

G. Douma Sworn In As New City Councilman

The Sick List Grows Shorter As Patients Improve

G. Douma was installed as councilman for the city of Moro last Tuesday night when the council met for February. Payment of current accounts and adjustment of financial affairs was the work taken up by the city's lawmakers. No recorder was appointed.

A chinook came over the western hills Wednesday afternoon and bid the snow hasten away. It made it feel spring, whether that season is actually here or not. The ground hog had no difficulty in seeing his shadow before the eventful second of February was many hours old which gives amateur weather prophets an opportunity to argue about what is going to happen.

Those who were ill last week from various causes have been improving this week. Miss Gayle Amidon is reported as better lately, Keith Thompson is getting along well. Deb Rice is recovering from his attack of scarlet fever and minor measles patients are getting about again after a few days of sickness.

Several local men were out southwest of Grass Valley Wednesday morning to watch and take part in the rabbit drive.

George Hennagin is said to be

GOES ROUND AND ROUND AND UP AND UP: And then the West trail in Zion National Park comes out on Horse Pasture Plateau, a natural more-than-a-mile-high pasture, watered by springs. Horse Pasture Plateau was so named by the Indians who drove their stock to this inaccessible, easily defended point to protect it during intertribal warfare, and later by Mormon settlers in southern Utah who used it as a summer grazing ground.

doing as well as can be expected, in a Portland hospital.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Dyer, Friday morning, January 31, a son.

A meeting of the agricultural committee, the Home Economic committee and the lecturers and masters of Sherman county grangers was held at the Harlandview grange hall Thursday when C. W. Smith of Oregon State college appeared to speak to and direct the work of these groups in their effort to bring better living and farm conditions to people here.

A group of Sherman countians expect to attend a river meeting in Walla Walla Saturday February 15. Much organization work is being done to perfect an organization in the northwest which will work for river improvement.

George Updegraff and wife will attend the Lincoln day banquet in Portland next Wednesday night and will hear ex-president Hoover speak. When George was at Stanford he was employed by the Hoover family as secretary and will enjoy the meeting next week.

Sherman county received $68.74 from the liquor fund as its share of the last quarter receipts. The towns in the county also got some of the money.

A sale of farm horses and equipment will be held February 17 at the farm that has been operated by Chester Smith two miles east of DeMoss Springs.

George Bourhill is up and out around town again after another seige in the hospital.

Warning Given Against Some Insurance Men

Salem, Ore., Feb. 4, (Special)—Renewed activity in mail order solicitation by the National Protective Insurance Company of Kansas City, Missouri, the Franklin Life Benefit Association of St. Louis, Missouri, the Sterling Casualty Insurance Company of Chicago, Illinois, and the Sunset Mutual Life Insurance Company of Los Angeles, California, prompts Hugh H. Earle, State Insurance Commissioner, to warn the public against buying insurance through the mails or from unknown persons without making sure the company and the agent have licenses from the Oregon insurance department. Such companies and associations lead the policy holder to believe he is getting a bargain. Earle states, and in most instances the policies are extremely limited in coverage. The folly of purchasing insurance from unlicensed companies and associations is proved by the number of letters received by the insurance department from citizens who have been unable to collect when they have a claim. The policy holders find, after the company or association refuses to pay, that it is beyond reach through either the insurance department of the courts of the state.

Grass Valley Children Ill With Scarlet Fever

Light Snow Remains On Crown For Week Until Chinook Comes

The J. C. Hartley children are reported to be ill with the scarlet fever this week and the household has been quarantined. They are said to be getting along satisfactorily.

Clyde Stradley is driving the Buckley school bus while Wren Hogue aids around the Hartley garage during the illness of members of that family.

Charles Olds returned to Grass Valley this week after spending a large part of the past year working with Rooper at Antelope. He will begin taggin this week.

Surveyors of the WPA have been walking about the streets this week with tape lines and transits running the lines for the new curbs which will be put in as soon as the weather permits.

A covering of snow fell here this week to keep the ground white and give the small boys something to throw at each other.

Mrs. George Wilcox is recovering from a case of the measles that kept her in bed for several days and made a housekeeper out of George.

Mr. and Mrs. Florin Coon were in The Dalles Tuesday night to watch the boys basketball team play the team from that city.

Mrs. Gus Engstrom is still in the hospital and will probably remain there for some days to come as her recovery is not rapid.

Several farmers from this vicinity were in Moro Tuesday afternoon to attend the erosion meeting held at the court house.

