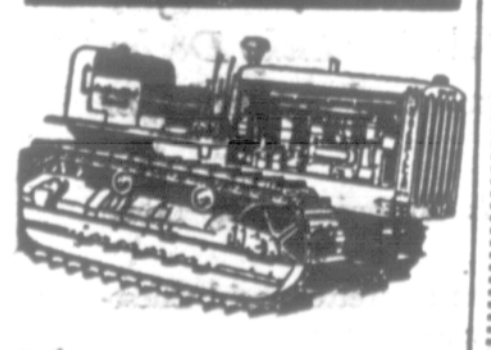

It's our family's whiskey, neighbor—and neighbor, it's your part.
Orders piling in! Looks like folks are finding our family's whiskey to their taste!

I used to say to the boys wait till everybody gets a taste of the Wilken Family Whiskey—won't their eyes just pop when they find how mild and smooth a good whiskey can be. And the boys would say yes, and won't it be swell if it's sold at a real neighborly price. Well, as maybe you've heard, it's all fixed so as our family—that is to say, me and the boys—are putting up the Wilken Family Whiskey in bottles with regular labels and all. We had a pretty good idea folks were bound to go for it, being smooth and extra tasty like it is—but I give you my word there wasn't one of us thought it was going to be like this. Why—last Monday's orders toted up to more cases than I thought we'd be putting out in a whole month. If any of those orders came from you, I want to thank you.

Leave the Farms
For many years there has been a slow but sure replacement of horses and mules on Northwest farms. In spite of the steady gain in tractor farming, there have been a few loyal exponents of horse-farming who have insisted that the old way is less costly. But with the coming of the "Caterpillar" Diesel Tractor, the margin of difference in cost between the two has widened so sharply as to remove the last doubt. The "Caterpillar" Diesel Tractor costs less... far less. Think of it! A Forty horsepower tractor pulling a full load on 2 to 23 gallons of 8-cent fuel.