L. D. Eakin and family were visitors in The Dalles the first of the week.

Mrs. J. H. Wilt accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Blake, to Portland and McMinnville last week end. Mrs. Blake drove the debaters down for the Linfield tournament.

Grass Valleyites were in evidence at the rabbit drive which was held Wednesday at the Clodfelter ranch with the CCC boys acting as hosters in getting the rodents out of the grass and sage and on their way toward the corral.

Dell Olds took a bunch of the basketball players to The Dalles Tuesday night and watched them hold the larger and more experienced team to an eleven point victory.

Grass Valley Debate Team Chosen For Year

By Janet Wilcox

The Grass Valley debate squad won four out of the twelve debates they participated in at McMinnville Tournament. Keith Rhinehart and Robert Rolfe made up one complete team debating both sides of the question. They defeated Beaverton and Gresham. The other team consisted of Marjorie Blake and Agnes Simons, affirmative, and Janet Wilcox and Thelma Fortner negative. This team also defeated two teams representing Beaverton and Gresham. The purpose of the trip was to gain experience and to determine which four of the six would represent the school in the district debate. Mr. Rowe, the coach, has announced that Keith Rhinehart and Agnes Simons will be affirmative, while Janet Wilcox and Marjorie Blake will be negative.

Tuesday evening the Grass Valley basketball team will journey to The Dalles where they will endeavor to strengthen their reputation by defeating The Dalles team. The basketball game between Moro and Grass Valley has been postponed indefinitely because of sickness in the Moro school.

The Girl's League is selling hot dogs Friday the fourteenth of February for a dime. These will be sold during the lunch period so that those who come in from the country will be able to buy them as well as those living in town.

The Civics class spent their period Tuesday practicing legislative formality. Bills were introduced and then discussed thoroughly. Everything was tried from filibustering to biting sarcasm. The highlight of the session was when Jimmy Blagg started talking about the weather and wound up with Chinese mathematics as the bell rang announcing change of class. The beginning of the semester brought a new Senior to high school. Phyllis Dickson who attended her freshman and sophomore years here, but went to Antelope her Junior year has returned to Grass Valley to graduate. She had only attended school a week when the Scarlet Fever broke out, in the family with whom she is staying, so she is now in quarantine.

3 reasons why you should have an All-Electric Home Laundry...

- 1 To banish laundering drudgery!
- 2 To make your clothes last longer!
- 3 To turn out more attractive work!

Any electric laundering appliance—washer, ironer or water heater—will do so much to lighten your work. Any two of them—or all three—will make your work still easier. But the ideal arrangement is to have all three placed in a carefully designed laundry. Then you will enjoy maximum efficiency with a minimum of labor. You will waste no steps, no motions. Your equipment will do all the hard work—not you. And your laundering time will be very substantially reduced.

So decide now to have an all-electric laundry. You may have to acquire your washer, ironer and automatic electric water heater one appliance at a time. But do work out a plan for your all-electric laundry and work toward the completion of that plan as you buy equipment.

Dealers and P. P. & L. Co. will gladly assist you in working out your laundry plan, in arranging convenient terms.

EFFICIENT ALL-ELECTRIC LAUNDRY PLAN
1—electric washer which is rolled over to tubs (4); 2—automatic electric water heater; 3—work counter with drawers below; 4—stationary tub; 5—work counter with cupboards above and below; 6—laundry chute; 7—electric ironer; 8—ironing board; 9—table; 10—lines.

EVERY HOME LAUNDRY NEEDS THESE

Electric Washer

Modern electric washers are kind to even the most delicate fabrics. Yet so efficient is their washing action that every trace of dirt is swished away in 5 to 7 minutes. The wringers are remarkable, too. From paper-thin pieces, from bulky pieces, water is extracted equally well without your having to adjust the wringers in any way. Both washers and wringers are built to give years of trouble-free service.

Electric Ironer

The electric ironer was designed to take the backache out of ironing. And it certainly does that! You sit comfortably and feed your dampened pieces through so easily. The ironer exerts all the pressure—not you. It also frees you from lifting and pushing. Your pieces are finished with a truly professional look. Best of all, your ironing is completed in half the time formerly required.

Electric Water Heater

When you have an automatic electric water heater, you not only have abundant hot water for laundering, but also have it for any use whenever you turn a faucet—day or night, winter or summer. No waiting—no firing up—no heating water on top of the stove—no holding a fire just for hot water—in fact, no bother at all! It's just as if you had an ever-flowing hot spring in your home.
